

Local News

Mrs. E. P. Hoyt arrived in the city Friday night from Portland and joined by Mrs. J. G. Barratt, son Bill and John Crawford left Saturday morning for a visit in Montana. The party also included James Barratt who was dropped off at Pendleton for a visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Lieuallen. Bill Barratt and John Crawford expected to assist in taking some of the Barratt lambs from the Montana range to market at St. Paul, Minn.

Uncle Billy Brown has returned to the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. A. Thompson after visiting four months with son, Scott Brown, and daughter, Mrs. Linnie Lowder, at Condon. While away he enjoyed a visit with relatives and friends at Tacoma, Seattle, Yakima and Lonerock. Scott Brown came over with him Saturday.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo attended sessions of the Eastern Oregon Medical association held at Baker the end of the week. He was accompanied home by Dr. John Cheetham of Portland who was taken on to the city by Bernard McMurdo. Bernard expected to visit for a few days in Corvallis before returning.

Edwin Ingles, former school principal at Lexington, was a visitor in the city Tuesday in his capacity as public relations man for Pacific university during the summer. He complimented the record of Morrow county students at the institution, all of whom have made good records.

Bernard McMurdo arrived home this week to spend the remainder of the summer vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo. He has been attending ROTC camp at Vancouver, Wash., following the close of spring term at Oregon State college where he is a student.

Mrs. Clara Beamer and daughter, Miss Irene, and Mrs. Joe Hughes returned home last Thursday evening from points in California. Mrs. Beamer and daughter took in the San Francisco fair while Mrs. Hughes visited relatives in Sacramento. They were gone for two weeks.

Mrs. H. L. Stiles returned to her home at Portland this week after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Josie Jones. News was received this week of the advancement of her husband from the position of assistant cashier to cashier of United States National bank in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belanger were in the city yesterday from their home at Moro, Mrs. Belanger visiting friends while Mr. Belanger looked after business in connection with his work as cooperative research agent with USDA extension service.

David, Will and Annie Hynd returned home Tuesday from a vacation trip to Portland and the coast. They were in Portland while Fleet week was in progress and had the privilege of going aboard one of Uncle Sam's greyhounds.

Mrs. Chester Brown was in the city Saturday from Monument, transacting business in connection with moving the family home there where Mr. Brown and her son, Chester Christenson, are employed with the new CCC camp.

When W. H. French was in town Tuesday from Blue Mountain farm he reported the temperature at 31 degrees at his place that morning, a big contrast from the temperature of last week when the thermometer registered over 100.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walker and son and Bill Isom motored to Walla Walla Tuesday evening to attend a district dinner for Ford parts and service men held at the Marcus Whitman hotel. They report an enjoyable occasion.

MID-SUMMER SALE of Hats, Coats and Suits. Special stock of cotton voiles and silk dresses to sell at $1.00 while they last. CURRAN READY-TO-WEAR.

George Peck, county commissioner, completed his harvest in time to attend the regular court session yesterday. While his yield was somewhat short of normal, it exceeded earlier expectations, he said.

Dr. R. M. Rice left by auto Saturday for Oakland, Cal., where he expected to pick up his mother, Mrs. R. M. Rice, and sister, Miss Betty Rice, and return with them to their home at Eugene.

F. J. Ely was in the city today from the farm near Morgan. He reported harvesting about over in his district with yields generally better than expected earlier in the season.

Mrs. Wislon Bayless left this week with her son, Howard Swick, and family of Monument, for a two weeks motor trip on which they expected to attend the fair at San Francisco.

Womens Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet in the church basement at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 8. This will be the day for mite box offerings.

Ed Gonty and son Thomas left recently for Los Angeles where Mr. Gonty expected to visit for three months and his son intended to enter aviation school.

The Bud Hanlon family plans to leave the first of the week for Idaho for a vacation trip while Mr. Hanlon is relieved of his duties as P. P. & L. lineman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and children and Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Armstrong, left the first of the week for a short vacation motor trip into Washington.

Frank Rumble departed on last evening's train for Missoula, Mont., to be absent for two weeks. He expected to visit other points also while away.

George McDuffee arrived this week from Portland and is visiting at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buhman.

John O'Dell, district manager of Tum-A-Lum Lumber company, and Mr. Chambers, company auditor, were business visitors in the city Tuesday.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the HEPPNER HOTEL on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray P. Kinne and son Dick returned home this week from a vacation trip to Long Beach, Wash.

Purebred OIC pigs for sale, papers furnished. Six boars and two sows; nice stuff. Fred Ely Morgan, Ore. 1tp.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Wright and daughter of Rhea creek were transacting business in the city Monday.

IRRIGON NEWS

Evangelistic Services Being Held at Irrigon

By MRS. W. C. ISOM
Rev. McDonald, traveling evangelist, is holding services at the Pentecostal church every night this week. Rev. and Mrs. Alquist of Vale will arrive Tuesday, accompanied by a trio of musicians and will assist with the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Allen of Umatilla spent Sunday with Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haney.

Mr. and Mrs. James Arberg were La Grande visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Batie Rand were the lucky winners of the Frigidaire at the theater in Hermiston Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. Larson was a business visitor in Hermiston Monday.

Chase McCoy of California visited relatives here last week.

Clarence Frederickson is employed at the Farm Bureau in Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith spent several days last week at Strawberry lake near Blue Mountain springs in Grant county, on a fishing trip.

Ralph Acock who is working near Heppner spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Acock.

Mrs. Leta Driscoll and three children and Mrs. Meigs Boyles and daughter Carol of Scott's Bluffs, Wyo., visited their aunt, Mrs. W. C. Isom Wednesday night and Thursday.

STOP HERE FOR CASH SAVINGS ON FARM TIRES

Husky Goodyears give you LOWEST-COST-PER-MILE—on cars, trucks and tractors. All sizes. High values at low costs!

SAVE TODAY—THE GOODYEAR WAY

GOODYEAR PATHFINDER—“Lifetime Guarantee.” Low prices (including your old tire):
4.50-21...$6.48 4.75-19...$6.70
5.25-17 8.55 6.00-16... 9.32

GOODYEAR MARATHON
A rugged economy truck tire
32 x 6TT $20.61—with old tire
“LIFETIME GUARANTEE”
Goodyear's and ours

MARATHON FOR TRUCKS
More traction—longer wear. The most truck tire you ever bought for so little money.
As low as $15.85

SAVE AT THE SIGN OF THE GOODYEAR DIAMOND

FERGUSON MOTOR CO.
Heppner, Ore.

day. They were enroute home from Hood River where they had been visiting relatives the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Seaman from Sandy visited Mrs. Seaman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Steward, Sunday, being enroute to Madras to visit Mr. Seaman's parents.

Mrs. Marshal Markham and two daughters, Adelpha and Lavelle, returned home Sunday from Turner. Mr. Markham spent the week end with his family.

Rev. and Mrs. Harness and family returned Friday. They were driving a new car which they purchased while on their trip to camp meeting.

Ten spring pigs for sale. W. H. Cleveland, phone 8F11. 20-21

SIX LICENSES FOR YEAR

Mistaken report was given in these columns last week that only three marriage licenses had been issued in the county so far this year. Clerk Barlow reports there have been six. Recipients of the latest, Charles Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson, and Miss Ola Hiatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hiatt, were married July 20 by Rev. Martin B. Clark in this city.

NEW AUTO POLICY
Bodily Injury & Property Damage
Class A $11.25 Class B $12.90
See us before financing your next automobile.
F. W. TURNER & CO.

F. B. NICKERSON
Morrow County Representative
Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha
Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK
The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.
SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Mon., Weds., Fri. and Sat.
Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent “PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS”

The STAR REPORTER
Friday-Saturday
THE FAMILY NEXT DOOR
with Hugh Herbert, Ruth Donnelly, Joy Hodges, Eddie Quillan, Juanita Quigley
A wholesome “comedy of errors” with a lot of laughs for every member of the family.
—PLUS—
CHASING DANGER
with Preston Foster, Lynn Bari, Wally Vernon, Henry Wilcoxon, Joan Woodbury, Harold Huber
Foster, trouble-hunting newsreel cameraman, and Vernon, his milquetoast assistant, find themselves in the middle of an arms smuggling mystery.
Musical short subject

Sunday-Monday
YOUNG MR. LINCOLN
with Henry Fonda, Alice Brady, Marjorie Weaver, Arleen Whelan, Eddie Collins, Pauline Moore, Richard Cromwell, Donald Meek, Doris Bowdon, Eddie Quillan.
A character study of Lincoln in one special and initial phase of his career . . . a sincere and inspiring photoplay.
Cartoon Newsreel

Tuesday
THE GORILLA
with Nancy Kelly, Ritz Brothers, Anita Louise, Lionel Atwill, Bela Lugosi, Joseph Calleia, Wally Vernon
The old favorite thriller-chiller stage play comes to the screen loaded with laughs and excitement.
Fashion News Cartoon Good Neighbors

Wednesday-Thursday, Aug. 9-10
CONFESSIONS OF A NAZI SPY
with Edward G. Robinson, Paul Lukas, Francis Lederer, George Sanders, Henry O'Neill, Lya Lys, Dorothy Tree
Based on Leon G. Turrou's articles dealing with the Nazi spy ring in America, this is a hard-hitting and highly exciting depiction of all the points of the exposure to which the German espionage system has been subjected.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buschke, Morgan, are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions.
To be used before August 11th.

STAR THEATER
Heppner, Oregon

Slab Wood
$4 Cord for Green
$5 Cord for Dry
—delivered anywhere within three miles . . anywhere in county reasonable.
$3 at Mill
Good Wood
Good Measure
Heppner Fuel Co.
Phones: Office 152; Res. 1122