Few Cow Elk Tags Here, Complained

Many local sportsmen this week have bemoaned not being able to obtain tags for bagging cow elk this season. Some made application immediately word of the commission's ruling permitting the taking of 500 such animals in this and other counties this season, only to find that the allotted number of tags had been issued.

Complaint was made that no local source for obtaining the tags was available, that Morrow county was given no quota of tags, and that announcement was not received here until after 200 applications had already been received by the commission.

AT PENDLETON FIGHTS

Heppner supplied a large delegation of fight fans that helped swell the large crowd at the Pendleton Round-Up grounds ringside last Friday evening. The Mendiola-Hoshino main event proved the poorest bout of the evening, according to reports, with Mendiola clearly having the upper hand in spite of the draw decision. C. J. D. Bauman, local matchmaker, was at the ringside. He plans a match here for Mendiola on the 19th if possible. Among others in attendance were Dr. L. D. Tibbles, J. O. Turner, Ralph Beamer.

RODEO PARADE

among the outlaws are Red Hill, Tar Heel, Mickey, only a few of the buckers that disqualified so many of the contestants at the Centralia show, finished only last Sunday. The Centralia show is one of the largest in the West and draws the country's top cowhands, many of whom are coming to Heppner.

Inquiries are still coming in regarding the dates of the show and prize money. An incomplete list of cowboys entering include Kenneth and Lloyd Depew, Emmett Lynch, Pat and Herb Owens, Pat Fisk, Frank Swaggart and Bert Baze.

Alex Saluskin, little Indian boy who performed the war dance at last year's Rodeo, will return, as well as his father, Rudy Saluskin.

Mabel Strickland, world-famed cowgirl who holds Pendleton championships and wife of Hugh Strickland who is also a former Pendleton champion and currently of Hollywood movies, sent word to President Henry Aiken that she desired bookings for exhibitions of steer roping. Since few women follow the rodeos and round-ups as a profession, Rodeo officials are directing efforts toward obtaining the performance of this cowgirl.

All persons wishing Heppner Rodeo stickers for their car windows may obtain them at Hotel Heppner or Aiken's pastime.

The final queen grange dance is scheduled for Ione, Saturday, August 12.

Corn Show Committees Prepare for Big Event

With December 1 and 2 definitely set as the dates for Oregon's third annual statewide corn show, committees headed by Charles W. Smith, assistant county agent leader, are working already on various arrangements intended to make this the largest and most educational show of its kind.

The extension service and experiment station of Oregon State college have been asked to cooperate with the original sponsors in staging the show at Corvallis from now on. Representatives of state farm organizations and of the Smith-Hughes department are working on the general committee in charge.

Detailed closing dates for exhibits, time of judging, etc., will be announced in connection with publication of the premium list early in September, says Smith. Tentative plans, however, call for exhibits to be received the first day of the cornshow week, following many county shows. O. S. C. students will assist in placing exhibits to be followed by judging—all prior to the official opening of the show the Friday after Thanksgiving.

Emergency Loans For Seed Available

Seed loans through the Emergency Crop and Feed loan office can now be secured through the county agent's office. These loans can be used for buying seed, seeding operations, weeding and other expenses connected with putting in the coming crop. Loans taken out now will come due August 31, 1940. These loans are the same as have been made in the past few years and the maximum amount available for any one farmer is $400.

An additional loan for summer-fallowing may be secured in the spring.

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "THE AMERICAN BOY seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, baseball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend THE AMERICAN BOY enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of THE AMERICAN BOY advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famed coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in THE AMERICAN BOY, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. 21-2
