

Local News

J. G. Barratt and John Crawford returned Saturday from Montana where Mr. Barratt had been looking after sheep interests and John had gone as helper. Billy Barratt, who went to Montana at the same time John did, had left for St. Paul with a shipment of lambs for market. John made one trip there with a sheep shipment while away.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer, son Don and daughter, Miss Jane, an attendant to Queen Barbara of Pendleton Round-Up, were Rodeo visitors from their home at John Day. They were busy greeting many old-time friends and extending invitations to the Grant county fair, Sept. 22-23-24. Mr. Boyer runs the furniture store at John Day.

Mrs. Gordon Ridings arrived from Eugene the end of the week in time to take in the Rodeo of which she was the first queen. Mr. Ridings was prevented from accompanying her by work on the farm of his parents, but will join Mrs. Ridings here before they return to New York to resume their teaching duties in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Byron of Los Angeles were over-Rodeo visitors in the city. Leaving on the return the first of the week, they were accompanied by Mrs. Byron's mother, Mrs. Katie Slocum, who expected to make an extended visit with the Byrons and other relatives.

Among former Heppnerites from the Pendleton district making the annual trek to Rodeo were John Kilkenny, with family, Bert Stone, and the Walter Moores. Larry Moore was one of the main performers in the Pendleton Sons of the Legion drum and bugle corps.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dkystra of Crabtree and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bierly of Harrisburg, visited friends and relatives from Thursday til Tuesday. The Dykstras are former residents, having farmed for many years on Rhea creek.

Billy McRoberts, in CCC camp at Baker, came back to the old home town for Rodeo. A member of the town baseball team before leaving, he has extended his diamond career by playing shortstop for Weiser this season with a batting average of .384.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Hilding Bengston of Medford are the parents of a 7½-pound daughter, born last Thursday morning, according to word received by Mrs. Bengston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bengte. Mrs. Bengston was formerly Miss Luola Bengte.

John Farley made the old home town a call during Rodeo, bringing along a gang of live wires from John Day town who were talking up the Grant county fair. Jack Parrish, Bill Ford and "Mac" McCann were in Johnny's gang.

Neale Welch of Portland and Carl Welch of The Dalles visited over the week end with their mother, Mrs. E. J. Stingle. They are sons of Otis Welch, member of the pioneer mercantile firm of Rhea & Welch.

L. C. Mathews and wife of Pilot Rock left last Sunday for an extended trip to California and the big fair. They were here for Rodeo and had as supper guests Bill Etter and Jim Whittaker of Pilot Rock.

Hugh Bowman, in charge of the Pendleton Sons of the Legion drum and bugle corps, was an interested Rodeo attendant and Round-Up booster among those from the neighboring city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder departed Sunday for Seaside to visit with relatives and enjoy the cool ocean breezes while Mr. Snyder takes respite from his work at the Noble saddle shop.

Charley Hoskins, Indian reservation officer, brother of Fred Hoskins of Rhea creek and old-time baseball catcher, was among the Pendletonians here for Rodeo Saturday.

Dr. Leonard Purkey, former osteopath here, was a Rodeo visitor from Portland, accompanied by his daughter, Marlene, and Miss Gale Gibson. Mrs. Charles Corder came with them from the city to take in the Rodeo and visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Aiken.

Mrs. F. S. Parker and daughter, Miss Katherine, went to Portland the middle of last week for a visit at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, while Mrs. Parker was seeking respite from a severe attack of hay fever. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. Willam Matlock and two daughters of Cheney, Wash., are visiting friends here, having spent an afternoon with Mrs. Bonnie Cachran. Mrs. Matlock's late husband formerly owned the Minor ranch on Willow creek.

Mrs. Eddie Thorpe and children, Carl and Etta Mae, returned from Portland Sunday. Carl went through a clinic and took treatment at Doernbecher hospital. He will return in three or four weeks for further treatment.

Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter and daughter, Miss Othelia, arrived in the city last Thursday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Hofstetter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Devin. Mrs. Hofstetter is Malheur county librarian at Ontario.

Gerald Roberts who attended high school here two years ago and played football, took in the Rodeo, riding his motor-bike down from Seattle. He recently arrived in the states from his home in Alaska.

M. A. Fuegy, traveling freight agent for Union Pacific, was in the city at Rodeo time from his home in Portland and was an interested spectator at the big show.

Dr. Will Hughes, Mr. Witt and Mrs. McCann were a group of Walla Wallans passing through town Sunday on their way home from a visit at Ritter. Dr. Hughes is a brother of Percy Hughes of Lena.

Alfred L. Ayers of Portland is making an extended visit at the home of his niece, Mrs. Percy Hughes, at Lena. He accompanied her to town yesterday and was greeting old-time friends.

F. M. Simpson and son, F. M., Jr., of Chicago were Thursday rodeo guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Thompson. Mr. Simpson is head of the agricultural research department of Swift & Co.

A. W. Zornes, logging contractor for Bridal Veil Lumber and Box company, was a business visitor in the city yesterday from the operations on upper Johnson creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Johnson of Range were in the city for the three days of Rodeo.

Miss Marguerite Glavey who finished teaching a summer term of school at Burton Valley the first of August, will teach the Liberty school in the Eight Mile section, beginning next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Schwarz from Seneca arrived Friday in time to take in Rodeo events while visiting at the home of Mr. Schwarz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz.

Richard Peterson of Monument brought a load of cattle over from Grant county just in time to get in on Saturday's Rodeo and was busy greeting old-time friends here.

M. H. Mulligan of Oregon City, representing the department of internal revenue, was a Rodeo visitor, being a guest at the home of his brother, Miles Mulligan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shipley of Underwood, Wash., and Mrs. Elwin Shipley of Wenatchee visited relatives and friends here Saturday and took in the Rodeo.

Harry Duncan returned home Sunday from a two weeks' outing at Seal Rocks on the coast, spent with Judge C. L. Sweek and family.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the HEPPNER HOTEL on WEDNESDAY, September 6th.

Bob Fortner of Grass Valley was an over-Rodeo guest at the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas.

Lennie Lowden of Condon, sister of Mrs. R. A. Thompson, rode in Saturday's Rodeo parade wearing a brand new pair of chaps turned out at Noble's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack French were here for the Rodeo from the Long Creek ranch, and Jack as usual assisted at the grounds.

Mrs. Mary Burt and daughter of Portland visited in the county over the week end and took in the Rodeo.

Chet Macey was admitted to a local hospital Sunday evening suffering a light stroke complicated by uremia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilson motored to Portland Tuesday.

For sale or trade, one Hereford bull. Ervin Anderson, Ione. 25-27p

Mrs. Kate Barr was visiting relatives and friends at Rodeo time, coming over from her home at John Day where Mr. Barr now conducts a restaurant.

LOCKER BOXES

• 3 Sizes to Suit Everybody
LOCALLY BUTCHERED
MEATS
FRESH AND CURED
Central Market
Ture Peterson, Mgr.

F. B. NICKERSON
Morrow County Representative
Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha
Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK
The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.
SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Mon., Weds., Fri. and Sat.
Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent
"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

The STAR REPORTER
Friday-Saturday
CHICKEN WAGON FAMILY
with Jane Withers, Leo Carrillo, Marjorie Weaver, Spring Byington, Kane Richmond, Hobart Cavanaugh Taller and less plump, with a different hairdo and bangless, Jane is as entertaining as ever. This time she excels as a trader of anything from chickens to human hearts.
—PLUS—
Another exciting episode in the adventures of Torchy Blane, and this time
TORCHY RUNS FOR MAYOR
with Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane, Tom Kennedy

Sunday-Monday
GOODBYE MR. CHIPS
from the best-selling novel by James Hilton with Robert Donat, Green Garson, Tommy Kilburn
From the pen of a master author comes a masterpiece of the screen. Into this story of the gentle English schoolmaster have been injected all the requisites of fine entertainment.
Movietone News with world coverage
Our Gang in a gala soap-box auto derby.

Tuesday
PAL NIGHTS: 2 ADULTS 35c, 2 CHILDREN 10c
UNEXPECTED FATHER
with Sandy Lee, Shirley Ross, Dennis O'Keefe, Mischa Auer, Joy Hodges
Baby Sandy, whose antics delighted theatergoers in "East Side of Heaven," brings more of her cheerful gurgles to make pleasant entertainment of this comedy-drama.
Travelogue Musical

Wednesday-Thursday, Sept. 6-7
S. S. VAN DINE'S
The Gracie Allen Murder Case
with Gracie Allen, Warren William, Ken Taylor, Jed Prouty, Donald McBride, Ellen Drew, H. B. Warner
Miss Allen, her own dumb dashing self, in and out of a murder mystery to the complete confusion of crooks and detectives alike, is incredibly amusing.
Fashions Barnyard Baseball Newsreel

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Rugg are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions.
STAR THEATER
Heppner, Oregon

GET NEW TIRES FOR YOUR
LABOR DAY TRIP!
They'll save you money!
ENJOY YOUR HOLIDAY week-end in safety. Tires bought now will give you up to 30% more mileage!
• Tires broken in during fall and winter give thousands of miles of extra wear! Come in today! We've got the biggest tire values in town—your size—your PRICE!
DON'T TAKE CHANCES
Put those new tires on your car today. SAVE and be SAFE.
ASK US TO SHOW YOU GOODYEAR'S BEST KNOWN TIRE
"G-3"
ALL-WEATHER
Stepped UP in mileage DOWN in price!
SAVE BOTH WAYS: MORE MILES... LESS MONEY!
• Tougher, stronger, SAFER than the famous "G-3" you've known in the past. Built to run thousands of extra safe miles.
FRESH SUPPLIES. DRIVE IN NOW!

BUY NOW—SAVE—AND BE SAFE!
GOODYEAR TIRES
LOW COST... ..HIGH VALUE
SAVE AT THE SIGN OF THE GOODYEAR DIAMOND
FERGUSON MOTOR CO.
Heppner, Ore.

Slab Wood
$4 Cord for Green
$5 Cord for Dry
—delivered anywhere within three miles... anywhere in county reasonable.
$3 at Mill
Good Wood
Good Measure
Heppner Fuel Co.
Phones: Office 152; Res. 1122