Ione Schools To Open Monday

By KATHERINE GRIFFITH
School in Ione will open Monday, Sept. 4, for about an hour at which time the pupils will register. The teaching staff was completed Monday evening when the board met and elected William Burk of Redmond, a Monmouth graduate, to fill the vacancy left by Richard Gronquist, the fifth and sixth grade teacher who resigned to attend Linfield college next year. The schoolhouse has had many improvements made during the summer. A new laboratory has been installed in the typing room upstairs and the old laboratory has been converted into a manual training shop. A cooking course will be offered this year and a new Flamo stove, two electric plates and new dishes and utensils have been purchased. The teachers in the high school for the following year are: Erret E. Hummel, principal; Amy C. Sperry, English and home economics; Frances Stewart, commercial and girls' athletic coach, and Gilbert Haller, science and boys' athletic coach. In the grade school the teachers are: Mrs. Harriet Brown, seventh and eighth grades; William H. Burk, fifth and sixth grades; Gladys Brashers, third and fourth grades, and Lorna Barham, first and second grades.

Erling Thompson* received the contract to drive the Rocky Bluff school bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jalmar Koski and daughter Thelma Jean arrived in Ione from Olympia Monday to visit relatives. They brought home Alice Nicholson who has been visiting there for some time.

Miss Eileen Sperry returned to Ione Thursday morning from Portland where she has been spending the summer visiting an aunt. She will stay at the Carl Allyn home until her parents return from Portland.

Mrs. U. S. uBra and daughter Miss Betty Rood, of Portland spent the latter part of the week here visiting Mrs. Burt's sister, Mrs. Henry Clark. They also attended the Rodeo at Heppner, leaving for home Sunday.

Kenneth Bach of Monmouth was attending to business in Ione Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger were visitors in Ione Monday. They returned to their home at White Salmon Tuesday.

W. E. Bullard and son Wallace of Gold Beach were calling on friends in Ione and vicinity Sunday. They were enroute to Montana to look after property interests there. They will return by way of Salt Lake City and San Francisco. His daughter, Eleanor, has just returned from the fair.

C. W. Swanson returned Friday morning from Sumner, Wash., where he has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker and children returned Sunday from Spokane where they were called by the death of Mr. Baker's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker were calling on Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman Sunday. They were staying in Heppner and attending the Rodeo.

Jimmie Barnett returned Wednesday from Vancouver, Wash., where he has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Nord.

The Morgan schoolhouse is being painted and cleaned in preparation for the beginning of school. The new teacher is Ruth Johnson, a graduate of Eastern Oregon Normal school. Fred J. Ely will again drive the bus which transports the high school pupils to Ione.

Eddie Cooper of Portland was visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Ritchie, the latter part of the week and went to the Rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blake and Mrs. John H. Blake of Kinzua were guests at the Willard Blake home Sunday. Krebs Bros. of Cecil have just completed the construction of a large new barn for chopped hay.

Lewis Padberg went to Heppner Monday to see his brother John who had just been operated on and was seriously ill.

HARDMAN NEWS

Hardman Clubbers Take Fair Awards

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL

The Hardman 4-H clubs under the leadership of Mrs. Neal Knighten did very well at the county fair. Forty dollars in prizes and scholarships were taken by the boys and girls. Cecil McDaniel received first and Norvin Adams second in bachelor sewing; Vern McDaniel and Mildred Clary seconds in sewing III and II; Molly McIntyre first and Edna Stephens second in sewing IV; Ann McIntyre and Vera McDaniel second in judging; and Mildred Clary and Vern McDaniel, third. In the style revue, Vern McDaniel was second. In sewing II there was also a revue with no prizes in which Mildred Clary was first and Vera McDaniel second. Also Vern McDaniel and Mildred Clary, under the direction of Mrs. G. I. Clary, put on a demonstration, for which both Vern and Mildred won scholarships which they will use next June at the 4-H summer camp at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright have a new baby girl, born on August 26. She weighed 7½ lbs. and is called Janet.

Sam McDaniel, Jr., leaves Thursday of this week for the high mountains where he will herd sheep for Harlan McCurdy.

We of this community extend our best wishes to Miss Gladys Lovgren and Archie Alderman who were married last Saturday. They are living in Heppner in the house owned by Mrs. Lorena Isom. On Monday evening there was a charivari or house warming in Heppner in honor of them.

Mrs. Marion Saling and children and Lewis McDaniel were in Heppner Monday having come in from the mountains. The Salings are stationed at Bull Prairie during the summer.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and Vera, Vern and Cecil left Tuesday with Mrs. Anson Rugg for Enterprise where they will visit until Saturday at the home of Mrs. McDaniel's sister, Mrs. Harlan Weeks. Mrs. Rugg will visit her parents who live in La Grande.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reid returned from Prineville where they had been for about a week, and that afternoon Raymond began work at the Wray mill near Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Jr., were shopping and visiting in Heppner Monday. Also Sam visited his dentist and had a tooth extracted.

Guy Chapin returned during the week from a trip to Portland. He accompanied W. H. French and Frank Murphy. Mr. French took a load of cattle down.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats and daughter Echo and Ralph Skoubo of Boardman visited Mr. Coats' mother, Mrs. Mary Coats, here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and daughters spent Sunday at the Raymond McDonald home.

Mrs. Sabin Hastings and Ollie and Lily are home from the sheep camp, as school opens on Tuesday. Jim Brannon, Herbert McDaniel and Lester Ashbaugh came over from Prineville for the last day of the Rodeo. Lester and Jim returned Sunday with more of the Brannon household goods, but Herbert remained here.

Pad Howell returned Saturday evening from the Spray country where he has spent the summer herding sheep. He lost his horse just after he arrived, when it ate poisoned oats which someone had carelessly left out.

Mrs. Bud Fisk and Marleen arrived Friday from Arlington and are visiting at the Charles McDaniel home.

Mrs. Frank Howell and sons from Top were visiting here and attended the Rodeo. On Saturday they took Mrs. Howell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, to Heppner with them.

John Hastings was home from the Wright's last week. He has been herding but had to have a week off to attend the Rodeo.

On Tuesday of last week Floyd Adams received word from Portland that his father was worse, so Mr. and Mrs. Adams and daughters left at once. No word has been received as to the condition of John Adams, but all in this community are very sorry to know of his illness.

Miss Marjorie Thomas of Portland and Floyd Walkley spent Saturday at the Batty's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hams and Mrs. Bernard Bleakman spent Sunday in the mountains at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nunnemaker, Miss Dorothy Graves and Roy Kerby, all of Hood River, spent the week end at the Earl Redding home.

On Saturday Carl Leathers and Earl Redding left for Long Creek. On the same day Mrs. Leathers and Jean went to Kimberley where they visited Carl's mother and sister, Mrs. Charles Roach.

B. H. Bleakman, Buster Bleakman and Edward McDaniel left Wednesday for Susanville where they have some mining interests.

On each day of the Rodeo many Hardman people went to Heppner, but especially on Saturday when the town was practically deserted.

On Thursday of last week there was a good thunder storm with the lightning striking very close. Many fires were started in the mountains and out at the French ranch and vicinity they had a thorough wetting. Since then our nights have been particularly cold and the days are much cooler than formerly.

At the grade school building Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings have been getting things in readiness for the opening of school which will be on next Tuesday. The high school begins on Monday and G. I. Clary has been cleaning in preparation. Mrs. Marie Clary will teach the high school, her seventh year here. Miss Sparks of Pendleton and Miss Raimy of Condon are new this year and will teach the grades. About the usual enrollment is expected.

On Monday Neal Knighten went to Heppner to consult a doctor, and again on Tuesday. Fan Miller also went in Tuesday.

Leon Mojica's popular radio orchestra, playing regularly from El Pateo in San Francisco, will be at the Oregon state fair, in Salem, September 4 to 10, to play for the nightly free dances and also at the All American revue.

Oregon music composers will be honored on Saturday of the the state fair, to be held in Salem September 4 to 10, on the several programs to be given in the daily series by the Oregon Federation of Music clubs. Artists from all parts of the state will appear in the Federation's musical entertainments.
