

Local News

Eastern Oregon looks pretty good to them, but they are not yet willing to admit Iowa isn't the best state in the union, said J. L. Chapman and W. S. Mitchell of Derby and Chariton, that state, respectively, who were calling in the city Monday with J. D. Ekleberry from Morgan. Mr. Chapman, half brother, and Mr. Mitchell, cousin, of R. L. Ekleberry, J. D.'s father, were making a visit at the Ekleberry home with their wives. They come from a district where the tall corn grows, a 23-foot sample with ears having been shown recently at the county fair in their county. Both visiting men are corn and hog growers, while Mr. Chapman is also a veterinarian.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Merritt, former residents, left Tuesday for their home at Los Angeles after visiting at the home of Mrs. Merritt's sister, Mrs. Henry Schwarz, in the course of a trip that took them to several points in the Pacific northwest. Mrs. Schwarz accompanied them as far as Salem to visit at the homes of two sisters residing there, Mrs. Fred Rotzen and Mrs. Chester Baker.

Guests at the Dr. A. D. McMurdo home the first of the week were Dr. and Mrs. McMurdo's nieces, Misses Jeanette, Florence and Marjorie Sims from Milton. Marjorie remained here to attend school. Jeanette and brother Zan will be students at Oregon State college this year, while Florence will be at the home of her father, Clifford Sims, in Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeill departed for their home in Spokane Sunday after return from a trip to the San Francisco fair with Mr. McNeill's brother, Russell, and Mrs. McNeill of this city. The Spokane couple arrived on the 19th to accompany the local McNeill's on the enjoyable trip.

Charles and Louis Marquardt were business visitors in the city yesterday from the north Lexington farms. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marquardt recently returned from the San Francisco fair, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marquardt plan to leave Saturday to take in the big exposition, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baldwin and children returned the end of the week from an extended motor trip south through California as far as Tia Juana, Mex. They dropped off at San Francisco and took in the big fair and also drove across both big bay bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox departed the end of the week for a trip while Mr. Cox is on vacation from his job as postmaster. They went first to Newberg where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton for a trip to the San Francisco fair.

L. Van Marter returned to La Grande Sunday after a stay of two weeks here with his son, La Verne, who is reported to be making favorable progress at Heppner hospital in the serious illness by which he was recently attacked.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle, Paul and Margaret, returned last week from an extended vacation motor trip that took them to Seattle, Tacoma and Grand Coulee in Washington and coast and Willamette valley points in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pfeiffer of Seattle were week end guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, and Mrs. Smith left with them Sunday for a week's visit in the Washington city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Isom of Portland were over-Labor day callers at the home of Mr. Isom's brother, Blaine E. Isom. All enjoyed a fishing trip to Olive lake and a good catch is reported.

Billy Thomson, who has taken a position in the state auditing department at Salem, visited over Labor day with his mother, Mrs. Anna Q. Thomson.

J. E. Craber was transacting business in the city yesterday from the farm near Hardman, reporting his health and that of other members of the family considerably improved after several months treatment at Ashland. His son Gordon, who was critically ill for many months with mastoid trouble, was reported to be making especially good progress toward recovery. The Craber family was hard stricken when Mr. and Mrs. Craber and Gordon were quite ill at once.

Gordon Ridings arrived Tuesday from Eugene to join Mrs. Ridings who has been visiting since Rodeo time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Ridings expected to leave within a few days for New York to resume their teaching work for the winter.

A. T. King arrived in the city last evening from Kinzua to visit until Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. V. Crawford. Mr. King, who has barbered at Kinzua for more than a year, has purchased a shop in Portland where he will be located on leaving here.

Edgar Parker, assistant at the local forest office, arrived home Monday after several weeks spent on the fire line in southern Oregon and California. He expected to go to Portland this week end to meet his family on their return from Corvallis.

Heppner friends have received word from the Newt O'Hara family in Klamath Falls that they are contemplating return to Heppner. Peggy was said to be thrilled by attending high school with 1200 pupils, while Jack was "pining for Heppner."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray P. Kinne and Dick returned the first of the week from a week's visit in Portland while Mr. Kinne enjoyed a vacation from his duties as manager of the local P. P. & L. office.

Frank Ginter, one-time meat cutter in the former Schwarz market here, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz over Labor day, coming from his home at Prosser, Wash.

Leonard Kraft was in the city today on business connected with Bridal Veil Lumber and Box company, being accompanied by several other representatives of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward were out of town for the week end, Mr. Ward going to Portland, while Mrs. Ward visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Karl Farnsworth, at The Dalles.

Howard Swick was in the city Tuesday from Monument investigating the market for stock ewes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Fentress of the Ione section were business visitors in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hayden and children of the Stanfield section were in the city Saturday for funeral services of the late Mrs. Irena Straight, aunt of Mrs. Hayden's.

An 8½-pound son was born on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Martin B. Clark in this city, being the first child of the Church of Christ minister and his wife.

J. G. Barratt left yesterday for his sheep interests in the vicinity of Browning, Mont., having spent two weeks here looking after local interests.

Mrs. Ernest Heliker of Morgan was a visitor in the city Saturday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Lundell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belanger were week-end visitors here from their home at Moro, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt.

Louis Knighten was in town Tuesday from the ranch in the Hardman section transacting business with local livestock men.

Mrs. Minnie E. Davis who has been visiting Lillian Cochran for a week left yesterday morning for Walla Walla to visit a sister.

Miss Shirley Michael of Pilot Rock is visiting at the Chas. Mathews home.

For sale or trade, one Hereford bull. Ervin Anderson, Ione. 25-27p

It's HERE!
SEE "G-100" TODAY

Goodyear's new All-Weather Tire gives you more ride for your money!

Count on your new "G-100" All-Weather Tires for an ease of mind and body never yours before. NEW SAFETY, COMFORT and ECONOMY.

You get up to 33% more tread mileage!

"G-100" All-Weather is NEW—new in tread design, in contour, in cord body. It gives you extra thousands of safer, quieter, easier miles. . . . Start today!

DON'T WAIT FOR DANGER!
Play safe . . . get longer mileage, sure safety, special comfort, smarter looks—ALL AT NO EXTRA COST. Start NOW!

SAVE AT THE SIGN OF THE GOODYEAR DIAMOND

FERGUSON MOTOR CO.
Heppner, Ore.

Harry Anderson, livestock appraiser for First National Bank of Portland, was a visitor in the county this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scrivner, Bob and Billy, returned the end of the week from a vacation spent in Portland.

The Robert Knox family has taken up residence for the winter in the Reid apartments on Church street.

The Norbert Peavy family has taken the Kenneth Oviatt house on Jones street for the winter.

John F. Kenny this week deeded to F. D. Cox the SW¼NE¼, Sec. 11, Tp. 4 S., R. 28.

Miss Stella Bailey of Portland visited over Labor day here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pruyn.

Mrs. Roger Jordan and George Lambirth of Lexington left for Boise last week.

LOCKER BOXES
• 3 Sizes to Suit Everybody
LOCALLY BUTCHERED MEATS
FRESH AND CURED
Central Market
Ture Peterson, Mgr.

F. B. NICKERSON
Morrow County Representative
Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha
Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK
The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.
SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Mon., Weds., Fri. and Sat.
Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent
"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

The STAR REPORTER
Friday-Saturday
EX-CHAMP
with Victor McLaglen, Tom Brown, Nan Grey, Constance Moore, William Frawley
There's comedy, pathos and plenty of action in this entertaining little picture. Victor McLaglen in a role made to order for him.
—PLUS—
The Jones Family in Hollywood
More fun with the Janes Family as they take Hollywood by storm.
Cartoon "The Old Fire Horse"
Sunday-Monday
MHEN TOMORROW COMES with Irene Dunne, Charles Boyer, Barbara O'Neill, Onslow Stevens, Nydia Westman, Fritz Feld
A love story of sacrifice, brightened by a sprightly sprinkling of comedy. There are impressively spectacular hurricane scenes. This feature has proved so popular with Portland audiences that it is now in its third week there.
Newsreel Musical
Tuesday
PAL NIGHT: 2 adults 35c, 2 children 10c
WINTER CARNIVAL
with Ann Sheridan, Richard Carlson, Helen Parrish, Robt. Armstrong, Marsha Hunt
America's "Oomph Girl" in her first starring role. All winter sports scenes photographed at the winter carnival on Dartmouth campus.
—PLUS—
MARCH OF TIME
Metropolis—1939: Here is the thrilling, exciting, revealing story of the greatest show on earth—New York City.
Wednesday-Thursday, Sept. 13-14
IT'S A WONDERFUL WORLD with James Stewart, Claudette Colbert, Guy Kibbee, Nat Pendleton, Frances Drake, Edgar Kennedy, Ernest Truex, Andy Clyde Screenlined for laughs—the story of a light-headed poetess trying to "help" a private detective solve a couple of murders.
Cartoon Newsreel
STAR THEATER
Heppner, Oregon

Slab Wood
$4 Cord for Green
$5 Cord for Dry
—delivered anywhere within three miles . . anywhere in county reasonable.
$3 at Mill
Good Wood
Good Measure
Heppner Fuel Co.
Phones: Office 152; Res. 1122