

Mrs. Irena Straight Was 50-Year Resident

Mrs. William E. Straight, 70, 55-year resident of Morrow county, died at her home on North Church street last Thursday following a valiant fight against a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held from Masonic hall Saturday afternoon with Rev. R. C. Young officiating, assisted by Ruth chapter 32, Order of Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Straight had long been a member. Many relatives and friends were in attendance and the floral tribute was profuse. Interment was in Masonic cemetery.

Irena Isabel Devin was born in Boliver, Mo., March 3, 1869, coming to Oregon with her parents when 15 years of age. She was married to William E. Straight June 22, 1887, with whom she settled on the farm on Butter creek, which still carries the name, and resided until time of retirement to the home in this city some 15 years ago. Surviving besides Mr. Straight are three children, Mrs. Ola Jones of Lena, Waldon Straight of Portland, and Shirley Straight of Spokane; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Justus of Heppner, and two brothers, M. J. Devin of Heppner and Charles Devin of Eugene, besides four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Straight was highly respected and beloved by all who knew her. She was imbued with the pioneer spirit of neighborliness and kindness toward her fellow man as reflected from her entire life, and in her fraternal work which included membership also in the Rebekah order.

Chester Macey Came To County in 1881

George Chester Macey, 69, resident of Morrow county since 1881, died in this city Monday, following a week's critical illness. Funeral services were held from Phelps Funeral home chapel yesterday afternoon, with Rev. R. C. Young officiating, and interment was in Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Macey was born in Junction City, this state, Jan. 20, 1870, being aged 69 years, 6 months and 15 days at death. Surviving are four half sisters, Mrs. William Cowins and Mrs. Dick Wells of Heppner, Mrs. Cora Knotts of Pilot Rock, and Mrs. Joseph Ferguson of Los Angeles.

Mr. Macey followed ranching most of his life, and for many years resided on a small tract just south of town. He was known for his gentle disposition.

4-H Clubbers Take State Fair Trips

The Lexington Calf club judging team, Don Campbell, Irvin Rauch and Gene Majeske, arrived home yesterday from the state fair where they participated in the state-wide contest the first of the week. The fair trip was received as award for high placement in the recent county fair.

County Agent Clifford Conrad brought the boys home and left immediately on the return accompanied by Peggy Tamblin, Mildred Clary and Vern McDaniel. Miss Tamblin of Heppner is slated to participate in the style revue tomorrow morning, modeling her ensemble outfit which placed high at the county fair, while Misses Clary and McDaniel of Hardman will participate in a home economics demonstration contest Saturday morning, with their county prize winning demonstration on care of clothing.

occurred during the World War period; and that it will be possible to cushion the shocks of the readjustment which will be inevitable if the present conflict continues over any lengthy period and on any large scale.

"So, again, I urge our farmers not to be swayed by the developments overseas. Their greatest contribution right now to their own welfare and the national welfare is to carry on just as before."

Ashbaugh-Redding Rites Event of Week

The first of two tollings of wedding bells that created unusual interest in the county the end of the week sounded for Miss Lois Ashbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ashbaugh, and Mr. Boyd Redding, son of Lawrence Redding. Their nuptials were consummated at the Methodist church parsonage Saturday evening, with Rev. R. C. Young reading the ceremony in the presence of the other young couple for whom bells tolled Sunday morning, Miss Bernice Martin and Mr. James Healy.

Both newly married couples left together Sunday on a wedding trip to the San Francisco fair, expecting to visit Crater lake and coast points on the way.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Redding are popular young people, graduates of Heppner high school, and familiar in public positions. Mrs. Redding has served as stenographer at the county school superintendent's office for several months, while Mr. Redding holds a position with local branch, First National Bank of Portland. Well wishes of many friends extend to both young couples.
