

Local News

Mrs. Betty Hemperly and Mrs. Otto of Seaside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Hemperly's brother, Joseph Snyder, and with the Snyders attended the Round-Up. Mrs. Hemperly conducts a unique business at the coast resort city, featuring a line of Chinese antiques. Mrs. Hemperly lived in the Orient for many years in which time she assembled one of the outstanding collections of Chinese antiques to be seen in the United States. Her museum recently inspired a lengthy descriptive article that appeared in the Seaside Signal. The matron of Vagabond House, as her museum is known, lived in China for 19 years and in Japan for eight and a half years, and has made many trips back to the Orient since coming to the United States to reside. Last year, with her husband, she made a tour in Europe on which she visited among other places the beautiful city of Warsaw that so recently has been despoiled by war. At the time of the visit she sent a postal card to her brother here which carried a view of typical buildings in the Polish capital.

Among those from here attending the Round-Up last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn, L. L. Gilliam, Mrs. Earl W. Gordon, L. L. Matlock, Mrs. Josie Jones and Mrs. Jones' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stiles of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Lawrence, F. W. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson and Mary Lou, Mrs. Leonard Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom, Miss Louise Anderson, Norton King, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Groshens, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Grabil, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wells.

Mrs. Milton Fisher (nee Gladys Lane) and Mrs. D. C. Winney of Tacoma, Wash., were visitors Monday at the home of Mrs. Fisher's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark. They had been to the Round-Up and Mrs. Winney was thrilled with her first visit to eastern Oregon. Mrs. Fisher attended the Heppner schools as a girl and her husband is a dentist in the Washington city.

Mrs. T. J. Mahoney, daughter Ruth, and Miss Elizabeth Mahoney were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and on Friday accompanied them to Pendleton to see the Round-Up. Miss Elizabeth, aunt of Mr. Mahoney's, was especially thrilled with her first view of the big western show.

Clifford Sims and son Zan were visiting relatives and friends here Tuesday from their home at Milton. Mr. Sims was at one time connected with the old Farmers & Stock-growers bank here, has since been in banking work at various places, including the handling of receiverships at Milton and Arlington.

Mrs. Carrie Fisher, sister of Mr. Nys, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nys, from Salem, arriving Tuesday last week and leaving for home Sunday. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Nys to Pendleton Friday to attend Round-Up for the first time and was greatly thrilled by the show.

Cecelia Kate, weighing ten pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Parker at Heppner hospital, at 12:05 Monday afternoon. The young lady is the first child of the young attorney, manager of local Federal Land bank agencies, and wife, who have assumed the role of proud parents.

All the masculine contingent from the school faculty are leaving tomorrow evening for a week-end hunt, going in one party. Included are A. H. Blankenship, superintendent; Robert Knox, W. S. Bennett, Norbert Peavy, Harold Buhman and Kenneth McKenzie.

Ted Thomson departed yesterday evening for Eugene where he will enter University of Oregon at the beginning of the new term to start his third year in law.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner arrived home Friday from a ten days' motor trip on which they visited the San Francisco fair and journeyed on south as far as Long Beach, Cal., for a visit at the home of Mr. Turner's brother, Loy M., engineer with the Long Beach water department. While in the bay district they also visited at the home of Mrs. Turner's brother, Arthur R. Crawford and with the Crawfords took in the city, including trips across both big bay bridges. Return north was made through the big Redwoods, reported as one of the most enjoyable parts of the trip.

Elmer Griffith, Morgan warehouseman, passed through town yesterday morning on his way home from a trip to the mountains. He said his hunting trip was being deferred until later in the season. Reported was the loss of a calf from blackleg in his cattle in the Echo district. Other animals in the herd had been vaccinated against the disease. Father of Miss Katherine Griffith, Gazette Times Ione correspondent, he reported this young lady leaving at week's end to attend Oregon School of Education at La Grande.

Rain or no rain, he would start seeding within two or three days, reported Bert Palmateer when in the city yesterday from the Morgan district to attend the county-wide meeting of grain growers. Mr. Palmateer said the seed was all treated and ready to put in the ground, and just to guard against possible drouth he expected to take a fifty per cent yield policy from the federal crop insurance agency. He was accompanied by Mrs. Palmateer.

Mrs. Marvin Dixon of Missoula, Mont., visited this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Young. Mr. Dixon, former educational adviser with the local CCC camp, holds a like position at the Montana city where he has been located since leaving here two years ago.

Eddie Thorpe reports that it was necessary for their son Carl to undergo an operation this week in the course of treatment he has been receiving at Doernbecher hospital, Portland, for a serious illness. Mrs. Thorpe is with the son in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter of Seaside, for many years prominent residents of Spray, called on friends and relatives in this city Friday on their way to Ritter. Mrs. Potter lived in Heppner as a girl, being a member of the pioneer Minor family.

Mrs. W. S. Bennett arrived home Saturday evening after spending the summer in Seattle doing relief stenographic work in attorneys' offices through the vacation period. Mr. Bennett drove to Seattle after school Friday to get her.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford drove to Portland Sunday, taking son John and nephew, Don Turner, that far on their way to Eugene where both will be students at U. of O., John as a freshman and Don as a junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Cox returned home Monday from a two weeks' vacation on which they visited the San Francisco fair and also at Seattle. The trip to the fair was made in company with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Benton arrived the end of the week from their home at Marshfield for a visit with son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones and family. Mr. Benton is former pastor of the local Church of Christ.

Miss Edith Wehmeyer, nurse in the government hospital at San Francisco, arrived the end of the week for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wehmeyer, while on vacation from her duties.

T. F. Frestress was transacting business here Tuesday from the farm below Ione.

Archie Bechdolt came to town Tuesday from the ranch near Hardman. He was looking forward to a deer hunt some time before the end of the season, and opined that he would rest a little easier if Lady Luck didn't delay coming his way quite so long as she did last season. He got his buck last year just fifteen minutes before the season officially closed.

Guests this week at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brosnan are son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Micky McGuire of Portland. Mr. McGuire holds the position of registrar for a Portland trade school, in which he and Mrs. McGuire just completed an extensive trip through northwest and coast states.

Walter Duncan departed Tuesday morning on the return trip to his home at Hollywood after a ten-day visit with his brother, Harry, here. The Duncan brothers motored to Pendleton Friday and attended the Round-Up, an event that the Hollywood man has not missed for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smethurst passed through town Tuesday on their way to the tall timber from Lexington homes. They took a truck for their camping and hunting equipment, the better to carry a large supply of freshly butchered beef—just in case.

Cleve Van Schoiack was in town Tuesday from the Sanford canyon ranch which reaches into the mountain foothills. Asked if he had staked out any deer, Mr. Van Schoiack averred that he had been too busy.

Ferri Prock, Mrs. Austin Devin and Mrs. E. R. Prock motored to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Ferris Prock who had just undergone a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital a few days before.

Miss Anabel Turner left the end of the week for Portland where she expected to visit for a few days before going on to Bellingham, Wash., to resume studies at Washington Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., and Mrs. Thomson's mother, Mrs. Coppock, motored to Portland Sunday and the ladies remained in the city while Mr. Thomson returned Monday.

Ray Drake and Louis Gilliam pulled out Tuesday for the Murderers creek district in quest of antlerless deer for which the season is being specially opened in this state refuge.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Parker motored to Pendleton Friday morning to see the big Westward Ho parade, it being the only part of the show that they had opportunity to see.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Noble left the end of the week for an extended visit with relatives and friends at Monmouth and other points in the Willamette valley.

T. J. Humphreys, veteran druggist, returned the first of the week from a three weeks' visit at Hillsboro and other points in the Willamette valley.

Chauffeur—Honest, dependable service, your car or mine, no time limit; write or meet me at home behind bank. Max Schulz, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith drove to Pendleton Saturday evening in time to see the closing performance of Happy Canyon.

A guest at the home of Mr. and George Howard this week was Miss Willetta Stout of Portland, sister of Mrs. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burnside were transacting business in town Monday from the farm in the Hardman section.

Jackson Gilliam left the end of the week for Walla Walla to resume his studies at Whitman college.

Walter Rietmann was transacting business in the city Monday from the ranch in the Ione section.

Joe Hayes was in the city this morning from the Lone Rock ranch.

The Oregon State Employment Service found jobs for 4932 unemployment compensation claimants during August, resulting in a minimum saving of $216,707 to the state benefit fund, it was reported by the Unemployment Compensation commission. The estimated saving is based upon only one month's employment for each placement.

O. S. C. has just issued a circular listing 30 state and 80 federal bulletins pertaining to various phases of dairy husbandry.

LOCKER BOXES

• 3 Sizes to Suit Everybody
LOCALLY BUTCHERED
MEATS
FRESH AND CURED
Central Market
Ture Peterson, Mgr.

F. B. NICKERSON

Morrow County Representative

Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha

Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK

The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.

SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Mon., Weds., Fri. and Sat.
Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent
"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation with Peter Lorre, Virginia Field, John King, Joseph Schildkraut further exciting adventures with the little super-sleuth.—PLUS—FIVE CAME BACK
with Chester Morris, Wendy Barrie, Joseph Calleia, Lucile Ball, Kent Taylor, John Carradine, C. Aubrey Smith, Allen Jenkins, Patric Knowles
Which five came back from the peril-fraught jungle? A drama of courage and cowardice.
Cartoon

Sunday-Monday
DAUGHTERS COURAGEOUS
with John Garfield, Claude Rains, Jeffrey Lynn, Fay Bainter, Donald Crisp, May Robson, Frank McHugh, Dick Foran, Berton Churchill, and PRISCILLA, ROSEMARY and LOLA LANE, GALE PAGE
A worthy successor to "Four Daughters"—a wander-lust bitten father returns home after twenty years but just in time to cause a merry mixup in his family.
Disney Cartoon Movietone News
Matinees every Sunday at 1 and 3 p. m.

Tuesday
PAL NIGHTS EVERY TUESDAY: 2 adults 35c, 2 children 10c
THE SAINT IN LONDON
with George Sanders, Sally Gray, David Burns, Gordon McLeod
Sanders' portrayal of the well dressed detective who poses as an international criminal is masterful impersonation. This is the best detective melodrama of recent months.—PLUS—
COWBOY QUARTERBACK
with Marie Wilson, Bert Wheeler, Eddie Foy Jr.
The story of a one-man team from the wild and woolly West.
Cartoon

Wednesday-Thursday, Sept. 27-28
TARZAN FINDS A SON
with Johnny Weissmuller, Maureen O'Sullivan, Ian Hunter, Frieda Inescort, Henry Wilcoxon, John Sheffield
Fights between wild beasts, antics of trained Simian, charge of elephants ridden by chimpanzees, swimming of Johnny Weissmuller and athletic prowess of young John Sheffield.
MARCH OF TIME: Soldiers With Wings
Story of the U. S. Army Air Corps

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawrence, Patricia and Ann, are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions.
To be used before Sept. 29th.

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon