Student Body Tax

At the beginning of this year it was found that the high school student body was in debt for sports goods purchased last year. In order to pay these bills it will be necessary for everyone to pay their student body tax.

The student body tax is only 75c a semester, much lower than most schools. On your ticket you can attend all home games, with the exception of the tournament, all student body meetings and programs and all social hours.

So far, seventy tickets have been sold but the rest of you hurry and pay your tax so you can attend the first home game this Friday with Fossil.

Again the students of the high school have decided to put out a school paper. Last year the students thought it was a good idea and promised to help contribute articles, but after a few publications their interest ceased. If the students really want a paper it will be up to them to help. You can do this by handing in jokes, gossip, and other news.

News About Our Students

New upper classmen in school: Cecelia, Helen, Rosetta Healy, Bruce Lindsey, Mildred McClintock, Gordon O'Brien, Rita Robinson, Mary and Patricia Daly and Bernard Doherty.

Don McEwen, Olympia, Wash., is taking a P. G. course.

Jeanette and Bud Blakely are back from the summer vacation at Portland.

Recently back from the state fair at Salem—Guy Moore with reports of an excellent time.

Dorothy Howell was a guest of Edna Stephens Thursday night.

Patty and Jack O'Hara are back from Klamath Falls for school.

Because of an unfortunate accident, Ruth Green was on crutches Monday.

Absent from school—Eileen Kelly, Edna Stephens, Billy Scrivner, Lois Jones, Clara Adams, Laura Warfield, Dean Gilman, Willie Stone.

Pat Healy is back in school after taking care of the filling station during his brother's absence.

Graduates visiting at school: Sybil Howell, Bethal Blake, Don Turner, Emery Coxen, Bob Scrivner, Francis Nickerson and Joe Aiken.

Evelyn Kirk who is taking nurse's training at The Dalles hospital visited school Thursday.

Pep Club

The Pep club met twice last week. The first time was to elect officers. Those elected were: President, Lowell Ashbaugh; vice-president, Paul Doolittle; secretary, Shirley Wilson; treasurer, Bill Blake; sergeant-at-arms, Don Jones.

At the second meeting the members chosen were: Frosh, Dorotha Wilson; soph, Peg Tamblin and John Skuzeski; junior, Pat Dooley and Hugh Crawford; senior, Jeanette Blakely. The new members had to recite nursery rhymes in every class and Monday had to wear at least ten ribbons in their hair.

F. F. A. Meeting

A F. F. A. meeting was held Friday at 9:50, in the Smith-Hughes room for the purpose of filling the positions left vacant by former officers. The following officers were elected: vice-president, Bill Padberg; secretary, Willie Stone; treasurer, Bob Swick; reporter, Lura Stephens. The other two officers elected from last year are, president, Guy Moore; sergeant-at-arms, Dean Gilman.

After discussion a motion was passed that an F. F. A. Co-op will buy a share in the Lexington Oil Co-op in order to buy feed for the Smith-Hughes projects. The boxing for this year was briefly discussed, before the meeting adjourned.

Sports

With seven returning lettermen and a large group of game players, some of them inexperienced, the Heppner Mustangs open the season by playing Fossil. The game is scheduled for Friday and should prove very interesting, especially to the backers of HHS.

Girls' League

Cecelia Healy was elected at the Girls' League meeting held last week to fill the office vacated by Carolyn Vaughn who was president. The officers also held a meeting to make plans for future meetings.

H-Club Meeting

An H-Club meeting was held on September 14 to elect an initiation committee. Those appointed were Richard Hayes, Douglas Drake, Harry O'Donnell, Arthur Vance, Bill Blake. The new members will be initiated in the near future.

Junior Loud Socks Day

As has been the custom of past years, the juniors had the traditional "Loud Socks" day last Friday. The rest of the student body are going to make Doug Drake, Francis Bailey, Bob Swick, Mary Kay Blake, Jack O'Hara, Anna Marie Johnston, Lowell Ashbaugh and Harry O'Donnell give a skit at the first regular program for not wearing loud enough "socks."

Social Hour

The first social hour of the school year was given last Friday evening by the junior class. The dancing started about 7:30 and lasted until about 9 o'clock. After the last dance refreshments of cake and punch were served. About seventy people attended, making one of the largest crowds that has ever been present at a social hour. The entire high school hopes there will be many more just as successful.

Fire Patrol Formed

This year a fire patrol was formed with Harold Armstrong at the head. He appointed the other members who are Norval Osborn, Don Fredrickson, Douglas Drake, Kemp Dick, Hugh Crawford and Arthur Vance. It is arranged so that at least one of these boys will be in study hall to open the fire escape when the signal sounds. The boys have cleaned the escape out and it is now fairly safe to go down without spoiling one's clothes.

Senior Play

The senior class is in debt so it has decided that they should put on a play and Mr. Peavy was asked to help. Plays have been sent for but no definite decision has been made as some seem to have lost their enthusiasm. A senior play is a part of the program in many schools and it would give the students a chance to demonstrate their talent.

The band officers are: President, Don Jones vice-president, Jack Merrill; secretary, Shirley Wilson; treasurer, Kathryn Thompson; sergeant-at-arms, John Skuzeski; librarian, Lib Healy; publicity agent, Hugh Crawford.

Class Officers

The classes met and elected officers as follows:

Freshmen: President, James Kenney; vice-president, Kingsley Chapin; secretary-treasurer, Dorotha Wilson; sergeant-at-arms, Claud Drake.

Sophomores: President John Skuzeski; vice-president, Bill Scrivner; secretary-treasurer, Connie Instone; sergeant-at-arms, Claud Snow.

Juniors: President, Hugh Crawford; vice-president, (Jean Hays); secretary-treasurer, Frances Wilkinson; sergeant-at-arms, Harry O'Donnell.

Seniors: President, Paul Doolittle; vice-president, Cecelia Healy; secretary-treasurer, Norma Prock; sergeant-at-arms, Harold Armstrong.

Text Books

This year as a special favor to the students, the school district is offering the students all their textbooks and work books for four dollars. In former years the books have cost from six to nine dollars, so it will be a big saving to the students. Of course, no part of this money will be refunded at the end of the year, as in the other system, but it is believed by most students to be cheaper. If these books are destroyed or damaged very seriously the student will have to pay for them, but surely high school students have by this time learned to take care of their books.

Guess Who!!!

It's a girl; she's a senior; she high steps for the band; she is noted for her hair; at present she is interested in the milling business.

Margaret: I hear Hitler's gone in for athletics.

Nelma: How come?

Margaret: He wants to jump over the Poles.
