OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY PUBLIC AUDITORIUM

leppner Gazette Times Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, Sept. 28, 1939

Volume 56, Number 29

Many Deer Taken; Sportsmen Eye Coming Bird Season

Elk Opening Set for Oct. 29, Many Ladies Bring Bucks

With a large portion of Morrow county homes already supplied with venison, hunting has been uppermost in the minds of many residents. Many have deferred their deer hunt had been in Heppner on business until later in the season, and before October 25, the closing date, many more hunters will have brought in trophies.

Next big event on the sportsman's calendar is the opening of the season on Chinese pheasants, Hungarian partridges and Bobwhite quail, Sunday. This season will extend to ning. include October 15. Bag limit includes not to exceed 4 male pheasants in any one day, or not more than 8 in any seven consecutive days. Six partridge may be taken in any one day and not more than 12 in any 7 consecutive days. Ten quail B. P. O. Elks, is the regular meeting may be taken in any one day or at the hall tonight, as beginning not more than 20 in any seven consecutive days.

October 29 and will continue to and days each month. including November 12. Checking into open territory will not be permitted before noon, October 27, and tonight's headline attraction. It is a everyone going into open territory good will visit, says E. H. Miller, must check in at an official check- local exalted ruler, and significant ing station. One such station will because Heppner lodge was originbe located in Heppner. To make a kill legal, each elk hunter must have as well as regular hunting license the 12th, Frank Lonergan, district special permits that have been issued to take an adult cow elk, the visit. A special class will be initiatonly animals to be taken will be one ed that evening in the district depbull elk with horns.

Among deer hunters so far reporting in Heppner, Sloan Thompson of Echo has been in possession of the largest muletail deer. He came LaVerne Van Marter through yesterday with a 2331/2pounder. Jim Furlong, also bringing his buck to town yesterday, had one weighing 2181/2 pounds for the

Seattle Salesman Wrecks Near Lex

An automobile accident in which L. A. Poole, Seattle, narrowly escaped serious injury happened on the switchback curve just east of Lexington about 12:30 Tuesday afternoon. Poole, alone in his coupe, hit a newly patched place in the highway which caused the car to skid and when he pulled it around it somersaulted, then turned over sidewise.

The car was badly wrecked, but Poole escaped with minor injuries. A slight concussion was feared, and one ear was lacerated. First aid treatment only was necessary. Poole with the city in connection with his position as representative of Peerless Pump company which recently sold the city a new pump, and was on his way to Boise, Idaho, when the accident happened. He was brought back to Heppner for treatment and departed yesterday eve-

Elks Start Season With Visit Tonight

Heralded as the opening of the busy season for Heppner lodge 358, next month and on through the winter and spring the lodge will Elk season will officially open meet each of the first four Thurs-

A visit from James E. Merritt, exalted ruler of The Dalles lodge, is ally sponsored by The Dalles lodge. Ladies' night is the slated attraca checking-out tag in his possession tion for October 5, and on Thursday, and special elk tag. Except for 500 deputy grand exalted ruler for Oregon, North, will make his official ty's honor. The time of this visit was changed from Friday, Oct. 13, as announced in the lodge bulletin.

To Portland Hospital

LaVerne Van Marter, who was confined at Heppner hospital several weeks in his fight against infantile paralysis, was removed Sunday to Emanuel hospital in Portland for specialized treatment. His mother, Mrs. Muriel Van Marter, accompanied him in the Phelps ambulance. Former prominent high school athlete here, and also prominent in freshman athletics at the University of Oregon last year besides showing great scholastic promise, young Van Marter was unfortunately stricken by the dread malady immediately following a university pep rally he attended at Pendleton a month ago. He has made a brave and successful battle toward fighting off first ravages of the disease, and his many friends here extend heartfelt solicitude for his continued improvement.

30 Model T's Listed Pomona Opens New Season With Meet At Lexington, 7th Sheriff to Discuss Taxes; Contest of Granges to Start

Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman will discuss "Taxes" as one of the headline numbers on the Pomona grange program slated to be held at Lexington grange hall Saturday, October 7. the first Pomona meeting of the fall season. The meeting marks beginning of a contest by subordinate grange divisions, and a big kick-off is expected.

Lecturer's program on which Sheriff Bauman, Lexington master, will appear is slated to start at 1:30 in the afternoon. Business program is set for the forenoon, and dinner at noon.

Group singing of "God Bless America" will open the lecturer's program, and other numbers include a reading by Estelle Ledbetter, Willows grange; monologue by Betty Lu Lindsay, Willows; talk on 4-H club work by Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers. Other subordinate grange numbers and outside speakers will augment the program.

Business will be resumed after the the program and degree work conferred later in the evening. Details of contest points are given in another column.

Buck Hunting Has Its Vagaries, or Maybe Its Just Luck

How many buck hunters would like to be in Marshall Beamer's shoes?

He was riding out to a mountain sheep camp the other day. Had his rifle along just in case. On Dead Man's hill a buck ran across the road ahead of him. He took after it, shot it, and in ten minutes' time had it loaded on the pick-up. Fifteen minutes later at camp it for Races Here, 8th Thirty Model T Fords are in the lists for the big Model T derby to be staged at Rodeo field, Heppner, Sunday, October 8, under sponsorship of Heppner post, American Legion. Driving No. 7 will be Jim Shoun, Heppner boy, winner three times of second place in previous derbies, who says it must be first in his old home town.

Every precaution for safety must be used on the local track, says the track manager, as it is shorter than the boys have been running on.

Thomas, with Teague Motor Co., Walla Walla, who will drive for city; Sheldon Bowers, Moscow, Ida., driving for Bowers Wrecking Co.; Kenneth Fulmer, driving for Ford Motor Co., Lewiston, Idaho; Jim Lyons, driving for Ford Motor Co., John Day; Frank Pearson, Hermiston and Gus Locati, Walla Walla, driving for themselves; Allen Geiger, Walla Walla, driving for Puritan Creamery; Fred Hobbs, Lewiston, driving for Bennett's Service Station.

Qualifying heats start at 1 o'clock, and local spectators are assured four hours of exciting racing.

For further information on derby, inquire Gazette Times office.

Road, Street Work Through for Present

Construction operations on the Heppner hill state secondary highway and on Heppner streets was completed this wek for the season, with both crews of Saxton, Looney and Risley, and Babler Bros. construction companies pulling out.

Final surfacing was completed on only a part of the hill road, what will be completed in the spring, it was said.

Shortage of funds to meet the estimated cost of oiling caused the city to stop work on the streets at the swimming tank and on the new grade of the upper Willow creek next year

Subscription $2.00 a Year

Local Meetings Set For AAA Sign-Up; Deadline Oct. 31

High FCI Officials Visit; Loan, Insurance Work Lively

With October 31 as the deadline for signing agreements under the Drivers so far listed include Bill 1940 AAA farm program, the series of community meetings on Saturday next week will claim attention of Rosewall-Gentry Motor Co. of this county wheat farmers. Compliance agreements must be signed by October 31 if 1940 parity payments are to be received, announces N. C. Donaldson, state executive assistant.

Opportunities to sign agreements will be given at the community meetings slated to be held for the various districts at Alpine, Ione, Lexington, Heppner and Gooseberry school.

The AAA wheat loan program has been outstanding this fall. Loans as of September 20 report date totaled 162, amounting to $208,005.08. Pledged are 289,595 bushels in warehouses and 57,624 bushels in farm storage. Triple A crop insurance was brought especially into the limelight here with the visit last week end of LeRoy K. Smith, national administrator, and J. H. Fraser, Minneapolis branch manager of Federal Crop Insurance corporation. These head men were on tour of the country to ascertain firsthand the present working and future needs of the program.

Already this year's insurance coverage which may be increased before the October 30 deadline, assures that Morrow county farmers will is known as a dust coat only being have 273,071 bushels to sell next fall. applied to the remainder. Surfacing Farmers numbering 111 have paid premiums in wheat totalling 27,702 bushels, or equivalent in cash of $17,608.24, to insure that much return for farming efforts. Insured acres to date total 29,560.8.

Farmers are not being given as much leeway in insuring crops this road outlet after macadamizing only year as they were last, and the prowas done. City dads announce the gram was started earlier. Last year hope of putting on the oil surfacing at this time no insurance policies had been issued. Forty-four policies in all were issued to cover the 1939 crop year, covering 12,000 acres. Under these policies a total of 29,000 bushels were collected as indemnity to cover losses, reports the local office.

second largest.

The ladies have been numerous among deer slayers and counted among the fortunate are Mrs. Mark Merrill, Miss Rose Leibbrand, Mrs. Clarence Warren, Mrs. Hattie Bleakman, Mrs. Reese Burkenbine, Gladys Leek, Mrs. O. W. Osborn, Katherine Bleakman, Louise Canoy, Albany; Miss Evelyn Kirk, The Dalles; Blanche C. Rand, Hood River; Miss Viletta Stout, Portland, sister of Mrs. G. A. Howard, city.

Other deer reported locally to date include kills of Frank Alfred, C. A. Warren, Ray Massey, Woodrow Tucker, Dick Wilkinson, L. H. Rill, Myron Huston, W. M. Collins and H. E. Collins, Portland, L. W. Gilman, A. R. Marsh, Medford, Dallas Craber, Dan McDermid, Wasco, Darrel Farrens, G. A. Farrens, Walter Becket, Jack Van Winkle, Dee Cox, Jr., S. T. Robison, Ben Cox, Jack Canoy, Albany, Marvin Casebeer, Marion Hayden, Gerald Cason, C D. Conrad, Curtis F. Deetz, Gene Ferguson, Dave Wilson, Ed Bennett, Luke Bibby, Chas. B. Cox, L. E. Bisbee, Charles Cox, O. O. Osborn, R. D. Knox, A. H. Blankenship, Owen Bleakman, Walter Depuy, Cecil Jones, Dallas McDaniel, E. R. Schaffer, R. K. Drake, Louis Gilliam, J. I. Hanna, Marshall Beamer, Jim Furlong, Howard Furlong, Ray Bosworth, Harley Matteson, Donald Robinson, Vernon Prock, Jim Mc-Carthy, Frank Gentry, Barton Clark, Floyd Jones, Homer Tucker's party with several, Walter Blackburn, H. R. Peck, John L. Buckholz, Bonneville, James Canoy, Albany, Andy Cameron, Tillamook, Ray. L. Hamm, Multnomah, Mrs. Ben Cox, C. A. Bethke, Portland, Joe Holboke, John a local market this morning. It was Holton, Ralph Bragg.

QUEEN RIDES AGAIN

Queen Cecelia, who ruled o'er Heppner's recent Rodeo, was a guest of honor at the Grant County fair in John Day last wek end and was accorded a place of honor in Sunday's parade. Helping to carry Rodeo's felicitations to the neighbor show were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiken Mr. Aiken as president of the local show; Mr. and Mrs. William Bucknum, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beckner of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Clive Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket, Eddie Kenny, and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard French. Repeating his performance at the recent Rodeo, Cody Dodson is reported to have ridden at the head of the bronc busters. Kenny Depew, local showman, placed third riding Dillinger of local fame.

town by the state was checked in at a doe, mistakenly shot by some The second illegal deer brought to hunter. Details were not reported.

was all dressed out.

But there are others. Bill Smethurst came home the other day from a several-days' unsuccessful hunt to relieve the man he had hired to do the chores. This man was on his way out for a hunt, just by Happy Home camp, when a party of hunters drove a buck in front of him. Like Beamer, he soon had it, was back in Lexington with it the same morning.

YPF Regional Meet Here at Week's End

Young Peoples Fellowship of eastern Oregon will convene at the Episcopal church here tomorrow for a Sunday. Among cities to be repre-Bend.

Bishop W. P. Remington and Archdeacon Eric Robethan from Pendleton will assist in leading discussions.

LEAVES HOSPITAL

Word has been received by relatives and friends that Mrs. Albert charge arose from Vrana's alleged Rea was able to leave Emanuel hospital in Portland, Sunday, and go to the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Wood, in the city following a recent major operation.

ATTENDS FORD MEET

W. C. Rosewall is in Seattle this Ford automobiles. He was accompanied by Emery Gentry, member of the Rosewall-Gentry firm.

Roller Rinks, Ione, this week end.

HONEYMOONERS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cox, recent newlyweds, called here over the week end at the home of Mr. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, on their way home to Portland in the course of a wedding trip on which they had visited as far north as Victoria, B. C. The marriage of Mr. Cox to Miss Helen Upshaw was an event of Sunday, the 17th, at the home of Miss Upshaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Upshaw, at Tigard. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox and son Charles attended from here and Miss Nancy Cox, sister of the bridegroom, was present from Portland. Miss Cox also visited at the parental home last meeting that will continue through week end, leaving her work as home demonstration agent with General dleton, The Dalles, Hood River and tion in the city where the newlyweds are now at home.

GIVEN YEAR IN PEN

On waiver of grand jury hearing, Julius Vrana, charged with larceny, was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary by Judge C. L. Sweek yesterday morning. The selling of melons for Boardman

STUDENTS EXAMINED

The students of Heppner high school and grade school had their annual health examination September 20 and 21. The students were week attending a factory demon- examined for heart, ear, throat and stration meeting for the new 1940 feet defects by Doctors Rice, Tibbles and McMurdo.

WOOL BRINGS 291/2 CENTS

Sale of Wright Bros. wool to Jack Each night a special at Reed's Stanfield at 291/2 cents was reported this week.

Legion, Auxiliary To Install Monday

American Legion auxiliary laid plans for joint installation of officers with legionnaires at its meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lena Cox. Ione post and unit have been invited to join Heppner for the ceremonies to be held at I. O. O. F. hall beginning at 6:30 o'clock, next Monday evening, with dinner.

Buckburger will be supplied and served by the legion, the auxiliary to furnish the fixings. Hugh Bowman of Pendleton, district commander, and Mrs. Lemons of Pendleton, district president, will install legion and auxiliary officers, respectively, following dinner. An invitation is extended to all ex-service men and ladies, and auxiliary members and escorts, to attend.

MCNAMERS HAVE REUNION

A family reunion was enjoyed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer with a big dinner at noon. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Namer those in attendance included Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rodgers of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodgers of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rodgers of Witchita, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sherrod of Prescott, Wash., Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, Mrs. Blanche McNamer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Denny.

growers and keeping the money.

sented besides Heppner are Pen- Electric company. Clair has a posi-