Coming Events

Student Council Meeting, 28th.
 H-Club Assembly, 29th.
 Student Body Meeting, 29th.
 Football, Pendleton, 30th.

School Spirit

This year we've had a much needed boost by the way of the freshmen and of the Pep club. The latter is really showing some life this year and the former have always been known for their patriotic school spirit.

Witness to an awakening school spirit was the good turnout at the football game, Friday. Twenty-eight dollars worth of tickets were sold, consequently more town people than usual came out for the game.

The yelling section, too, has improved greatly, this year. Of course, the interesting game accounts for some of the pep and enthusiasm shown, but after considering this we still find that we have a much more vital interest in school activities than we have had in previous years.

Council Meets

The Student Council met Thursday, Sept. 21, and appointed Lucille Barlow song leader of the student body for this year. They also authorized the payment of the following bills: Bill Hatch $75.00, Heppner Laundry $7.00, Hollywood Athletic Co. $8.67.

Frosh Win Annual Class Rush

In one of the most bitterly fought contests in the history of Heppner high school, the freshmen won the annual Class Rush by garnering 270 points to the sophomores' 230.

The freshmen grabbed an early lead by gathering 65 points in the skit while the sophomores earned 45. The judging of the parade was close, the final grading being, frosh 45, sophs 55. In the athletic events the score was quite even, with the freshmen getting 160, sophomores 120.

At the start of the final event, the girls' tug-of-war, the score stood at 240 for the frosh and 230 for the sophs. This event was won in fast time by the freshman girls.

This win entitled the freshmen to a regulation sized pennant in the assembly.

F. F. A.

Last year the school district appropriated money to build an agriculture work shop. This was built last year, but did not have a concrete floor. This year the Smith-Hughes boys are going to put a concrete floor in it for the district under the supervision of Mr. Bennett.

A new concrete forge and a tool cabinet were also built by the boys for the shop last year.

The building was constructed because the former room, now the music room, was not large enough and large pieces of machinery could not be put in it.

In this building the agriculture boys remodel cars, build tables, construct brooder houses, and do almost all kinds of work except acetylene welding; this being something that, as yet, has not been purchased for the shop, although it is a real necessity.

The school board has done much to further the Smith-Hughes work in this school, which is one of the most beneficial classes now in the high school curriculum.

The F. F. A. is one of the most progressive organizations in the schools of the United States.

Personals

Mary and Patricia Daly spent the week end at their home at Pine City.

Cora Scott visited her parents at Top last week end.

Those from Heppner attending the freshman initiation at Hardman were Jack and Hugh McLaughlin, Laura Warfield, Edna and Lura Stephens and Rita Robinson.

Jack, Cecelia and Helen Healy, Joe Farley, and Emmett Kenney attended the Grant County fair at John Day Saturday and Sunday. Cecelia was a guest of Queen Betsy Newcomb and rode in the parade Saturday and Sunday.

Mildred and Leon McClintock were on the Dry Fork ranch over Saturday and Sunday.

Leland Edmondson began taking a postgraduate course last Monday.

Ray Ayers spent the week end in Lena.

Buck and June Haselton spent the week end with their father at Lena Spike camp.

Of the hunting party consisting of the men teachers, Mr. Blankenship and Mr. Knox were the only ones to get their deer.

Students will be interested in knowing that Miss Cecelia Nordstrom spent her summer in Louisiana. She reports having a very interesting vacation. This fall she is teaching home economics at La Grande.

Miss Smith is teaching at Gresham this winter.

Costume Ball Planned

At the Girls' League meeting held Tuesday it was decided to hold a costume ball the Saturday before Hallowe'en to which the whole student body is invited.

It was decided to have a candy sale at the Fossil game and it netted the Girls' League $3.00. Those selling candy were Mary Curran, Libby Healy, Cecelia Healy, Colleen Kilkeny and Lois Jones.

Rally

A very successful rally was held on Main street last Thursday when the majority of the high school turned out to let the town know of the game on the following day with Fossil. Pep was further enthused by a bon fire on the golf course hill where some more yells were given and the new H. H. S. song leader, Lucille Barlow, led the group in several songs.

Freshman Initiation Held

The sophomores initiated the freshmen last Wednesday, so now they're full fledged members of the student body. At the initiation they made the freshmen eat grapes that had been dipped in alum, cabbage that was covered with vinegar, put water on their faces and then covered them with flour. They also made them step on fly paper and corn flakes. They did all this to the accompaniment of paddles.

We hope the initiation did not bother the freshmen too much and that they will become good members of the student body.

After the initiation a dance was held to give the freshmen some relaxation after their strenuous evening. Refreshments of punch and sandwiches were furnished by the sophomores.

Football Who's Who

Kemp Dick—Left tackle; weight, 177 lbs.; height, 6 ft. Kemp is known around the school as some wit and, accordingly, is very popular. He has been on the team two years.

Oregon potato growers are warned in a new O. S. C. circular of information to be on guard against bacterial wilt or ring rot of potato, a disease which is appearing in widely scattered parts of the United States including the Pacific coast. The circular, No. 204, describes symptoms and nature of the disease and control suggestions. C. E. Owens, plant pathologist, is the author.
