Mustangs Lose, 42-0, to Buck B's; Enterprise Next

With a fast moing, slick ballhandling team that was slightly sprinkled with first string players, the Pendleton second team swept over the Heppner Mustangs to the tune of 42-0 at Pendleton, Satur-

In the opening minutes of play Louis Beck, all state basketball star and 10.1 second track man, ran 60 yards for his teams' first score.

Pendleton used several tricky plays includng a double-reverse lateral pass which left the Heppner boys almost completely fooled several

Two Pendleton touchdowns were nullified, one because of a clipping penalty, and the other because of an offside. These and several other breaks were given the Mustangs but they couldn't seem to capitalize on them against the tight Pendleton defense.

Heppner startng lineup; L. E. Douglas Drake; L. T. Kemp Dick; L. G. Gordon O'Brien; C. Norval Osborn; R. G. Bruce Lindsay; R. T. Clifford Fay; R. E. Arthur Vance; Q Claude Snow; R. H. Hugh Crawford; L. H. Guy Moore; F. Richard

Friday the Heppner team is destined to motor to Enterprise to play that A school's football team. Although their 27-0 defeat by Pendleton seems to show differently, Enterprise is believed to have a very tough team. The Heppner boys play with less than a week's rest from the Pendleton game which left them a bit sore and tired. However, with the team gaining knowledge and experience, a very good game is expected.

OSC Specialist Slated for Food Demonstration

Everyone is interested nowdays in fewer colds, better teeth, less expense for doctors and drugs and also in delicious foods at low cost. A demonstration of planning every day family meals will be given on Wednesday, October 18, from 10:00 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. at Mrs. Carrie Becket's home in Eightmile, and on Thursday, October 19, at the same hours in the Congregational church in Ione. Similar meetings will be held at Irrigon, October 17, and at Boardman, October 20.

Everyone is invited to come to one or the other of the meetings, especially mothers with growing children. These demonstrations are in charge of C. D. Conrad, county agricultural agent, and will be given by Miss Lucy A. Case, nutrition specialist of the extension service, from Oregon State college. No charge will be made.

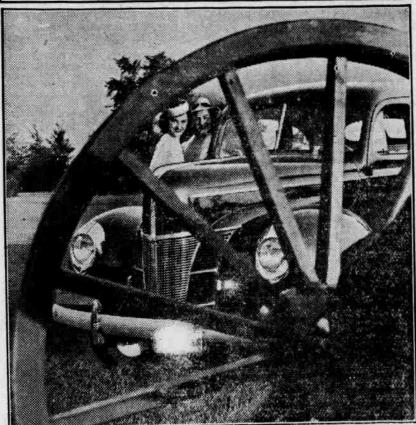

Nutrition needs of the body, food combinations, and labor saving methods of preparing meals will be discussed. A simple balanced meal for the groups will be prepared during the demonstrations. Table setting will also be shown. Questions on food problems for the family will be handled if you care to bring them. This meeting is to be followed in November and January by two other demonstrations on Menu Planning and Table Service, including simple entertaining.

Mrs. Carrie Becket of Eight Mile, Mrs. Vida Heliker of Ione, Mrs. Neal Bleakney of Boardman and Mrs. Fred Houghton of Irrigon are chairmen of the first meetings in their respective communities and are in charge of soliciting food for the noon meal. Come and bring your friends to one of these meetings.

INJURED AT MONMOUTH

Lee Pettyjohn, Morrow county boy, this week sustained a fracture of the jaw in football practice at Oregon State Normal, Monmouth, that will probably keep him from playing the remainder of the season, according to report in the daily press. Pettyjohn was one of the mainstays on last year's Heppner high team and showed good promise in preseason workouts at the college which Prices. he is attending as a freshman. Before coming to Heppner he played football at Ione.

Here's First Glimpse of 1940 Ford

Ford Rouge plant and off the assembly lines are coming these new improved double-acting hydraulic Ford V-8 cars for 1940, Illustrated is the front end of the deluxe Ford V-8. The new cars are big, substantial and powerful in appearance. Front end designs are distinctively modern, bodies gracefully streamlined. New features include a finger-tip

THE wheels are turning at the big | gearshift on the steering column, a controlled ventilation system, shock absorbers and Sealed-Beam headlights. Deluxe cars have an improved spring suspension, softer springs front and rear and a new torsion bar ride-stabilizer. Emphasis in interior styling is on fine appointments and upholstery.

Immense "buckbergers" were consumed in quantity by ex-service men, their ladies, visiting officials and Ione guests preceding the installation ceremonies for Heppner post, American Legion, and Heppner unit, American Legion Auxiliary, at I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening. A large attendance enjoyed the festivities, featured by the visit of Hugh Bowman, district Legion commander, and Mrs. Gladys Lemons, district auxiliary president, Mrs.

Bowman and Mrs. W. E. Moore, all of Pendleton. Ione guests included

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson and Mrs.

Commander Bowman installed Legion officers as follows: Wm. Smethurst, commander; Lee Howell, vice commander; Loyal R. Parker, adjutant-finance officer; Earl Gilliam, chaplain; C. J. D. Bauman, sergeant-at-arms; Spencer Crawford, his-

Mrs. Lemons, auxiliary president, installed auxiliary officers as follows: Lena Cox, president Sylva

Stone, vice-president; Sylva Wells, secretary-treasurer; Anna Bayless,

Chaplain; Hanna Jones, sergeant-at-arms; Ruth Tamblyn, historian.

Omar Rietmann.

District Officers

Install Locally

Elk Hunters Must Have All Home Comforts

A Gazette Times representative came across Bert Mason carefully laying out paper cartons on the walk in front of his Ione store. An almost overwhelming curiosity prompted the GTR to inquire about the activity.

"That's tent flooring," replied the genial merchant. "You see, when we go elk hunting the weather is cold in the mountains with usually a blanket of several inches of snow. By laying several layers of this carton paper over ths snow and covering this flooring with an old rug, it is possible to make the camp tent as warm as the family kitchen at home. We (meaning Bert's hunting party) have been using this type of flooring for several years and just about this time of year finds me saving up cartons with vengeance."

If purchasers of large orders of groceries find they have to carry their supplies out package at a time they may know that elk hunters are raiding the stores for flooring material.

State President Attending Exposition

Mrs. Ralph I. Thompson, president Oregon Wool Growers auxiliary, departed for Portland the first of the week to prepare that organization's booth at the Pacific International Livestock exposition. This will be Mrs. Thompson's second year in charge of the booth.

While telling the world of Oregon's large wool industry, this booth is the means of raising part of the auxiliary's finances, says Mrs. Thompson. Through the booth various articles are offered for sale, on which the organization reaps some profit, but the articles are dispensed mainly to teach the public the excellence of wool in its varied uses.

G. T. Want Ads bring results.

CORRECT GLASSES

For Eye Comfort - Better Vision

Come to Pendleton for Your Optical Needs! • Eyes Examined by Modern Methods. Glasses Ground to Fit When Needed. Reasonable

DR. DALE ROTHWELL Optometrist - Pendleton Phone 535-J Over Woolworths

Last Rites Held for Stacy B. Roberts, 83

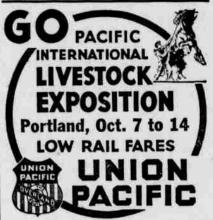

Stacy Roberts, 83, pioneer resident of the Hardman section where he farmed for many years, and resident of Heppner for the last 20 years, was laid to rest in the Hardman cemetery last Sunday following funeral services from Case Mortuary chapel. Martin B. Clark was officiating minister. Mr. Roberts died at his home, corner Gale and Center streets, last Friday following a prolonged illness from infirmities of age.

Stacy B. Roberts was born October 24, 1855, in Indiana of Quaker parents. When a young boy he moved with his parents to Missouri where he grew to manhood. In 1875 he married Martha Becket, sister of the late J. W. Becket. To this union were born three children, Della who died in infancy, Roy and Hugh who also preceded him in death. His wife, Martha Becket Roberts, died February 22, 1900. In 1901 he married Addie Allen of Hardman. They moved to Heppner to reside about 1915. Mrs. Roberts died in February, 1930. Surviving are a granddaughter, Mrs. Crystal Barlow and a great granddaughter, Chloe Barlow, both of Boardman, and several nephews and nieces residing elsewhere.

WAS BUDDY IN FRANCE

Archie Bond of Pendleton who fell victim to accidental gun shot wounds on opening day of bird hunting season, near Pilot Rock, was a World war buddy in France of Henry Peterson, retiring commander of the local American Legion post. Bond was accidentally shot when a hunting companion, following him through a barbed wire fence, snaghis gun, causing it to discharge into Bond's back.

Filling those shoes when Dad's away is a man's job, calling for the best that's in a manly young fellow -but a telephone call from Dad every night makes it a lot easier!

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

IT'S HERE! TO SAVE YOU MONEY!

The New 1940 Ford Car

with 22 Important Improvements

SEE IT FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th

In Our Show Room

Rosewall-Gentry Motor Co. Morrow County Ford Dealer