

Local News

Mrs. Lana Padberg was transacting business in the city Monday from the Rhea creek farm. She reported that district suffering a heavy invasion of hunters with the opening of the bird season and just to remind others that promiscuous hunting is not appreciated on the premises she went back home prepared to placard the place with no trespassing signs. "The trouble with so many hunters is that they do not realize farmers have stock on their places," said Mrs. Padberg. She cited the experience of seeing one car load of hunters stop by the barnyard and shoot into a band of quail that had been in the habit of feeding with the chickens.

Archie Parrott, one of Oregon's ace trap shots, was in Heppner the end of the week, coming from Portland with Mr. Hofferbar of Tigard for opening of the bird season. Veteran sportsman, Mr. Parrott was a member of the once famous Parrott family baseball team that was among tops of such teams in the nation. He is connected with a leading hardware firm in the city, while Mr. Hofferbar conducts a hardware store at Tigard.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baldwin last week end included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hiatt of Pendleton, parents of Mrs. Baldwin; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Devin and family of Condon, and Mr. and Mrs. David Eardley of Baker. Mrs. Devin and Mrs. Eardley are sisters of Mrs. Baldwin. The latter, nee Miss Lola Hiatt, was married to Mr. Eardley on September 13 at Cardston, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schoolcraft and daughter, Mary Esther, arrived Saturday evening from Casper, Wyo., to visit Mrs. Schoolcraft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carlson, in Gooseberry. Mr. and Mrs. Schoolcraft and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson are leaving this week end for the world fair at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey were business visitors in town Saturday from the farm in the Morgan district. Mrs. Lindsey didn't care about the opening of the bird season the next day, said a covey of quail fed in their barn lot and that they were welcome visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner visited friends and relatives in the county the end of the week on the way home to Baker from a vacation trip with stops at Seaside and Bend. At the latter place they visited their old Heppner friends, Mr. and Mrs. Crocket Sprouls.

Carolyn and Jack Vaughn were among young people from Bend attending the district Young Peoples Fellowship conference here Saturday. Having left here recently with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn, they reported being nicely located in the central Oregon city.

Gus Williamson came to town the end of the week from his work with the R. A. Thompson sheep which had just been brought from summer range in the mountains. While here he laid out plans for improvement of his houses in town to be undertaken this winter.

Among out-of-town notables here for the opening of the bird season Sunday were G. D. Owen, timberman of Harrisburg, Captain Erwin of the Portland police, and E. F. Knickerbocker of Honolulu, T. H., all registered at Hotel Heppner.

Alice Marian was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ture Peterson at Heppner hospital Monday morning, the 2nd. Mother and babe are doing nicely, and Mr. Peterson has been busy handing out cigars at Central market, which he manages.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Agnes Curran.

Hunting guest of Lester Doolittle this week was Dr. Will Wise of Barview, uncle of Mr. Doolittle's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beardsley of Condon visited over the week end with relatives and friends here. Mr. Beardsley is an old-time railroader, now running on the Condon branch. It was while working as brake on the local branch that he wooed and wedded Miss Kathryn Slocum, daughter of Mrs. Katie Slocum and sister of Lamont, now "firing" on the local branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocket Sprouls and Janet arrived Saturday evening from their home at Bend for a week's vacation with relatives and friends here and to enjoy a hunt. Mr. Sprouls knocked over a nice bag of birds Sunday and on Monday departed for the timber in quest of a buck deer, still thinking strongly of the one he got in the Arbuckle district last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton of Portland were week-end guests at home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson, visiting also with Mrs. Hampton's uncle, Nelson Bartholomew. Mrs. Hampton will be remembered by old-time friends of the family here as Miss Katherine West.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston have been making some improvements to their residence in the upper Eight Mile district. They recently installed an oil-heated hot water tank in their bathroom which furnishes an abundance of hot water for use throughout the house.

Edgar Parker, assistant at the local forest office, was among lucky hunters reported this week. He bagged a nice two-pointer. Mr. Parker left the first of the week to attend six weeks' forest school at Wind River, Wash.

Eleanor Virginia, weighing 7 1/4 pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gonty at the maternity home of Mrs. Corda Saling, Sept. 29. The young lady is the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Gonty.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket of Wallowa and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Becket of Waitsburg, Wash., were among those from out of town attending funeral rites here Sunday for the late Stacy Roberts.

John Monahan passed through town the end of the week with his sheep, headed for the lower country from summer range in the mountains. He reported conditions in the mountains as very dry.

Three pretty little buck deer looking just like triplets were brot to town the end of the week by W. L. McCaleb, William McCaleb, Jr., and Howard Bryant, the trophies of their successful hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sturgill and son from Baker stopped for a few hours here Tuesday on their way home from Portland. Mr. Sturgill is a leading stockman of the Baker section.

Charlie McElligott, in town yesterday from the farm west of Ione, reported rain at his place about the same as it appeared in Heppner—just about enough to settle the dust.

Clifford Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Gooseberry, left last Thursday for Eugene to resume his studies at University of Oregon for the coming year.

Leonard Carlson of Gooseberry was among farm community leaders here Tuesday for the special meeting of Morrow County Health association.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Griffith had as guests this week their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel McMahan and two children of Eugene.

More fortunate deer hunters this week included Scott McMurdo, Earle Bryant, George Caskey, Reese Burkenbine and R. L. Weir, Jr.

Mrs. P. W. Mahoney went to Pendleton Monday to visit for several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt.

Womens Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 2:30 p. m., in the basement of the church.

Mrs. Lottie Kilkenny is recovering from a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, which she underwent this week.

Bill Greener came to town yesterday with a party of outside hunters with several bucks to show for their successful hunt.

L. H. Harlow, manager of Heppner Blacksmith and Machine shop, checked in from the hunt this week with a nice buck.

Charles Klinger was in town Monday from the north-Lexington farm, calling on Mrs. Klinger who is ill at Heppner hospital.

Mrs. Fred Wehmeyer and daughter, Miss Edith, returned this week from a visit with relatives at Winthrop, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Betty and Helen Faye, were visiting Mr. Baker's mother at Walla Walla Sunday.

Merle Baker is seeding this week for Ernest Christopherson in the Dry Fork section.

HEALTH MEETING HELD

With Miss Wietjen of Oregon Tuberculosis association, Portland, assisting in the discussions, Morrow County Public Health association met at the library Tuesday morning to lay plans for the coming Christmas seal sale. Seal sale chairmen from several communities were in attendance as well as Miss Rose Leibbrand, county chairman. A delegation was named to wait upon the county court at the budget meeting this week end to work in the interests of retaining county health nurse service.

FATHER PASSES

E. Harvey Miller left Heppner Tuesday morning for Salem in response to word of the death of his father, E. A. Miller. Mr. Miller, long a prominent citizen of Salem, was located in Morrow county for a few years several years ago, farming in the Lexington district, and was widely known here. John and Merle Miller of Lexington, also sons of the deceased, joined Harvey on the trip to Salem.

LADIES NIGHT TONIGHT

Heppner lodge 358, B. P. O. Elks, will entertain ladies at the regular lodge meeting this evening, with a committee headed by P. W. Mahoney

LOCKER BOXES

● 3 Sizes to Suit Everybody

LOCALLY BUTCHERED MEATS

FRESH AND CURED

Central Market

Ture Peterson, Mgr.

Dance

Take a chance—
Come and Dance!

Mother, daughter, father, son,
You will all have lots of fun.
The weather may not be just fine,
Still, you can have a wonderful time.
The music: people say it's grand,
So, come and dance to

MERRILL'S BAND!

SAT., OCTOBER 7

Pavilion, Heppner

Adm. 75c per couple representing the Heppner district arranging the program. Next Thursday, the lodge will receive Frank Lonergan of Portland, district deputy grand exalted ruler, who will make his official visit at that time.

C. DARBEE IN EAST

Chester Darbee, local depot agent, is visiting in his old home state of New York, having left the first of September. He is being relieved in his work here by Jerry Fehrenbacher of Portland.

An improvement was seen in night accidents reported during the month of August this year, compared to August of last year, Earl Snell, secretary of state, announced today. There were seven fatal accidents after dark this month, compared to 14 in the same month last year.

F. B. NICKERSON

Morrow County Representative

Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha

Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK

The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.

SERVICE BETWEEN

PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER

AND WAY POINTS

Arrive Mon., Weds., Fri. and Sat.

Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent
"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday, Oct. 6-7

TROUBLE IN SUNDOWN

with GEORGE O'BRIEN, RAY WHITLEY, CHILL WILLS

This wow of a Western has a clever new twist for threaded through its plot of gun-play and flying fists is a dramatic mystery story.

—PLUS—

MILLION DOLLAR LEGS

with Betty Grable, John Hartley, Donald O'Connor, Jackie Coogan, Dorothea Kent, Joyce Mathews, Pete Hayes

Eight men in a boat . . . rowing for dear old Middleton in a spirited story of a thrilling collegiate sport.

Popeye the Sailor Cartoon

Sunday-Monday

STANLEY AND LIVINGSTONE

with one of the greatest acting casts ever assembled:
SPENCER TRACY, RICHARD GREENE, NANCY KELLY, WALTER BRENNAN, CHARLES COBURN, SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE

The true story of the world's greatest reportorial assignment is brought to the screen in this thrilling adventure drama that has appeal for all audiences of all ages.

Cartoon Newsreel

Tuesday

PAL NIGHT: 2 adults 35c, 2 children 10c.

TELL NO TALES

with Melvyn Douglas, Louise Platt, Gene Lockhart

The adventures of a nimble-witted headline hunter, told in a manner entirely different from current trends.—PLUS

The Jones Family in QUICK MILLIONS

A fast-moving laughfest.
Also "BIG GAME FISHING"

Wednesday-Thursday, Oct. 11-12

PICTURES OF THE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP BOXING MATCH BETWEEN JOE LEWIS and BOB PASTOR

—PLUS—

THE KID FROM KOKOMO

with Pat O'Brien, Joan Blondell, Wayne Morris, May Robson, Jane Wyman, Stanley Fields, Maxie Rosenbloom, Sidney Toler

Hilarious comedy, rapid-fire excitement, as a fast-talking prize fight manager takes a farm boy under his wing.

Newsreel

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorger and Family, Ione, are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions.

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon