

HARDMAN NEWS

Hardman High and Grades Play Ball

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL
A softball game was played on the high school diamond on Wednesday of last week, the high school vs. the grade school. Those who played on the grade school team were Lee McRoberts, Junior Leathers, Alvin Byer, Cecil McDaniel, Ollie Hastings, Juanita Byer, Alene Inskoop, Adaline Byer, Norvin Adams, Alberta McFerrin and Maxine McDaniel. Those on the high school team were Vera McDaniel, Nona Inskoop, Jean Leathers, Mildred Clary, Lewis McDonald and Irl Clary. The wind blew very hard on that day and the terra firma rose in most critical times, almost hiding the ball. The high school won, 26-16.

A Christian Endeavor party will be held at the church Saturday night. New officers will be elected for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Harris visited several days at the J. E. Craber home.

Church was held at the usual time Sunday. Services were conducted by Rev. Young. On October 15, the Archdeacon Eric Robethan will be out. Rev. Robethan takes the place of Rev. Hinkle who was transferred to California last year.

Mrs. Owen Leathers went to the Matteson look out station Thursday evening, returning home Saturday. While she was gone she killed a deer.

Be sure to come to the dance at Hardman Saturday night, Oct. 7. Music by Ivan Leathers.

Mrs. Everett Harshman and son Gay visited last week with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren McDaniel and family were visiting friends and relatives here Sunday.

The high school board held their regular meeting last Saturday and transacted routine business.

J. E. Craber was a business visitor in Hepner last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon returned to Hardman last Thursday

after visiting Portland, Salem and other places since they left here August 1st.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers of Hepner visited the grade school a short time Wednesday and later attended the ball game at the high school diamond.

Mrs. Neal Knighten attended to business and shopped in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Frances Inskoop attended the Y. P. F. meeting in Hepner Saturday evening.

O. C. Stephens, Joe, Lura and Miss Edna Stephens and Miss Frances Inskoop were visiting in Condon Sunday. They attended church there.

Those attending the dance at Rhea creek Saturday night were Misses Lurline Sparks, Oleta Raimsey, Pat Bleakman, Frances Inskoop, and Jean Leathers; also Dallas and Delvin McDaniel and Dallas Craber.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jackson are visiting from California at the Lewis Batty home. Mr. Jackson is a nephew of Mrs. Batty. They returned home Sunday.

Robert Graham of The Dalles who has been visiting at the A. D. Inskoop home went to the J. O. Kincaid ranch Sunday to visit his son Henry for a few days before returning to The Dalles.

Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mrs. Charlie McDaniel and Mrs. Carl Leathers were shoppers in Hepner Monday.

Forest Adams was home over the week end from the mill below Hepner where he has been working.

Several nights last week end a penetrating rain added quite a lot of moisture and also cleaned the air of the smoke and dust, which had been unusually noticeable. Owen Leathers, at Matteson look out, reports a slight snowfall.

During the first eight months of 1939, there were 191 persons killed in traffic accidents, a decrease of 7.72 per cent from the same period last year, according to figures compiled by the state safety division and released by Earl Snell, secretary of state.

PINE CITY NEWS

Many Hunters in Pine City District

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER
The creek was well lined with bird hunters over the week end.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mathers, who was born Friday, died twenty-four hours after birth, and was buried Sunday in Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes spent Sunday and Monday at the Marion Finch home.

Guests at the home of Shirley McGreer Thursday, on her fourth birthday, included Mrs. Jasper Myers and children, Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and daughter Darlyne.

J. T. Ayers of Hermiston was a caller at his ranch on Butter creek Sunday.

Berl Wattenburger and Lloyd Baldrige made a business trip to Mt. Vernon Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Boylen spent Sunday at their ranch on Butter creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Van Orsdal of Pendleton spent Sunday with Mrs. Van Orsdal's sister and family, Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Smith of Irrigon, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore of Pine City, Mr. and Mrs. Acle Estle and Mrs. Jack Estle of Hermiston.

Henrietta and Harriet Helms attended the high school party at Stanfield Friday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, county school superintendent, called at Pine City school Monday morning.

Lilly Rauch is going to spend the winter at the R. E. McGreer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore were Pendleton callers Monday.

Charlotte Helms spent Monday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helms.

Pete DeWitt of Seattle is spending a few days hunting on Butter creek. He is a house guest of his nephew, R. E. McGreer.

Mrs. C. R. Morehead, grandmother of R. E. McGreer, is here for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and family attended pot luck supper at the open meeting of the Lena grange Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McGreer and family and Bert Bain returned Monday from Redmond.

G. T. Want Ads bring results.

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

By MARY LUNDELL
A very successful Booster Night program was held at the Willows grange hall Saturday evening. Following the program, dancing was enjoyed by a large crowd. Twenty-two members and friends from Greenfield grange were guests of the evening.

Following is the program as given: Song, God Bless America; greetings by lecturer, Marjorie Baker, read by Willows master, Markham Baker; recitation, Jo Ann Cole, Arlington; talk, "What the Grange Stands For," County Deputy Mary Lundell; stunt pantomime, young folks; talk, "Our Granges," Pomona Master Minnie McFarland; Harmonica solo, Estelle Ledbetter; song, "The Grange Is Marching On."

The next regular meeting will be held at the Cecil hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 14. The ballot will be spread for several candidates now in waiting.

Pomona grange will meet at 10:30 a. m., at the Lexington hall on Saturday, Oct. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson arrived the end of the week from their home at Gold Beach for a visit with relatives and friends.

AUCTION

Closing Out Sale

ENTIRE STOCK OF HEPPNER'S

Second-Hand Store

Corner Chase and Willow Sts.

TO BE PUT ON THE BLOCK

WED., OCT. 11th

Beginning at 12:30 o'clock P. M. Sharp

NOT A SINGLE ARTICLE WITHHELD EVERYTHING GOES

STOVES

Large assortment of Cooking Stoves and Heaters; all rebuilt and in good condition.

7 Cook Stoves, 5 Circulators, 19 Coal and Wood Stoves

WASHING MACHINES

Electric and Gas

Arms, Rifles, Shotguns, Radios, Phonographs, Harness, Collars, Chains, Pumps, Pitchforks, Shovels, Axes (new or old), Hobbles, Saddles, Line Shaft, Pump Jack, Post Drills.

FURNITURE

Dressers, Unfinished Furniture, Desks, Beds, Mattresses and Springs, Writing Desks, Lamps, Bookcases, Cupboards, Telephones, Chairs, Tables, Kitchen Sets, Bedroom Sets, Cots, Day Beds.

Trailers - Feed Grinders
Lawn Mowers

NUMEROUS OTHER ITEMS
You'll find a wide assortment of useful items for farm and home that are impossible to mention.

SOME LIVESTOCK

V. R. RUNNION, Auctioneer

E. H. MILLER, Clerk

TERMS CASH

H. D. HOWE, Owner

Model T Derby

Line-Up FOR NEXT

Sunday, October 8th

The car No. and sponsors' ads will appear on the Hepner Rodeo Track next Sunday as they are listed below:

- 2 Pride of Oregon Ice Cream
- 3 Pearson's Used Cars, Hermiston
- 4 Hepner Garage, Plymouth
- 7 Local Guaranteed Used Cars, Jim Shoun
- 14 Bowers Wrecking, Moscow
- 17 Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., Hepner
- 22 Braden-Bell, Hepner
- 24 Ford Motor Co., John Day
- 73 Lexington Oil Co-Op.
- 77 Ferguson Motor Co., Hepner
- 88 Rosewall-Gentry Motor Co.

These are the entries signed up to Wednesday afternoon. Several more are expected before Sunday.

The Derby Will Start at 2 o'Clock Sharp

Admission: Adults 50c, Children 25c

IN CASE OF RAIN DERBY WILL BE HELD TWO WEEKS FROM DATE,
OCTOBER 22ND