Ledbetter Cow Dead From Shot

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

L. B. Ledbetter reports the loss of a valuable cow at his farm on Rhea creek. The animal was shot in the eye, presumably by a bird hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks departed Monday morning for San Francisco, where they are attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson and their son Carl Troedson made a flying trip to Portland Sunday, to pay respects to the newly arrived son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Troedson. This is the Troedson's first grandchild. He has been named John Francis.

Rev. C. H. Baldwin held preaching services here Sunday morning and in Lexington the same evening.

Guests at the James Lindsey home near Morgan are Mrs. Lindsey's brothers, John Bacon of Vallejo, Cal., and her cousin, Hubert Hill of Bowser, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reed and daughter of Estacada were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Denny. Mr. Denny's sister, Mrs. Ira Manville of Portland, was also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clel Rea have leased the G. A. Pettys ranch at Jordan Siding and are moving out there.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn have word that their son Clarence and his friend, Robert Rietmann, are seeing the sights at the New York World's fair.

M. E. Cotter is reported to be somewhat improved, but is still confined to his bed.

Mrs. Henry Clark went to Portland Sunday and visited her granddaughter, little Clara Ann Swales, who is under the care of a specialist in the city. She made the trip with Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson.

Jay Schumacher of Lake Tahoe was expected to arrive Wednesday to take his mother to her home in Sunnyvale, Cal. The elder Mrs. Shumacher has been a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Feldman, with whom she made the trip to Flint, Mich.

Martin Bauernfeind, Morgan postmaster, drove to the mountains Tuesday, bagged his buck, and returned home the same day. No use in wasting time on a job like that.

A birthday party was held at the Harry Munkers home below Ione September 24, honoring Grandma Munkers' eighty-first birthday. There were about sixty present. Dinner, including a beautiful birthday cake, decorated with eighty-one candles, was served on the lawn.

Twenty-four members and guests attended the meeting of the Union Missionary society at the Congregational church parlors Thursday. Rev. C. H. Baldwin led the program and told of his experiences in mission work in Alaska. Basket lunches were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Colvin and Mr. Colvin's brother, Waverly, of Portland, and Mrs. Colvin's brother, Blaine Blackwell of Yachats, arrived Friday to take a chance on shooting a buck in the mountains. They were guests of Mrs. Colvin's sister, Mrs. Dan Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mrs. Morgan's brother, Delmar Crawford, went to Portland Friday where they planned to attend the U. O.-Stanford game as well as transact some business.

Lyle Van Deusen of Top spent Thursday night at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind, at Morgan. He had come to Heppner to bring Lloyd Bohannon, who is employed on his ranch, to the hospital for a major operation. Mrs. Bohannon and baby are staying with Mrs. Minnie Farrrens in Ione, and Mr. Bohannon was moved there from the hospital Friday.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely, at Morgan, departed for her home near Roseburg Sunday.

DeLynn G. Halston, state manager of the Omaha Woodmen, paid an official visit to the Ione camp Monday evening. Ione Camp No. 62 was assisted by Echo Camp No. 61 in the initiation of nine candidates. Refreshments were served after lodge. Milton Morgan was elected captain of the drill team to be organized later.

Crippled Children's Clinic Scheduled

Arrangements are being completed for a clinic to be held in Pendleton for the crippled children of Umatilla and Morrow counties. The clinic is being arranged by the Umatilla County Health unit and the Umatilla County Public Welfare commission. The Morrow County Public Welfare commission will also participate. This is the second clinic to be held in Pendleton for crippled children. It has been tentatively planned that several more will be held during the year.

Any person under 21 years of age, of apparent normal mentality, who is suffering from a condition leading to a deformity of the bones, joints or muscles, or who is actually suffering from such deformity may attend the diagnostic clinic upon reference of their parents and family physician. In addition, the deformities of cleft palate, harelip, burn contractures and plastic skin contractures are included.

Attendance at the clinic is by application and appointment which may be secured from the Morrow County Public Welfare commission. Following the clinic, if it is found that the family is unable to finance the cost of the recommended care, plans for this care will be made through the county public welfare commission of the county of residence.

The clinic will be held in Pendleton in the Vert Memorial building, on October 19.

CHILD ASSOCIATION MEETS

Morrow County Association for Childhood Education is having a dinner meeting this evening at Hotel Heppner, under the leadership of Miss Neva Neill, president.
