

IONE NEWS

Ione School Meeting Draws Interest

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH
Considerable interest was shown in the meeting of the county redistricting school board here Saturday. There was a good attendance, and interest was evident Leonard Carlson presided as chairman of the board, Bert Johnson explained the working of the law, and its advantages, Herbert Hynd gave the statistics and pointed out that in the territory which it was proposed to add to one district there would be enough children drawing school money to bring the total to 230, making it a second class district. Mrs. Rodgers, county school superintendent, discussed the proposed budget. R. B. Rice and Alex Lindsay of Lexington, and Thomas Wells of Heppner were other officials in attendance.

Robert Rietmann and Clarence Linn returned Sunday evening from a four weeks vacation trip. They went from Ione to Detroit by train, and from there drove to Cincinnati, where they spent a day at the home of Mr. Linn's niece, and then spent one day with Mr. Linn's sister in southern Ohio. From there they drove to New York City, going by way of Washington, D. C. They spent five days in New York City, where they attended two world series baseball games, spent two days at the fair, and did some sightseeing. On the return trip they went to Niagara Falls, and made a trip into Ontario, Canada. One day was spent at Highland, Illinois, the former home of the Rietmann family, where Mr. Rietmann has an uncle, some cousins and other relatives. John Heller, who formerly lived here, also lives there, and the young men saw him. From there they returned through Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Utah and Idaho.

The Past Noble Grand club of Bunch Grass Rebekah lodge is sponsoring a card party and social in the I. O. O. F.-Rebekah hall in Ione on Friday evening, October 27. Fancy work and aprons made by the club ladies will be displayed for sale. A small admission fee will be charged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The H. E. club met at the home of Harriet Lundell in Heppner for an all day meeting and pot-luck dinner. These ladies were present: Vida Heliker, Mary Lundell, Lena Lundell, Etta Bristow, Stella O'Meara, Marie Ledbetter, Elsie Peterson, Anna Ball, Connie Crawford, Mary Lindsey, Ida Fletcher, Mabel Davidson, Marjorie Baker, Kathryn Yarnell, Vela Eubanks, Clara Newlin, Beulah Lundell, Maredine Hummel, Geneva Palmer, Cora Munkers, Beulah Sherer, Charlotte Lundell, Gladys Conner, Anna Peterson, Sybil Howell, Anna Blake, Etta Howell, and Mabel Crawford. The program was in charge of Anna Ball. The hostess served ice cream and cake.

The next meeting will be an all day meeting at the home of Anna Ball.

Mrs. Harry Yarnell was saddened Saturday by the receipt of the news of the death of her only sister, in Connecticut.

Mrs. Harvey Ring and daughter Lois spent the school vacation at Hood River where they visited Mrs. Ring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rowell, her sister, Mrs. Ledbetter, and her daughter, Miss Bernice, who is employed there.

Miss Agnes Niblen of Portland arrived Friday for a visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. G. Sperry.

Rev. C. H. Baldwin held services here Sunday evening. He departed Monday for Portland to attend to business.

Mrs. F. C. Ross arrived here Monday to join her husband, who is the local station agent. They will live in the Lee Howell house.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yarnell and son Alton spent the four-day vacation at Bickleton, Wash., with relatives.

Work is progressing rapidly on the grange hall. Members are assisting the carpenter, and the foundation has been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blake of Moro spent Sunday with Mr. Blake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Morgan and family spent the week end at Baker, the guests of Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. Earl Wright. When they returned, Mrs. Morgan's mother and brother, Mrs. Ida Grabil and Gene, returned with them. They had been visiting in Nampa, Idaho, and Baker.

The ladies of the Eastern Star held an all-day meeting at the Masonic hall Tuesday, when they gave the building a thorough housecleaning.

Dean Ekleberry returned Friday from near Monument with a four point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind returned Monday from Top where Mrs. Bauernfeind was successful in bagging a buck.

Roy Ekleberry, A. C. Crowell, Howard Crowell, John Bell and Elmer Griffith departed for Nine Top Wednesday with high hopes and two trailers.

The Women's Topic club was entertained in Heppner Friday afternoon by Mrs. L. E. Dick, Mrs. D. M. Ward, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Jr., and Mrs. C. W. McNamer at the home of the latter. Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Morgan ably reviewed the book, "Flight of the Swan" by Oliveroff. This is a story of the life of Madame Pavlova. Instead of the regular social meeting the same committee will have charge of a benefit card party, to be held at the Masonic hall in Ione Monday evening, October 30. The proceeds will be used for the Ione library, and all patrons and friends of the library are urged to attend.

The Ione and Echo football teams played to a tie on the local field Thursday. The score was 45-45.

The freshman football squad played the grade school Friday, with a resulting score of 13-6.

Mrs. Franklin Ely of Morgan enjoyed a week-end visit from her mother, Mrs. Pierott of Portland. She returned home Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Johnson of Morgan took advantage of the week end to visit her parents at Milton-Freewater before going to Baker for the teachers institute the first of the week.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Sister Lillian Cochran, who died October 4, 1939.

Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, Death, has entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned a sister to the home beyond. Her zealous work in behalf of our beloved order and her life laden with good deeds, has won for her the plaudit of the Master and will cause her name to be chiseled in the memory of our lodge, and Therefore be it resolved, that S. S. Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 in testimony of our loss and expressing Rebekah love, drape its charter in mourning for thirty days, and that we tender to the family of our deceased Sister our sincere condolences, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

CLARA BEAMER, LUCY RODGERS, ELLA BERGE, Committee.

Alva Stone and Jack Osier were among hunters bagging their buck deer his week.

Improve your home lighting with these LAMPS

FLOOR MODEL I.E.S. LAMP

Stunning design! Bronze or ivory and gold standard. Parchment shade. 3-way bulb. Price complete only $8.95 Very convenient terms

STUDY LAMP

A beautiful lamp! Ideal for desk or table. Price, including parchment shade and 100-watt bulb $4.45 Buy on convenient terms

PIN-IT-UP LAMPS $1.25 up

These handy lamps have dozens of uses in every home. See them today.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY Always At Your Service

Quick fun - or light on a dark subject! Can you answer this BETTER LIGHT QUIZ?

Better Light for Better Sight is a mighty important subject these dark fall and winter days. Discover how much you really know about good lighting by checking the answers you think are correct with the right answers.

LIGHT CONDITIONING IS:

- 1. Studying Einstein's theory. 2. Enough light in enough places for easy seeing. 3. Reducing by taking Turkish baths.

Light conditioning gives your eyes new comfort through Better Light for Better Sight. Why not send for our home lighting advisor and have her determine with the Light Meter just what your home needs in improved lighting conditions. Her advice is free. No. 2 is correct.

EYESTRAIN MAY BE CAUSED BY:

- 1. Exercising before breakfast. 2. Inadequate or harsh, glaring light. 3. Watching jitterbugs.

During dark, winter months, eyes are used more than any other time for close, exacting visual work. Guard against possible eyestrain by having your eyes examined regularly by a competent eyesight specialist and by light conditioning your home. Remember, defective eyes need good light more than normal ones. Statement Number 2 is the correct one.

I. E. S. LAMPS ARE:

- 1. What doctors use to see inside of you. 2. A device for putting the dill in dill pickles. 3. Scientifically-designed Better-Sight lamps.

No need to go on straining your eyes in improper light when I.E.S. lamps were perfected to give you soft, abundant sight-saving light. There's an I.E.S. lamp for every style of interior decoration at dealers or P.P.&L. office. No. 3 is correct.

BETTER LIGHT COSTS:

- 1. As much as all the rice in China. 2. As little or as much as you wish. 3. About the same as a new living room rug.

Light conditioning costs such a little when you consider the increased seeing comfort it gives you. Really good lighting equipment is priced remarkably low, and Pacific Power & Light Company electricity is among the cheapest in the United States today. No. 2 is correct.

Sight is priceless; light is cheap with P.P. & L. ELECTRICITY

See any dealer in lighting equipment or PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY Always at Your Service

INTERESTING FACTS about Pacific Power & Light Company

Pacific Power & Light Company last year disbursed $4,300,000 for wages, materials and supplies and taxes, practically all of which was expended in the territory served.

Rural electrification has been actively developed by Pacific Power & Light Company for many years. Although the Company serves only 8.2% of the total number of electric users in Oregon and Washington, its rural lines serves 13.4% of all the electrified farms in the two states.

Generating stations of the Company have a combined capacity of 77,617 kilowatts, or 103,489 horsepower.

The Company provides employment for 785 persons and supports a total annual payroll of approximately $1,475,000.

The Company serves 42,969 residential customers; 11,112 farms; 8,022 commercial establishments; 554 industries; and 858 government and municipal users of electricity.