Post Office Required To Shorten Service

Saturday afternoon opening of the postoffice, recently inaugurated by Postmaster C. B. Cox to give patrons better service, must be discontinued. The postmaster said this order had been received from Washington, D. C., with the information that second-class offices are not permitted to remain open Saturday afternoons.

Acting under these directions, Postmaster Cox announces that beginning next Saturday the office will close at the noon hour, though hours for receiving mail will remain the same.
