BOARDMAN NEWS

Boardman High Slates Play, 10th

By MRS. CLAUD COATS
"Ted Drops in," a three-act comedy drama, will be presented by the Boardman high school in the high school auditorium Friday, Nov. 10, at 8 p. m. The play centers around Miss Betty Carlton, owner of Maple Point farm; Ted Lansing, a city slicker posing as a dairy farmer, and his helper, Lonnie Cramer. Of equal importance is Miss Sally Belton, a coy and pretty neighbor who finds Mr. Cramer very "wonderful." Plenty of laughs are furnished by Judy Jefferson, negro cook for the Carltons, and Charlie Crowder, who gets no place in a one-sided romance with Winnie Carlton, Betty's younger sister. But when Joe Kane, influential figure in the county, strikes a cruel blow at the Carltons, the thrills and excitement really begin. Everyone be in the auditorium Friday night to enjoy the laughs of a real comedy, the excitement of a horse race, the joys of romance, and the thrills and chills of mystery and drama. The cast of characters is: Ted Lansing, Roy Partlow; Betty Carlton, Echo Coats; Lonnie Cramer, Ralph Skoubo; Sally Belton, Clara Mae Dillon; Charlie Crowder, Russell De Mauro; Winnie Carlton, Mardell Gorham; Joe Kane, Elbert Fisher; Judy Jefferson, Ruth Kunze.
