

Local News

C. Melville was calling in town yesterday from the Alpine farm. He wasn't complaining of drouth, saying he first came to Morrow county from the coast to get into a dry climate, and that he had suffered few bad days from an asthmatic condition in his many years of residence here. The surprising thing about his section is how much it can raise on a little moisture, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnston of Estacada were over-Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas. Mr. Johnston was formerly principal of the Lexington schools and enjoyed greeting many old-time friends. He is now superintendent of the Estacada schools and is proud of the fine new school plant over which he has supervision.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Nickerson were in Portland over the Thanksgiving week end, taking turkey dinner at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes. Their son, Francis, University of Oregon student, was also present from Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson returned home Sunday evening.

David and Jack Hynd, members of the large stockraising firm of Hynd Bros. company, were both transacting business in the city Saturday from Sand Hollow and Cecil respectively. The present fall season was reported as one of the driest to their knowledge in many years of residence in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Walter La Dusire of La Grande were present on Thanksgiving day for the Turner family annual dinner which was served at the home of Mr. Edna Turner. All immediate members of the family near enough to attend were present.

Jay Griffith, in the city Monday from the farm in the Spray section, did not like the looks of prevailing drouth conditions but was thankful he had not seeded his wheat. Neighbors, he said, dug up wheat they had planted to find the kernels had sprouted and turned black.

I. R. Robison, Ione machinist and tool maker whose talents bring many orders from outside the county, was transacting business in the city on Tuesday, accompanied by Rev. William Moffatt Dennis, who is in the county on call of united churches of Lexington and Ione.

L. Redding, in the city Saturday from the Eight Mile farm, reported that Mrs. Redding recently had word from her son, Dallas Ward, assistant coach at University of Minnesota, that he was coming out to the west coast about the middle of December.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson of Canby arrived in the county Sunday to visit at homes of their sons in the Lexington vicinity until after Christmas. Mr. Nelson was a visitor in Heppner yesterday, greeting many old-time friends.

E. J. Evans of Lexington was a business visitor in the city Monday. Though conditions are mighty dry in his section on lower Blackhorse, he believed there was still time for moisture needed to make the new wheat crop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cleveland motored to the Valley for the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives and friends. They were joined by their son, Howard, student at Oregon State college.

Miss Rae Cowins spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cowins, from the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allyn, at Lexington.

M. V. Brill, extensive wheat raiser from the vicinity of Turner, Wn., was a guest over Saturday night at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. O. Rasmus.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allyn of Lexington visited here Monday with their daughter, Mrs. James Cowins.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wightman and children from Condon were over Thanksgiving week-end guests at the home of Mr. Wightman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wightman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bennett and Billy spent Thanksgiving week end at the home of Mr. Bennett's parents at Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Frazier were week-end visitors at Naches and Yakima, Wash.

Minnie Davis Card, state officer for Degree of Honor, was a visitor in the city Saturday from her home at Portland.

Mrs. J. O. Kincaid and son Harold were transacting business in the city Saturday from the farm west of Ione.

Delbert Emert, extensive wheat farmer of the Ione section, was in the city Monday on business.

Harold Anderson was in the city Saturday from the Gooseberry farm, transacting business.

For sale, coal circulating heater in good shape, $20. N. D. Bailey, city. 35tf

PINE CITY NEWS

Thanksgiving Visits Feature at Pine City

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill returned Monday from a business trip to Portland and Salem.

Miss Shirley Jarmon of Portland spent Thanksgiving vacation at the Sloan Thompson ranch.

Betty Finch, who attends high school at Olympia, Wash., spent the holiday with her parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and Frances and Patty.

Mrs. Lois Kent spent the Thanksgiving week end at Rainier, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McGreer and family spent Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. McGreer's sisters at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Healy have purchased a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and family and the Reid Buseick family of Long Creek spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wattenburger at Pasco, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison and John Edward spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Harrison's sister and family, the George Currin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boylen, Jr., spent Monday at their ranch on Butter creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vey and Bobby Shiller are on a vacation and business trip through Montana and into Mexico. Mr. Vey intends to purchase a new saddle pony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helms and daughters spent the Thanksgiving holiday in Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Reid Buseick and children spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger while Mr. Buseick made a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Wilkins was called to Heppner Monday morning when the home she had purchased early in the fall for her children who attend school there, was on fire.

Ray Ayers and the Healy, Daley and O'Brien children spent the holiday at their homes on Butter creek.

Mr. and Mrs. George Currin and son spent Sunday with the John Harrisons.

Harriet and Henrietta Helms moved to Stanfield this week to room and board in town during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and family were dinner guests of the Emery Cox family in Hermiston.

Lilly Rauch spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rauch and family at Alpine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Moorehead and family of Ellensburg, Wash., were dinner guests of the A. E. Wattenburger home Sunday and called at the Roy Neill home. They spent Sunday night and Monday at the Dan Lindsay home at Alpine. Mrs. Moorehead and Mrs. Lindsay are sisters.

Autumn Suggested As Time to Start Home Accounting

Autumn is a good time to start account keeping, according to Mrs. Azalea Sager, state home demonstration leader of Oregon State college. By the first of the year it will be easier to plan for 1940 as a whole. For many homemakers, the opening of school and the change from summer to fall clothing makes this season seem like the beginning of the year.

Farm women in many Oregon counties keep accounts as a home demonstration project. They use the special farm home account book which was designed by the bureau of home economics. It sells for 15 cents, and is obtained from the government printing office or through any local extension office. But any composition book may be ruled for use as an account book if the record-keeper wishes to prepare his or her own forms.

To be really useful an account book sorts the expenditures under such separate heads as "Food," "Household Operation," "Personal," "Automobile," and so on. This makes it possible to compare the expenditures for a given time, as food, in one month or year with those of other months or years.

Expenditures are best planned before spending begins, says Mrs. Sager. A plan for spending is a budget. If household accounts are available, they will provide useful facts upon which to base a spending plan. Without accounts, expenditures may be estimated rather closely if the family members list the larger purchases made during the preceding year and supplement their memories by receipted bills. For the farm family, a plan for spending may be accompanied by a plan for home-production of food.

One advantage of the bureau of home economics' account book is that it has pages for writing down things furnished by the farm for family living. Another good feature is the page provided for listing large expenses that occur from time to time but not every month. No two months are exactly alike in most families. So it is important in drawing up a plan or budget to know which months include extra heavy expenses, and then make a plan for meeting them.

Chemistry Hall At O. S. C. to be Dedicated Dec. 2

Oregon State College — Formal dedication of the new $425,000 chemistry hall at O. S. C., Saturday, December 2, will be the occasion for a major scientific gathering for Pacific northwest chemists, according to the detailed program just issued by the dedication committee, headed by Dr. E. C. Gilbert, professor of physical chemistry.

State officials, including Governor Charles A. Sprague and members of the board of higher education, will participate in the all-day ceremonies, to be climaxed by the dedicatory address by Dr. J. H. Hildebrand, noted research specialist from the University of California.

Other visiting chemists to appear on the program will be Dr. Linus Pauling, director of Gates and Crelin laboratory at the California Institute of Technology; Dr. Paul E. Schutz, instructor in chemical engineering, Washington State college, and Dr. Herman V. Tartar, professor of chemistry, University of Washington. Members of the Puget sound, inter-mountain and Oregon sections of the American Chemical society are joining in the days' events, and will hear a series of scientific papers prior to the public dedication ceremonies set for 4:30 o'clock.

Willard L. Marks, chairman of the board of higher education, will preside at these ceremonies, with Mrs.

Beatrice Walton Sackett of Marshfield speaking for the building committee and the board. President George W. Peavy will review the history of chemistry at Oregon State college, and Governor Sprague will extend greetings from the state of Oregon.

The chemistry department of the school of science, the chemical engineering department of the school of engineering, and the chemistry department of the agricultural experiment station, all of which are housed in the new structure, are joining in the dedication program.

G. T. Want Ads bring results.

F. B. NICKERSON
Morrow County Representative
Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association of Omaha
Office in Peters Building Heppner

SHIP BY TRUCK
The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.
SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday
Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent
"PREVENT FOREST FIRES IT PAYS"

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday
TROPIC FURY
with Richard Arlen, Andy Devine, Beverly Roberts
Action . . . drama . . . adventure in the Amazon tropics!
—plus—
THE ESCAPE
with Kane Richmond, Amanda Duff, June Gale, Henry Armetta
Cartoon Fashions

Sunday-Monday
THUNDER AFLOAT
with
Wallace Beery, Chester Morris, Virginia Grey, Douglas Dumbrille
Salty saga of the men who manned the splinter fleet which protected America's shores from the harassment of German U-Boats in 1918.
Newsreel Robert Benchley

Tuesday
PAL NIGHT: 2 adults 35c, 2 children 10c
CAREER
with Anne Shirley, Edward Ellis, Samuel S. Hinds, Janet Beecher, Leon Errol and Alice Eden and John Archer who were selected thru the Gateway to Hollywood talent search.
A great novel of small-town life . . . a story charged with deep drama, warm romance and glowing thrill!
The Natural Wonders of Washington State (in technicolor)
The Story of Alfred Nobel Weather Wizards by Pete Smith

Wednesday-Thursday
EACH DAWN I DIE
with James Cagney, George Raft, Jane Bryan, George Bancroft, Maxie Rosenbloom, Victor Jory
This powerful drama of prison and underworld life is a real he-man's picture. Cagney has never been better.
RIDE, COWBOY, RIDE, technicolor musical
Newsreel: Nazi air-raiders in action, Joe Dimaggio, Football

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gaily (Heppner) are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions.
To be used before December 8th.

STAR THEATER
Heppner, Oregon

New 1940
Zenith and Philco
Radios
ARE HERE
LATEST IMPROVEMENTS
LOWER PRICES
Portable
RADIO$... $19.95 UP

Radio Repair and Service
BRUCE GIBB
Phone 1382