

LEXINGTON NEWS

Lettermens Club Holds Initiation

By MARGARET SCOTT
The Lettermens club held an initiation meeting at the Roy Campbell home last Wednesday evening. Eugene Majeske was initiated into the club.

Friends here were grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Louis Marquardt who passed away Sunday morning at Pendleton in the St. Anthony hospital where she was recuperating from a major operation. Erma Scott is critically ill from pneumonia in The Dalles hospital. Her mother is with her.

Kenneth Palmer took a load of stock to Portland Sunday and returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McMillan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones were dinner guests at the Adolph Majeske home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and son spent Saturday and Sunday in Stanfield visiting relatives. Mr. Henderson's sister and children who have been visiting here returned to their home in Chehalis the last of the week.

M. and Mrs. Togo Ericson of Brainerd, Minn., and Mrs. Ray White of San Leandro, Cal., were visiting relatives here last week.

Lot Johnston left Saturday for his home in Spokane after spending some time at the A. M. Edwards home.

Mrs. Chester Brown of Monument was a visitor at the home of Anne Johnson last week.

Edith Edwards attended a Christian Endeavor meeting in Pendleton Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Daugherty and son returned home Sunday from Connell where they have been visiting relatives for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Archie Munkers left Saturday for Salem where she plans to visit her parents before joining her husband in Los Angeles.

Rae Cowins spent the week end in Heppner.

A birthday party was held at the Elmer Hunt home Saturday evening in honor of Gerald Acklen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMillan and Mrs. Arthur Hunt were Pendleton visitors Thursday.

Clayton Davis is home for a vacation from his work in the navy. His father and sister, Clark Davis and Wanda of Canyon City, were visiting here Sunday.

The high school basketball team won their first game of the season last Tuesday evening by defeating Pilot Rock 19-14. The Heppner CCC team defeated the local town team the same evening by a score of 43-31. Wednesday evening they journeyed to Ione where they were defeated by a score of 31-28. The high school first and second teams motored to Boardman Friday night where both teams were defeated by the Boardman quintet. The first string lost 28-10, while the second team lost 19-11.

Among local people attending the wheat league meeting in Condon last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saling, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott, George Peck, Burton Peck, Merle Miller and A. H. Nelson.

The Merry Thimblers club met at the home of Vera Whillock last Thursday with Faye Ruhl as hostess. Refreshments of jello, cake and coffee were served. Eula Barnhouse was voted in as a new member. The next meeting will be with Helen Breshears.

BOARDMAN NEWS

Boardman Cagers Trim Adams Five

By MRS. CLAUD COATS
The local basketball team was victorious over Adams in the return game there on December 5. The final score was Boardman 38, Adams 26, with Dale Russell of Boardman making 27 points.

Miss Case of Corvallis held a cooking class in the grange hall Friday. There were about 30 ladies present.

Earl Cramer who has been at Spokane visited on the project over last week end.

Friday, December 8, the high school Girls League was entertained at a play day in Ione. The girls reported an enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Attebury left last week for Spokane with Rev. Young of College Place, Wash., to attend a Seven Day Advent conference.

A birthday dinner was held in the grange hall last Saturday. The evening was spent in dancing where everyone reported a nice time.

P. M. Smith, McFarland, E. Sullivan and W. A. Baker were in Heppner Thursday to attend the Land Use committee meetings. This committee, which meets annually, discusses and plans ways of bettering the use of land in the county.

In the second league game of the season, the Boardman Yellow Jackets defeated the Lexington Jack Rabbits by a score of 28-12. Although the score was too uneven to make a particularly thrilling game, it was well worth the time and money. The team, coached by Glen Mallery, is rapidly improving and by the end of the season we should be ready to make the larger teams take notice.

Willard Baker took his mother, Mrs. W. A. Baker, to Hermiston Saturday, where she consulted a doctor.

G. A. Corwin made a business trip to Heppner Monday evening.

Don't forget the basketball game with Hermiston on the home floor on Saturday, December 16. This promises to be a thriller. To date Boardman is playing .1000.

HARDMAN NEWS

Hardman Schools To Observe Christmas

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL
A Christmas program will be held at the high school auditorium on Thursday evening, Dec. 21, put on mostly by the grade school, with several numbers by the high school. Everyone is invited.

Carl McDaniel and Jim Smith of Lone Rock spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers.

Sometime ago Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Craber left for Ashland where Gordon, who has been there since June, is slowly improving. Mr. and Mrs. Craber plan to return about Christmas.

The monthly Christian Endeavor party and business meeting was held Saturday night. Games were played and refreshments were served.

The first meeting of the Camp Cookery 4-H club was held last Friday. Irl Clary was elected president; Junior Leathers, vice-president; Alene Inskeep, secretary; Cecil McDaniel, yell leader, and Narvin Adams, song leader. Other members of the club are Alvin Byer, Delmer Buschke, Billy Lee, Clinton Batty and La Vonne Adams. The next meeting will be held at the high school on the afternoon of Friday, Dec. 22. Marie Clary is leader of the club.

A meeting of Clothing 4-H club was held at the high school on Friday under the leadership of Mildred Clary. Officers were elected as follows: President, Alberta McFerrin; vice-president, Evelyn McFerrin; secretary, Carol Buschke; song leader, Yvonne Hastings, and yell leader, Doris Robinson. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 22 at the same place.

The Rev. Everett Eli of Touchet, Wash., plans to hold church services here on Sunday for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and Jim and Harold Stevens were business visitors in Heppner on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Jim Hams, Mrs. Chas. McDaniel and Mrs. Harold Stevens and Bobby were visiting in Condon on Wednesday.

The first Clothing II-IV 4-H club meeting was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Leathers. The following officers were chosen: President, Vera McDaniel; vice-president, Ollie Hastings; secretary, Jeanne Leathers, and song leader, Vera McDaniel. Other members of the club are Mildred Clary, Maxine McDaniel and Juanita Byer. The leader is Oleta Raimey.

Sam McDaniel fell Sunday and is unable to walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers and Junior visited at the Victor Lovgren home on Sunday.

Earl Redding and Carl Leathers returned to Bates on Sunday where they will continue working.

Mrs. Glenn Farrens and Mrs. Walter Wright and children were visiting here Sunday.

Ed McDaniel left last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Merritt, who lives at Muckleteo, Wash.,

near Everett. Harlan Adams took him to Heppner, where he caught the evening train.

The weather has been so mild this fall that an apple tree on the Craber ranch has budded and the mullein is in bloom.

Henry Graham and Robert Wagner of Ione visited at the A. D. Inskeep home on Sunday.

All last week threatened storms and finally on Sunday rain and then snow came. The fall was about two or three inches of very wet snow, much of which melted during the night as the weather continued warm. At this writing a stormy sky indicates that we shall have more winter very soon.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Don Jones and Paul Doolittle, students of Heppner high school, drove to La Grande last Friday where they attended a conference of high school student body officers at Eastern Oregon College of Education. Nearly 100 student body officers were present to discuss various problems connected with their work. It was unanimously voted to meet annually in a high school student body officers' convention at the college early each fall. A banquet and college play were features of entertainment for the group.

SPECIAL BRINGS SHEEP

A special train brought a shipment of sheep to Heppner Sunday evening. The sheep were some of the Barratt flocks which have been ranging at Browning, Mont., since last spring.

Not Too Early to Order Your Christmas Greeting Cards

SEE OUR FINE DISPLAY

Heppner Gazette Times

★

MIRRORS
for Christmas

★

Make Christmas Reflections
Brighten Future Years

FURNITURE and the countless Household Articles we stock make it easy for you to solve your GIFT SHOPPING problems. Gifts for the entire family or for individual members, friends....

- For the Family: Davenport, Dining Room Set, Rugs, Oil Heater, Chairs, Lamps, Radio, Bedroom Suite.
- For Mother: A Hamilton Beach Electric Mixer, Coffee Maker, Pyrex Ware, Bauer Pottery.
- For Sister: A Bed Lamp, Cedar Chest or Over Night Case.
- For Brother: Gladstone Bag or Suit Case.
- For Baby: Bayb Beds, Chairs and Buggies.

Any Home Comfort will please Dad

Extra Special! A B C WASHERS
Regular $135.50
You Save $55.55 Now Only $79.⁹⁵

CASE FURNITURE CO.