Facts About Our Students

Peggy Tamblin, a sophomore in Heppner High, was born Aug. 24, 1924. Peggy is a member of the Hehisch committee.

Peggy's hobby is collecting souvenirs and dolls. Her greatest ambition is to be a famous musician.

Her dream boy must be tall, have a good personality; athletic ability and must be well dressed.

Peggy intends to go to O. S. C. to take home economics and music. Peggy's intended vocation is teaching. Her favorite subject is home economics.

Guess Who?

He is a senior boy. Holds a student body office. Has been accused of being an embezzler. Made a handsome Tyrone Power in play. Seems to have had a grand time at La Grande.

Home Ec Meets

The last half of the third period Tuesday, Dec. 5, was devoted to a home ec. meeting in the social hall at the gym. A treasurer's report revealed that $7.40 was taken in at the football dance. A committee was appointed to find a store window in which a bazaar may be held. This will be given week before Christmas. The Home Ec. girls are planning a return party for the FFA in the near future.

At the next meeting the girls will bring their bazaar projects to work on. The meeting ended with Christmas carols, sung by the club.

Ping Pong

Ping Pong as a sport in Heppner is progressing rapidly. Hugh Crawford and Jack Merrill were slow in playing off their match and the game has been forfeited to Hugh. Hugh then will play Glen Fell and the winner will play Howard Wray. Pinckney defeated Don Bennett and this will give him a chance for the championship.

In the girls' division, Wanda Howell will play Jean Hays for the chance to play Dorothy Huit for the championship.

Girls League Meets

A candy sale will be given Wednesday noon at the school. All girls must bring candy or pay a dime.

Several suggestions for raising money were given, among these the following: Gum chewing day, selling candy at games, pie cuts during the day.

A short program was given which consisted of vocal solo by Pat O'Harra, "My Prayer," and a talk by Ruth Green about her trip east.

Officers Attend Conference

Guy Moore, Don Jones, Lowell Ashbaugh, vice-president, treasurer and sergeant-at-arms, respectively, and Paul Doolittle, senior class president attended the student body officers' conference last Friday, Dec. 8, at the Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande.

The delegates went to the first general meeting at 1:15, where they were entertained by the La Grande high school band. Charles Reynolds, student body president of La Grande high school, greeted the delegates and the speech of welcome was given by Dr. Maaske, president of E. O. C. E.

At 2 o'clock the sectional meetings were held. Following sectional meetings, the entire group went to the assembly hall for a general meeting. Some of the things discussed were: Problem faced by student body leaders; school freedom; school assemblies; school dances; school clubs, and value of music in high school.

A banquet was held in the evening at the Presbyterian church. At a business meeting it was decided that the conference be an annual event to be held at La Grande each year.

A play, "Come Seven," was given at the college followed by a dance sponsored by the college.

Heppner Student Weds

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell of this city, and Alfred Huit of Gresham was solemnized at 5 o'clock, December 10, in the Methodist parsonage in Heppner, Rev. Carl Young officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of royal blue transparent velvet with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The bride's sister, Miss Sibyl Howell, was maid of honor, and wore a black velvet dress with a corsage of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother, Wesley Huit, was best man and also sang, "My Dear," preceding the ceremony.

Miss Juanita Phelps played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Band News

On Monday, Dec. 11, the Heppner school band met and disposed of certain business that needed the immediate attention of the members.

At a previous meeting two amendments to the constitution were ordered placed on the bulletin board. These were voted upon and passed. They had to do with the powers of the president and vice-president in calling certain meetings, etc.

At a meeting Monday it was decided to buy an official plaque designating the winning of a second division rating in the national contest by the Heppner band.

A lengthy discussion took place in regard to the members' opinions as to whether the band should continue to attend contests.

FFA

Work on the floor in the FFA building has been completed. Shop work will be started presently.

An FFA meeting was held Friday with Bill Padberg taking the chair in Guy Moore's absence.

The annual tryout for the FFA speeches in front of the assembly is not far off. The speeches will be given, by all, in some of the classes. The poorer speeches will be eliminated and better ones will go upstairs in front of the assembly to compete for a cash prize. Last year the prizes were $6 for first, $4 for second and $1 for third. The prizes were given by the First National Bank of Portland, Heppner Branch.

PERSONALS

Dorothy Howell was the recipient of many gifts at a shower given by the senior girls which was held at the home of Clara Adams, Tuesday evening.

Refreshments were served. The table was adorned with a tiny bride and groom standing under a tree of wedding bells from which were streamers to each corner of the table.

Lois Jones, accompanied by Edith Edwards of Lexington attended the Columbia C. E. union executive meeting at Pendleton, Sunday.

Mildred and Leon McClintock accompanied their parents to The Dalles, Saturday.

Salem stationers descended on a meeting of the Board of Control this week to file vigorous protests against a proposed reform in the purchase of office supplies. The proposed reform involves bidding on a full year's supply of the various supplies used by the various state departments, those items to be supplied the state only as needed. The local stationers argued that the plan would divert the business to the wholesalers and manufacturers at the expense of the smaller dealers who live in Oregon and pay taxes to support the state government. The board agreed to modify the plan to protect the smaller dealer.
