Christmas Assembly

Santa Claus took the day off from making his toys at the North Pole to visit the Heppner high school on Friday, December 22, 1939. Santa read the various letters that had been written by the students asking for many humorous things.

After reading the letters he gave every member of the student body a lovely gift, an orange, and a striped candy cane.

When Santa had gone speeches were made by former members of the student body who were home from college for the holidays. Those making speeches were Bob Scrivner, John Crawford, Kathryn Parker and Bill Barratt.

The assembly was then turned over to the Pep club who put on a very interesting Professor Whiz program. Tommy Starkey won the contest and received a large cake of Big Bath Soap.

While they were counting the votes Dorothea Wilson sang "Strange Enchantment," accompanied by Patty O'Harra.

Everyone was then wished a Merry Christmas and the assembly broke up.

New Year's Resolutions

The teachers of Heppner high sincerely hope that some of the students will take this opportunity to make some New Year's resolutions.

With semester tests next week the majority of students could make a resolution to study. Especially the seniors, whose graduation may be determined by the outcome of these tests. Other resolutions such as maintaining order and courtesy in the classrooms and the halls would be appreciated.

Resolutions that would be appreciated are as follows:

By Dad Driscoll—If we resolved not to throw peanut shells and paper on the floor.

By Miss Doughty—If the students in bookkeeping would resolve to make less noise and give her a chance to talk.

By Mr. Peavy—If the English 4 class would conduct themselves like ladies and gentlemen.

By Mrs. Clark—If the Freshman class would resolve to cultivate some manners.

By Miss McElhinney—If the chorus would resolve to keep awake during chorus practice.

By Mr. Blankenship—If the seniors would resolve to study harder.

By Mr. Knox—If the basketball team would learn how to play basketball.

Dick O'Shea, former student in Heppner, was visiting his cousin, Philip Cohn during vacation. Dick lives in Seattle where he is attending prep school.

Isabel McFerrin spent the vacation at her home in the mountains.

Guy Moore, with his parents, spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Neil Knighten of Hardman. Mrs.

Knighten has been ill for the last week and will not be able to return to her teaching duties at Alpine.

Mr. and Mrs. Knox and family spent vacation in Portland.

Guess Who—Twice

She is a senior; is one of the strutting gals for the band. Had the lead in the Senior Play. Most of her time is taken up by a certain trumpeter.

He is a sophomore; is an active member of the Pep club. Was water boy for the football team. Started a scandal at the Christmas dance by taking a certain girl home.

H Club Christmas Dance

The last school day before Christmas was topped off to a fine conclusion by an H club dance in the gym.

Decorations consisted of small fir trees placed in the corners of the gym and one placed in the center of the floor. Many seemed to have occasion to thank someone for the abundance of mistletoe.

Music was supplied by a phonograph-radio hook-up that has never been used before by the school.

CHRISTMAS HAPPENINGS

Clara Adams spent the holiday in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

Dorothy Huit spent part of her Christmas vacation in Portland.

Cora Scott spent her vacation at Top, coming back to Heppner with her father Monday night.

Bob Swick spent vacation in Monument with his parents.

Mr. Blankenship and family visited relatives in Seattle and Centralia during the vacation. Mr. Blankenship also attended OSTA in Portland.

Buddy Blakely was visiting in Portland during the holiday season.

Edna Stephens and a group of friends visited Mrs. Florence Daltzell and others in Condon, Tuesday.
