

LEXINGTON NEWS

Grange Presents Attendance Gifts

By MARGARET SCOTT

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott are spending a few days in Portland where Mrs. Scott is receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth were visitors in Portland and Hubbard last week.

A. M. Edwards and daughter Edith spent the first of the week in Portland and Bay Center, Wash.

Zelma Way, Lavelle Pieper, Annetta Calvin, Suzanne Buchanan and Neal Knighten spent Tuesday in The Dalles.

The Study club will meet next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the schoolhouse.

The Merry Thimblers club was entertained last Thursday at the Ann Johnston home with Bernice Healy as hostess. Mrs. Randall Martin was a guest. Delicious refreshments of plum pudding and coffee were served. The next meeting will be at the home of LaVerne Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Winkle had as their guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Ruhl and son and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gray and family. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments of sandwiches, cake, and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John Padberg are living in the Ray McAlister house.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner and Lou Broadley are visiting relatives in the valley.

A no-hostess "50" party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Leach Saturday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Callie Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Lou Broadley, Ann Johnson, Mrs. Hershal Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. James Leach. Refreshments were served.

The monthly grange meeting was held Saturday evening with a large crowd present. A very interesting program was presented by Grace M. Turner, lecturer, which consisted of the following numbers: Community singing, vocal solos by Mr. Moffatt Dennis; presentation of Scout cup to Carl Marquardt; skit by Thelma Smethurst and Mrs. Burton Peck; accordion solo by Elmer Pieper; radio skit, "Battle of the Sexes," conducted by Master C. J. D. Bauman and Lecturer Grace Turner, and community singing, "God Bless America." Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saling and Edith Edwards were presented with gifts of appreciation due to the fact that they had not missed a grange meeting during 1939.

Newsman of State To Meet Jan. 25

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 17.—(Special)—Newspapermen of Oregon will hear about propaganda, the Oriental situation, coast labor problems, newspaper features and various phases of advertising when they meet on the University of Oregon campus Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 25, 26 and 27, it was announced here today by George Turnbull, professor of journalism and secretary of the conference.

Headline speakers will include Donald J. Sterling, managing editor of the Oregon Journal, who will speak on features; Wayne L. Morris, dean of the university law school and coast arbitrator for maritime labor controversies; Philip L. Parish, chief editorial writer for The Oregonian, whose subject will be propaganda; Harold J. Noble, professor of history at the university, who has just returned from Japan, and Robert G. Smith, advertising director of Lipman, Wolfe and company, Portland.

The latest "dope" on the Oregon championship team will be given by Howard Hobson, who will be speaker at the Friday luncheon. State agricultural advertising laws will be explained by Merle W. Manly, vice-president of Botsford-Constantine and Gardner, Portland. "The Newspaper Looks at the Motion Picture" is the topic selected by Laurence E. Spraker, of the Stayton Mail.

The handling of labor news will be explained by Dick Fagan, writer for the Oregon Journal, while the lucrative sidelines open to the weekly papers will be told by Joe E. Brown, publisher of the Redmond Spokesman. "The Legislature and the Newspaper" will be the subject of Giles L. French, publisher of the Moro Journal and member of the house of representatives.

U. P. Railroad Boosts Paralysis Fund

In a letter to officials, general agents, agents and station masters throughout the 11 states in which the railroad operates, W. M. Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific system, has requested that local chairmen of the President's Birthday ball be advised of the railroad's plans to cooperate in the campaign against infantile paralysis.

President Jeffers said that not only would envelopes, addressed to the President, Washington, D. C., and so constructed as to permit the insertion of coins and bills, be distributed on all Union Pacific trains, but that local committees will be permitted to place in all Union Pacific stations coin containers in which the public may deposit contributions.

Woman with boy desires day work in town. Would take steady job in country. Inquire at Wilson's cabins.

Willows Grange Has Busy Season

Willows grange entertained with dancing last Saturday evening. Everyone expressed an enjoyable evening.

The hall is well equipped for entertaining large as well as small crowds, there being ample floor space for dancing, exceptionally good lighting system, a modern stage and in the basement are dressing and rest rooms, and a large dining room. Dancing will be enjoyed on the second Saturday evening of each month.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 27, the regular meeting of Willows grange will be held. The lecturer has prepared the following program.

Song, "The Grange is Marching On"; talk, excerpts from the national master's address, Marjorie Baker; round, Know, Know, Know Your Grange; quiz, true and false; talk, County Agent Clifford Conrad; game, How I Can Improve My Grange; song, "Blest Be the Tie."

A list of members attending each meeting will be kept by the lecturer to be reported quarterly to the state lecturer. A gold 4th degree pin will be given each month during 1940. To get the pin the person whose name is drawn must be present to receive it, or the pin will go to another drawee.

The Home Economics club will entertain the membership in an all day meeting and pot luck dinner on Friday, Jan. 19. Place, the hall.

Men are requested to bring their hammers and saws as the entire day will be spent in building partitions in the basement and other necessary work. Come early and stay late.

SUMMER SESSION DATES SET

Oregon State College—Preliminary announcements by the Oregon state system of higher education summer sessions show the dates here for the coming summer to be June 24 to August 2 for the major session, and August 5 to September 6 for the second session. Nine term hours of credit may be earned in either session. The summer session of the Institute of Marine Biology at Coos Head will be held June 17 to July 26. This session, combining the features of a beach vacation with scientific study, has been of particular interest to teachers of biology and others interested in the marine life of the Oregon coast.

BOARDMAN DANCE SATURDAY

J. F. Gorham, committeeman for Boardman, has informed Dr. A. D. McMurdo, county chairman, that plans have been completed for holding the President's Birthday ball in his community Saturday evening, Jan. 20. An invitation has been extended the people of the county to attend this event.

Jeanne Huston Gaines, formerly of Lucille's Beauty shoppe, wishes to welcome her friends to the Marcia Beauty Shop where she is now employed. 513 Raleigh Bldg., Portland, between Sixth and Broadway on Washington. Tel. At. 5733. 45-47p.

Youth Administration Helps Many at U.-O.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 17.—(Special)—National Youth Administration funds amounting to $13,524 helped 400 ambitious University of Oregon students work their way through school during the fall term just completed, Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel and campus NYA director, announced today.

Grading papers, stenographic work, raking leaves, and other tasks are done by students who earn from $10 to $20 a month. The average allotment is $11.50 a month. Above-average classroom work is required of the NYA students. Last spring term, 3 students of the 11 on the honor roll were NYA employees. Of the NYA students, 11.8 per cent made the honor roll, while only 3.7 per cent of the entire student body gained this distinction.

Hermiston Lands for Sale—Fifty acres alfalfa and irrigated pasture; also similar 20, 10 and 3 acres. All places have buildings, electric lights, near town, gravel roads, daily mail and milk routes. Also 200 acres irrigated farm and pasture land to trade range stock ranch, and some unimproved irrigated land. Write E. P. Dodd, Hermiston, Ore. 45p.

Chopped and baled hay for sale. Lotus Robison, Rhea creek. 44-45p.

Let G. T. Want Ads help you dispose of surplus stock.

AGAIN--Morrow County Joins the Campaign Against INFANTILE PARALYSIS

LET US MAINTAIN our reputation for supporting this war on a disease that annually leaves thousands of sufferers in its wake—many of them hopelessly crippled—and who without the funds so generously subscribed throughout the land would be denied the benefits of proper treatment. . . See your local committee about methods of assistance.

Attend the

President's Birthday Ball SATURDAY, JAN. 27

Heppner B. P. O. Elks Temple

Tickets Now on Sale

This advertisement sponsored by—

D. A. Wilson
Thomson Bros.
M. D. Clark
J. C. Penney Co.

Heppner Garage
Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.
Heppner Market
Rosewall-Gentry Motor Co.
Archie D. McMurdo

Hanson Hughes
McAtee & Co.
Aiken's
Ferguson Motor Co.