Melting Snow Bad on Country Roads

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH
John W. Schleevoight died at his home near Morgan Tuesday morning after an extended illness. Funeral services will be held here Friday.

According to the weather observer at Morgan there were 2.52 inches of moisture in January. This makes a total of 4.83 inches since September first, most of which fell in the last two months. Rain Monday night and wind on Tuesday melted the remaining snow and considerable water was running down the canyons. Country roads are in bad condition, being muddy and badly washed by water from the melting snow.

Dan O'Hara drove over from Kinzua Sunday and took his wife home. She had been here caring for her sister, Bonnie Smith, who has been ill for the last two weeks, but is now improved. Miss Bonnie and her father, Robert Smith, accompanied the O'Haras home.

Guests of Mrs. Ada Cannon the latter part of the week were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cannon (Maxine Carlman) who were married recently in Portland. On Wednesday evening friends gathered to give them an old fashioned charivari.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn and Clarence Linn arrived Monday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn. The men are employed in the lumber mill at Vernonia, and are enjoying a week's vacation while repairs are being made.

Wm. Hayes returned to Ione Friday after spending some time in Texas, where he visited his mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Jack Farris spent the week end in Portland, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Elwynne Peck, and had dental work done.

Bert Mason, chairman of the drive to aid infantile paralysis sufferers, reports that proceeds from the party Saturday evening were forty dollars. There will be a little more.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lundell and son Wallace were painfully injured Saturday night when their car struck an icy place on the road while they were going home, and overturned. Mr. Lundell sustained a broken collar bone and all were painfully bruised. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zinter, who were just behind the Lundell car, took them home, and their son Raymond took them to Heppner to a physician. The car was badly damaged.

Fans who attended the basketball game Saturday evening between the town teams of Ione and Condon report a fast, close game. Ione was victor by a score of 52-24.

Elmer Griffith spent a few days the first of the week in Portland and other Valley points, attending to business matters.

Mrs. John Turner of Baker spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman. Mr. Turner and his sister, Mrs. LaDusire of La Grande, accompanied her and visited in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beckner spent last Wednesday and Thursday at Athena. Mrs. Fred Mankin accompanied them and went to Walla Walla to see her daughter, Betty Jean, a student at St. Paul's.

Henry Smouse was a Pendleton visitor Monday.

The Topic club study meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Cotter Friday, Feb. 9. The social meeting will be at the same place on Saturday evening, Feb. 17.

Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Krebs of Cecil, was brought home from The Dalles Sunday. She has been a patient there, suffering from the combined effects of influenza and measles, but is now improving.

Northwest Problems Told in U-O Review

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 7.—(Special)—Featuring a number of articles dealing with social, school and civic problems of the Pacific Northwest, the January issue of the Commonwealth Review, University of Oregon publication, appeared this week.

Need for a definite program to care for the increasing influx of people into this region is pointed out in an article by Dr. Philip A. Parsons, head of the university department of sociology and former member of the Oregon State Planning board. More attention to the development of democratic attitudes and habits in boys and girls is urged as a part of the curriculum revision program for schools by Hugh B. Wood, professor of education.

Other articles described civil service and state bank supervision, the veterans' preference and the merit system in Oregon, future reclamation, and planning conference for Oregon cities.

Arlene Noble is back to school, being absent three weeks because of a bad case of the flu.
