Hardman Couples Given Charivari

Truman Cannon, son of Mrs. Ada Cannon, and Miss Maxine Carlman of Camas, Wash., were married there on Monday of last week. After spending several days in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Cannon, with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ashbaugh, came to Hardman on Thursday.

A charivari was held at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ashbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cannon. Out-of-town people attending were Mrs. Ada Cannon and Pete, Walter Corley and Tommy Graham of Ione, Mrs. Bessie Cook and Francis Craber of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson of Monument, Kenneth Batty of Eight Mile, Mrs. Blaine Chapel of Rood canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson of Fort Klamath, and Mrs. Tom McIntyre and Miss Molly, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hughes and Joe and Lura Stephens from near by. Treats of candy and cigars were passed. Music was furnished by various people. Almost everyone in town attended and everyone had a good time.

A large party of skiers and coasters went Sunday to a hillside above Parkers Mill. The following families went: Owen Leathers, Max Buschke, Claud Buschke, Sam McDaniel, Jr., Carl Leathers, Al Lovgren, Carey Hastings, Dick Steers and Charlie McDaniel; in addition, Misses Pat Bleakman, Oleta Raimey, Lurline Sparks and Mildred Clary; also Delvin McDaniel, Irl Clary, John and Elwood Hastings, Vester Hams, Bill Greener, Eldon McFerrin, Loyd McFerrin, Everett Hadley, Darrel Farrrens, Bryce Keene and Buster Bleakman.

Dallas McDaniel and Pete Haines visited a short time in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers were business visitors in Heppner on Thursday.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and Les Robinson were visitors in Heppner on Saturday.

Floyd Adams and Jim Hams were attending to business in Heppner on Wednesday.

The hounds of Charlie and Oren McDaniel returned Sunday after an absence of thirteen days. They were lost while the two hunters were chasing coyotes and when they returned they were very thin and there was much speculation as to where they had been.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and small son and daughter of Fort Klamath have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel for the past ten days. Bill is doing carpenter work while here.

Last week Miss Oleta Raimey was sick from a severe cold. Mrs. Stanley Robinson taught her room at school.

Mrs. Clotha Ramsey was home on Saturday evening from the Art Stefani ranch where she is employed.

A. D. Inskeep and Jim Inskeep were visitors in Heppner on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owen and Patsy Ann Wright visited for a short time here Sunday.

Lowell Ashbaugh came to town on Sunday morning to get Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ashbaugh. They spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Ashbaugh in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson of Monument, Mrs. Ed Geinger of Court Rock and Mrs. Rice's son visited here Saturday evening and returned to their homes on Sunday.

Miss Lurline Sparks injured her leg Sunday while coasting. It happened! He saw it! Bright and early last Friday morning, the sun, with neither hesitancy nor lotering, came over the horizon right beside Matteson butte, at 7:31 a. m., and right then and there Mr. Ground Hog, as this particular woodchuck is commonly called, saw his shadow and scampered off to his hole, for he knew positively that six weeks of bad weather was due. It was no time for him to be about, so the skiers rubbed up their sturdy skis—even new ones were bought—and a bob-sled or two was uncovered, for there will still be plenty of winter sports, in spite of the fact that our world is very muddy now, and in the immediate vicinity of town there is no snow. Also shadows at 7:31 are very tall and thin; and some connoisseurs, moreover, maintain that the ground hog never comes out until noon.

Continued thaw and much sunshine reduced the already small amount of snow to even less. The ground is not so muddy as last week and in spite of no rainfall a beautiful rainbow was visible on Sunday. All Monday evening a good rain fell and it continued on Tuesday. Our needed moisture is now in the ground.

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

Grange Hall Center of Many Activities

By MARY LUNDELL
Several meetings of interest to the farming community have been held in the Willows grange hall during the last week—a meeting of agricultural committee chairmen of the various granges on Tuesday, and on Wednesday evening a meeting of rural folk, mapping the farming territories bordering Ione on the south and extending north of the creek. Both meetings were conducted by County Agent Conrad. It is the wish of Willows grange that the rural folk make use of the new grange hall and attend the many meetings to be held there on future dates.

As previously announced, dancing will be enjoyed at the hall on February 10.

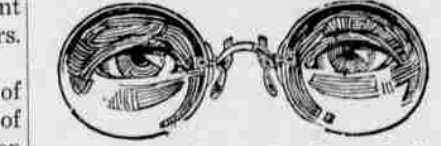

Next week, beginning Wednesday the 14th, continuing through Friday the 16th, a lecturer's school will be held in Pendleton. The Oregon state grange is conducting the school under the leadership of the state lecturer, Mrs. G. W. Thiessen. Attending from Willows grange will be Mrs. Vida Heliker, Pomona lecturer, and Mrs. Mary Lundell, subordinate grange lecturer.

The community benefit dance held in the grange hall last Saturday evening was well attended. Clubs and organizations sponsoring the dance were Masons, I. O. O. F., Eastern Star, Rebekahs, Topic club, and Willows grange, with Mayor Bert Mason as general committee chairman.

MUST LABEL HONEY

Considerable Oregon honey that does not carry a proper label has been found on the market, department of agriculture food inspectors report. All honey offered for sale must indicate the grade on the container. Honey intercepted for lack of grade has been released as soon as the proper label has been supplied.

IRRIGON NEWS

Irrigon Students Take Dip in Pond

Mrs. Ray Colter entertained the ladies of the Home Economics club at her home last Thursday afternoon.

The Comets carried off the honor with a score of 18-24 in their favor when they met at Stanfield with the high school team last Friday night. Prof. Ralph Jones was host to the boys at an oyster feed the same evening in the school dining room. Ollie Coryell acted as chef assisted by Mrs. Ralph Jones in the serving.

Large bodies of seemingly good ice within view tempted a number of the high youngsters from their path of duty and they hied to their several homes for their skates and other regalia to enjoy the stolen hours. However, after a few received a wet reception when the ice gave way with them at the Rand lake, their spirits were subdued. However, there was nothing to do but make the best of a bad situation, so Prof. Jones dismissed the entire high school for the day, leaving them to choose their several forms of entertainment, knowing that with the opening of a new day the students would be in a more sober frame of mind and be ready to take up their duties where they left off.

The Pep club gave a card party for their members at the school auditorium Saturday night.

Lawrence Ramsey from Pilot Rock was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnberg Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellen McCoy and Clarence Frederickson spent the week end in Portland.

Carl Knighten picked out a bunch of turkeys at his home Saturday. Marshal Markham spent the week end with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bedwell from Stanfield spent Sunday and Monday night with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gable of Pilot Rock were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnberg Sunday.

Some Home-Mixed Feeds Cause Worry

Many persons who believe their stock has been poisoned by mixed feeds find, upon laboratory analysis, that disease or wrong formulas rather than poison are causes of loss of animals, reports the state department of agriculture.

The department's chemists have analyzed many samples of mixed feed in which poison has been suspected, but over a period of several years only one trace of arsenic in feeds has been found. In this instance, the trace was so slight it could not have been responsible for death of the animal.

The laboratory has found some cases where formulas have been so changed in home mixing that either the desired results are not obtained or considerable trouble has been caused as a result of this feeding. Such changes in formula are usually made so materials on hand may be used.

The safest rule to follow when poison feeds are suspected is to call a veterinarian at once, because immediate attention may avert considerable loss damage. Then, if desired, have the department of agriculture run an analysis on the feed used.

The department points out that commercial feeding stuffs on the market today are manufactured by reliable dealers after formulas that have been carefully balanced, and that moreover, the state commercial feeding stuffs law, amended in 1939, protects the buyer.

As a further suggestion to stockmen, the department urges those who mix their own feeds on the farm to consult the state college for proper procedure.
