Ione Library Gets Boost from City

The Women's Topic club met Friday at the home of Mrs. M. E. Cotter. Other hostesses were Mesdames Henry Gorger, Bert Mason and Miss Emmer Maynard. They gave a very comprehensive report on Nora Waln's book, "Reaching for the Stars." A committee consisting of Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Hugh Smith and Mrs. M. E. Cotter reported that they had requested aid for the library from the city council and had been granted one hundred and fifty dollars per year. This will be used to hire a librarian, thus relieving the club ladies of the task. Others present at the meeting were Mesdames C. F. Feldman, E. M. Baker, Elmer Griffith, E. R. Lundell, C. W. McNamer, Clell Rea, Victor Rietmann, Clyde Denny, Agnes Wilcox and Mrs. C. W. Swanson, and one visitor, Mrs. Laxton McMurray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson and Mrs. Garland Swanson and two children returned Sunday from Salem where they had been visiting relatives for several days.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for J. W. Schleevoigt. Rev. Mofatt Dennis conducted the services, and Mrs. Dennis was at the piano. Pall bearers were Ernest Heliker, James Lindsay, Harry Yarnell, P. C. Peterson, Ross Perry and Ed Powell.

It is reported here that Merl Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, has enlisted in the U. S. aviation corps at Marshfield, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Timm of Pendleton were here Friday to attend the funeral of J. W. Schleevoigt.

The P. N. G. club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. R. Lundell on February 23.

Mildred Lundell was pleasantly surprised on her birthday last Wednesday with a party given by Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn and Mrs. Frank Lundell at the latter's home. Guests were Mesdames J. E. Swanson, Garland Swanson, E. R. Lundell, C. W. Swanson, Clell Ray, Carl Allyn, Franklin Lindstrom, Cleo Drake, Frank Lundell, and the honoree, who received "consolation" in the form of birthday gifts. Mrs. Clell Ray won high score at bridge.

S. A. Salter returned home Monday. He and Mrs. Salter went to Seattle and moved a son who is ill, to a hospital in Portland. Mrs. Salter remained in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn and Clarence Linn returned to their home in Vernonia Sunday after a week's visit with relatives here and in Condon.

Katherine Griffith, a student at E. O. C. E., came over from La Grande for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lawrence of Silverton spent a few days last week at the James Lindsay home. Mrs. Lawrence is a sister of Mrs. Lindsay. On Sunday they and the Lindsays visited in Echo and on Butter creek, the old home of the Lindsay family. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence returned home Monday.

Work was commenced Monday on a new modern Standard service station to be operated by Roy Lindstrom and Garland Swanson. N. D. Bailey of Heppner is doing the work. The building will be located on Main street on the site of the old J. T. Walker store, and a census taker or tax collector could find most of the male populace there.

Betty Rood received painful burns on her face Tuesday when operating a gas stove at the schoolhouse. The flame had gone out, and when it was re-lit, exploded in her face. First aid was applied at once.

At the close of the meeting of the Omaha Woodmen Monday evening Harry Peterson was honored by his brothers with a stork shower. Coffee and sandwiches were served. About twenty were present.

Mrs. Frank Engelman is ill at her home here.

C. J. Newlin arrived from Seattle Sunday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Clara Newlin. His home is in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Walter Dobyms and Henry Peterson are in Portland, receiving medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCarty returned to their home in Pendleton

Sunday after a visit here with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorger. Rose Marie and Billie Gorger spent the week end here and all returned to Pendleton together.

Freda Ball is indisposed at her home as the result of injuries suffered when she fell while skating at the Legion hall Saturday evening.
