"Forgotten Victory" Has Farm Interest

Morrow county farmers should be particularly interested in the short story told in the dramatic and educational picture, "Forgotten Victory," coming to the Star theater on Wednesday and Thursday, February 28 and 29. For in the telling of the story of Mark Carleton, grain expert of the U. S. government around the turn of the present century, there is much material close to the interest of the wheat farmer and, in fact, to all who depend upon the husbandry of the soil for their food sustenance. It deals with Carleton's effort to find a hardy substitute for the American product of wheat, strong enough to stand up under adverse weather conditions.

The feature program is a snappy comedy, "He Married His Wife," starring Joel McCrea, Nancy Kelly, Roland Young, Mary Boland and Cesar Romero. Other short subjects consist of one of the popular Our Gang comedies and a News of the Day, bringing a pictorial story of recent news events.

Lloyd Baldrige who has been staying at the Marion Finch home this winter has gone to the Amil Epsom ranch in Sand Hollow.
