

Mary A. Brown Was Native of Oregon

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. Brown, 87, whose death occurred at the home of her son, Scott Brown on Rock creek, Thursday, March 7, were held from the Congegational church in Condon Saturday, March 9, Rev. Martin Clark of the Christian church of Heppner officiating. Mrs. Brown fell down steps at her home about four years ago, breaking her leg. She never fully recovered from that injury although there was no noticeable decline until about six months ago.

Mary Ann Scott was born at Umpqua, Ore., Sept. 7, 1852. She was united in marriage with W. C. Brown at Eugene, August 21, 1871, and four years later with two small children, they came to Gilliam county and homesteaded on the ranch operated by their son Scott and where they engaged in stock raising. For a while they lived on the Neal place at Lonerock and also on the Davidson ranch on Rock creek. Mrs. Brown has made her home with her children for the past 18 or 20 years.

Five of the eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Brown survive. They are Mrs. Sophronia Thompson of Heppner, Mrs. Tilda King of Spanaway, Wash., Mrs. Dora Reed of Spray, Mrs. Linnie Loudon and Scott Brown of Condon. She is also survived by five of her eight brothers and sisters: Mrs. Dora Hazelton of Eugene, Mrs. Lillie Dersham, Willie Scott and Ripley Scott of Creswell, and John Scott of Reedsport.

Favorite Recipe For Lamb Given

Lamb is the leading topic of conversation whenever two or more members of the Wool Growers auxiliary get together, for it is the earnest desire of the women to make the public more lamb conscious. At a recent meeting of the group it was decided to publish recipes for preparing lamb and mutton and the first of these is presented herewith:

if cooked slowly. Leftovers from leg or shoulder with neck on make delicious hash. Wash lamb, cut a clove of garlic in half, put in center of roast, place in moderate oven. It takes 20 minutes to the pound to cook. Add salt and pepper to taste 30 minutes before done. Chop green pepper and onion and put over roast 15 minutes before it is ready to serve. This green pepper gives the gravy a fine flavor. Add one tablespoon Worcestershire sauce at same time you put in green pepper and onion. I cook roast one-third of time in oven, other two-thirds on top of stove. This makes it more moist. I cook ribs and shanks of lamb or mutton this same way. Saw ribs size for serving before cooking.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank all those who assisted us at the time of our bereavement, and for the beautiful floral tributes to our beloved wife and mother.
W. C. Brown and family.

WE CAN'T BELIEVE IT
An item in the East Oregonian states that Frank W. Turner has plans for a five-story residence on Jones street. Either Turner has been stringing someone or the proof reader on the EO let one go by. A five-story residence in Heppner? We can't believe it. T. Babb, contractor broke ground on the Turner lot on Jones street this week for a five-room tile house.

LEGION DINNER SCHEDULED

WHAT CONFUCIUS SAY
Confucius say there is going to be a junior class play the 29th of March entitled, "Soup to Nuts."

This is a three-act comedy full of fun and laughter.

The action of the play takes place in the lounge of the Eatlight Sanatorium, on the desert at Palm Springs, California.

The cast is as follows: Miss Rice, a dietician, to be played by Mary Emma Curran; Mrs. Patter Beams, a charming widow, Laura Warfield; Veronica Beams, a lovely patient, Frances Wilkinson; Doctor Pilski, the administrator, Donnie Bennett; Bo Bennington, a youthful detective, Hugh Crawford; Selena Catchwell, a spinster, Lorraine Bothwell; Claire Dalton, her fascinating ward, Nelma Hanlon; Damon Goodfellow, an old grouch, Lowell Ashbaugh; Hotfoot the colored partner, Buddy Blakely; David Strong, an Olympic games contender, Joe Farley; Trudy Trudello, a movie queen, Kathryn Thompson, and Lincoln Long, not seeking health, Jack O'Harra.

Although it is about three weeks before the production will be given the cast went on the stage Monday night with all of their lines learned. It was so funny that even the cast laughed. The time remaining will be taken up learning the acting, which will take but a short time.

In previous years prizes have been given to those who sold over a certain amount of tickets, speeches were given before the assembly telling the classes one by one that they should take a greater part in the ticket selling campaign, but this year we are offering no prizes, and no speeches will be given that will tend to cause friction or ill feeling between the classes as has been done in the past. However, tickets will be given each class president. He will in turn hand them out to the members of his class who feel that they would like to aid in the ticket selling. The charge for admission will be 15 cents, 25 cents and 35 cents.

We realize from previous experience it will be up to the junior class to make this production a financial success as well as otherwise, although any assistance given us by the various classes or clubs will be appreciated.

Up and Down Our Halls
Mary Daly was in Pendleton Saturday, visiting at the St. Anthony's hospital.

Dean Sprinkel was in Pendleton Wednesday, during which time he went through the Eastern Oregon state hospital in order to gain material on which to report to his sociology class.

After a two weeks' siege of the measles, Cora Scott, a band major-ette, is again back in school.

Rita Robinson is bark in school, fully recovered from the measles.

Robert Swick is ill at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. O. Bayless.

Mrs. Juanita Carmichael, a former teacher of Heppner grade school, was in Heppner Friday.

Clara Adams, accompanying Harold Armstrong, attended the production of "Gone With the Wind" in Walla Walla Thursday.
