Central American Visits in Hardman

The death of George Hayden, shortly after midnight on Saturday, brought sorrow to the entire community, as he was one of our best loved citizens. His popularity was evidenced by the fact that it was at a community party at the high school, while he and Mrs. Hayden were showing the younger folks some of the old-time dances, that he dropped dead. George Hayden was born near Salem on Sept. 9, 1874, and spent his entire life in the state. When he was four years old, his parents moved to eastern Oregon. For the six years before coming to this country, Mr. Hayden ran a jewelry store at Klamath Falls where he also leaves a host of friends. In 1922 he started working for the county, and in 1937 he moved permanently to his mountain home, about 11 miles south of Hardman where he operated a sawmill. During the severest weather the Haydens resided here in Hardman. Mr. Hayden took an active part in all the various phases of community life. He was chairman of the local church committee, and a member of both the I. O. O. F. and the Rebekah lodges. For the five years previous to last June he had been a member of the local union high school board. At various times he had served on the Burton Valley school board. He was the democratic committeeman from this precinct.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy MacNaught of San Salvador, Central America, were in Hardman on Tuesday of last week. In the afternoon Mr. MacNaught talked at the high school on the customs and every day life of the people with whom he had worked as a missionary for ten years. Mrs. MacNaught, who helps her husband in his mission, sang a hymn in Spanish which is the language commonly used. In the evening at the church they talked of the various religious practices prevalent in that part of Central America. Mrs. MacNaught sang in both English and Spanish.

Forest Adams went to work for Archie Ball at the Clark Stephens ranch.

Archdeacon Robathan of Pendleton held services in the church on Sunday at 3:30 p. m. There was a good attendance.

Lee Hall of Bend who has been holding revival meetings in the high school auditorium, left on Sunday, following his last service for Spray where he preached on Sunday evening and returned to Bend on Monday.

Everett Ely went to his home in Touchet, Wash., on Wednesday of last week. He brought Mrs. Ely back with him. Mrs. Stanley Robinson went to Heppner after them on Saturday.

Mrs. Marvin Brannon and Miss Frances Inskeep accompanied Mrs.

Stanley Robinson to Alpine on Friday afternoon to get Mrs. Neal Knighten.

The high school pupils, including the one boy, attended play day in Heppner on Friday, March 15. Mrs. Elden McFerrin took them and they all reported a very good time. Four of the girls, Vera and Vern McDaniel, Mildred Clary and Jeanne Leathers, put on a one-act play, "Girls, Behave."

Neal F. Knighten was a business visitor in Umatilla county on last Monday.

On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Jr., returned from the Clyde Wright ranch where they have been working. On Sunday they moved to Reeds Mill, where they will work during the spring and summer.

Mr. Chase and Mr. and Mrs. Shoenberger of Spray came over for church services on Friday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chase, pastor of Baptist church of Spray and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Royce, Mrs. May Tillie, the Misses Shoenberger and Rohohl, Mr. Shoenberger, and Wayne Kaneaster were at the church services held at the Hardman high school Sunday afternoon. Miss Oleta Raimey spent the week end with Miss Katherine Griffith at Ione.

Plans for the program of one-act plays, songs and readings given for raising money for the 4-H club scholarships, are going forward. The date—Saturday, March 30, at 8 p. m. Admission charges are 25 cents and 15 cents. It is hoped that a large crowd will be present. Don't miss "Among Us Girls" by the Rebekahs.

Increasing warmth and sunny days marked the weather for last week. The ground hog's dominion ceased on Friday with a final puff, for that day was windy. Over the week end, for the first time this spring, wraps were unnecessary.
