Halvorsen Butte Scene of Service

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Twenty-two persons attended the sunrise service on Easter morning on Halvorsen butte. Services were held at the foot of a white cross, placed there by William Burke. An organ was transported in a pick-up loaned by Garland Swanson. After the service, the group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker, where breakfast was prepared and served.

The first part of the Sunday school hour was devoted to an excellent program. There were readings and exercises by the little people, as well as some fine numbers by the older folk. One hundred twenty-eight attended Sunday school, and a goodly number remained for church. Several special musical selections preceded the sermon.

Miss Eva Swanson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson on Easter.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann is ill at her home here. Mrs. Minnie Farnes is caring for her.

At a meeting of the O. E. S. Social club Monday the following officers were chosen: President, Anna Smouse; vice-president, Lena Lundell, and secretary, Elaine Rietmann.

New books on the shelves at the library are "My New Book Shelf" (four little books), Gulliver's Travels, Joan and the Three Deer, Peter Rabbit's Birthday, Peter Rabbit and the Little Boy, Uncle Wiggly's Library (consisting of eight books for the little people), Emerald City of Oz, Mother West Wind's Children, Abe Lincoln Grown Up by Carl Sandburg, The Sisters by Myra Brinig, Grandfather Was Queer by Richardson Wright, Land Below the Wind by Agnes Newton Keith, Consultation Room by Frederic Loomis, The Brand Brothers by Robert Ames Bennet, and Big Show by Charles Cooke.

Dixon T. Smith came over from Walla Walla Thursday for a ten-day visit with his family.

Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. Hugh Smith entertained last Wednesday at the Smith home in honor of Mrs. Victor Peterson of The Dalles. Three tables of bridge were in play and high prize was won by Mrs. Omar Rietmann, low by Mrs. David Rietmann, and guest prize by Mrs. Peterson.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Ms. H. O. Ely, at Morgan for several weeks, departed Saturday for her home at Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom of Morgan were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Rose Marie and Billie Gorger spent their Easter vacation at home. They returned to Pendleton Monday.

Jerry Phillips, Portland, a freshman at U. C., visited several days last week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Dixon T. Smith. He departed Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yarnell and son Alton spent the Easter week end at Bickleton with Mr. Yarnell's father.

Mrs. Fred Mankin and Mrs. Lee Beckner returned Thursday from Portland.

Mrs. George C. Krebs of Cecil is in The Dalles with her daughter, Margaret Anne, who is a patient in the hospital there. Margaret is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism and has been seriously ill, but is now much better. Her brothers, Mancell and Marion, visited her Sunday.

Mrs. Dale Ray is visiting her sons at Lyle, Wash., and at Hood River.

A joint birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Yarnell on March 20 honoring Mrs. James Lindsay, Mrs. Diantha Akers, Mrs. W. M. Eubanks and Mrs. Louis Ball. A belated birthday gift was also presented to Mrs. E. M. Baker by some of the ladies. A large birthday cake was made by Mrs. P. C. Peterson. The table decorations were a combination of green and yellow, featuring both St. Patrick's and Easter. The honorees received many lovely gifts. Besides those mentioned other guests were Mrs. Ernest C. Heliker, Miss Barbara Wetmore, Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter and Mrs. Henry Gorger.

Warm sunny days have been followed by somewhat cooler weather, with several nice showers, which pleases the wheat farmers greatly. The rain Monday night amounted to .25 inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ekleberry and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Rood Ekleberry and two children drove to Lebanon Friday to attend the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler were for many years residents of the Cecil section.

Fight Card Being Planned for April

Heppner's fire fighters, let down a little by the weather man and conflicting engagements at the time of their first fight card, are planning another smoker for some time in April. Definite date has not been set but some of the mitt artists are reported to be warming up for the affair.

Injuries to some of the boys participating in the first card will keep them out of the forthcoming bouts. Some of them were too anxious to annihilate their opponents and injured themselves. It was a snappy card throughout, regardless of the fact that haymakers were lacking. The main event, Partlow vs. Doney, was called off in the fourth due to an injury to Partlow's arm. The boys mixed it well up to that time. McCracken took a decision over Moschella, Marshall outpointed his opponent, Klocke, Gumm and Hensley drew and "Tornado" Partlow took a decision over "Batting" Corpe.

Sunrise Service

Draws Assemblage

Sunrise services conducted by young people of Heppner and Lexington attracted large numbers Easter morning. At Heppner some 65 young people, and some not so young, made the trek to the summit of Morrow hill where the large cross had been erected earlier and there joined in the services of song and talks.

At Lexington 30 people assembled on a hill a few miles to the northwest and enjoyed a program prepared by young people of the Lexington churches.

The day was climaxed at Heppner with presentation of the cantata, "Memories of Easter," by the combined Methodist and Christian church choirs of Heppner and singers from the Lexington churches. The cantata was given at Lexington Friday evening to an audience that filled the Christian church. Approximately 300 people turned out to hear the chorus at the Christian church in Heppner Sunday evening.

DAFFODILS IN DEMAND

J. A. Anglin ordered 2000 daffodils for his 10-year anniversary celebration at the Safeway store last Saturday. He believes he made a mistake in ordering, for the 2000 posies were nearly gone before noon and afternoon customers were disappointed. Had the order been 5000 it would have been nearer the right number, he says.
