Lex Pastime, Market To be Sold at Auction

By MARGARET SCOTT
The long established Lane pastime and market at Lexington, only businesses of their kind in the town, will go on the auction block next Wednesday in settlement of the estate of the late Howard Lane, who established them and gave them his name. Pastime, grocery store and meat market, with all fixtures, two trucks, ICC and PUC permits, blacksmith tools, complete set of truck equipments, gasoline storage tank and pumps are included in the sale list as given in the advertisement in another column. R. F. Phillips is administrator of the estate, V. R. Runnion will call the sale and E. H. Miller will be clerk.
