

Farm Loan Group Meets in Heppner

Upwards of 100 people were guests of the Hardman National Farm Loan association at a dinner given in the banquet room of the I. O. O. F. hall in Heppner Friday on the occasion of the annual meeting of the group. Vawter Parker, secretary-treasurer of the HNFLA, was in charge of the dinner and program arrangements. Included in the dinner list were farmer members of Morrow county and their wives and officials of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane.

John Wightman, president of the HNFLA, presided at the meeting which was held in the lodge room following the dinner and presented O. G. Swenson, director of the Federal Land bank of Spokane. Swenson spoke briefly on the bank's work and stated that the FLA is the largest and richest cooperative system in the world, its financing involving as much as $3,000,000,000.

Other speakers included Henry Baker, director; W. H. Ragsdale, director of the Federal Land bank and former eastern Oregon resident; Dave Grove, district manager of the FLB, who talked on collections. Walter Moore, secretary of the PCA at Pendleton, was introduced, as were the directors of the HNFLA. The Hardman National Farm loan association was first organized in 1917, at which time two other units, Ione and West Extension, were active. The latter have become defunct under the group office plan of the Federal Land bank.

John Wightman is president of the HNFLA. Chas. B. Cox, vice-president, and Henry Baker, Frank Wilkinson and Ralph Benge constitute the remainder of the board.
