Electric Range Dealers Announce Big Contest

Heppner electric dealers and the Pacific Power & Light company have joined in sponsoring an electric range contest in which a total of 78 items, including electric ranges, electric roasters and numerous other valuable merchandise orders will be given away, announces Ray P. Kinne, local manager of the power company.

"The contest is very easy," Kinne states. "Each contestant is asked to write in no less than 50 and no more than 100 words his answer to this statement: 'I would like to own a 1940 electric range because...'" The entries from this district, which includes Pendleton, Heppner and vicinity, will be judged by a jury of three prominent people of Pendleton, Mrs. Moreland, Mrs. Bishop and Miss Purchase.

These judges will determine the winners of one of the electric roasters, one of the $10 and three of the $5 prizes. The winning entries from this district will compete against the winning entries from the other districts served by Pacific Power & Light company. The judges of the finals, who will select the winners of the five electric ranges, will be Mrs. C. W. Wall, president of the Oregon Parent-Teachers association; Miss Elizabeth Prior, principal, Yakima junior college, and a member of the staff of Whitman college.

All electric range dealers and the P. P. & L. office now have entry forms. Patrons are urged to pick up one at once and start on their statements. The entry form contains complete details about the contest and many of the facts about electric ranges that will be needed. Other facts may be obtained from the dealer giving out the entry form. The contest is open to anyone served by Pacific Power & Light company except employees and their families of cooperating dealers and the company. The contest closes May 31.

Relatives Learn of Bruce Haines' Death

Word has just been received by Ben Anderson telling of the death of Bruce Haines in Alaska. Haines, a resident of Valdez, passed away in December. Burial was at Valdez. He had been a long-time resident of the far north country.

Haines visited his relatives in and around Heppner last summer, it being his first visit in more than thirty years. He was a brother of the late Beach Haines, who operated the Ione hotel for many years. An adopted son, Tommy, survives. Mrs. Haines, sister of Mr. Anderson, died four years ago.
