Those people on the "quiz" programs over the radio who sometimes appear dumb to the listeners may be a lot brighter than they sound. At least that is the opinion of a numebr of Heppner people who attended a program at the Masonic) 1936 Ford Tudor Sedan. lodge hall last Friday evening and 1934 Ford Tudor Sedan. participated in a "radio" quiz conducted by C. J. D. Bauman. The 1934 Chevrolet Truck quiz came at the end of a brief program which included piano duets by Mrs. J. O. Turner and Marjorie Parker, vocal solos by Mrs. O. G. Crawford and numbers by the Lions club quartet.

Bauman had a list of questions ular radio programs. There were two judges and a time keeper. The crowd was divided in two sections, the north and the south. Both sides got along nicely until the question, What carpenter's tool is spelled the same forward and backward?" was propounded. (Can you answe that one in the space of one minute?)
