Oregon's Rankings in Stock Inventory

The rank which Oregon took in the 48 states in the inventories of various classes of livestock on hand January 1, 1940, is reported as follows by the state department of agriculture:

Turkeys, 3rd; all cattle, 26th; chickens, 34th; milch cows, 29th; horses, 24th; hogs, 30th; mules, 32nd; sheep, 10th.

The number on Oregon farms the first day of this year: Turkeys, 475,000; chickens, 3,124,000; horses, 152,000; mules, 7,000; all cattle, 1,012,000; milch cows and heifers 258,000; hogs, 274,000; sheep, 1,958,000.

The total inventory value of all livestock in Oregon on that date was $81,213,000; and in the United States, $5,181,951,000. The figures are based on a survey made by the federal agricultural marketing service.

BARLEY HEADS EARLY

Clyde Denny, in town Wednesday from his Social Ridge ranch, said that some volunteer barley in one of his fields is headed out. The grain is on a tract which was the center of a heavy rain last fall, at which time Denny got busy and drilled the field, getting the jump on his less fortunate grain growing neighbors.

Summer pasture for rent; 1920 acres on Wall creek; well watered. Suitable for cattle or sheep. Inquire at this office. 8-10.
