

Local News

Fred W. Falconer and son, Fred, Jr., have been in Heppner several days this week looking after business interests. Fred, Sr., owns the former Markham place in Cason canyon which has been rented to local people from year to year. The former Pendleton sheep man is now a resident of Walla Walla.

Mrs. Tracy Moburg and two small daughters from Seattle are visiting at the home of Mrs. Moburg's sister, Mrs. W. S. Bennett. They arrived Saturday evening in company with Mr. Moburg who returned home Sunday. Mr. Moburg is an engineer at present engaged in bridge building near Seattle.

Mrs. Doris Rice and Miss Inga Bretzen of Portland were week end visitors with Heppner friends. Mrs. Rice recently received her certificate as a trained nurse and is practicing her profession in the city. Miss Bretzen is engaged in public health nursing. They were Saturday night guests at the J. G. Barratt home.

Frank Young, in town yesterday from the Gooseberry ranch, said that moisture is plentiful out his way and that more warm weather is needed to put the crops in the shape they should be at this time.

Several people attended the spring rodeo at the Tony Vey ranch Sunday. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. William Bucknum, Margaret Farley, Tom Healy, D. M. Ward and Pat Mollahan.

Merle Cummings and family spent the week end in Portland, and Mr. Cummings reports seeing the Beavers of that city go to town in three baseball games against the San Francisco Seals.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville L. Smith and son Jimmy motored to Spokane Sunday. Mr. Smith returned home Tuesday, while Mrs. Smith and son stopped in Yakima for a week's visit.

Lee and Harold Scritsmeier were visitors in town yesterday afternoon. Work is progressing toward getting their sawmill operations on ppper Rhea creek under way for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. William Becket and children were week end guests at the home of Mrs. Becket's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wehmeyer. The Beckets make their home in Waitsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward were called to Wenatchee Monday morning in response to a message that Mrs. Ward's nephew was dead as the result of a hunting accident.

Bill Freitag, chief clerk of the Pacific Power and Light company, visited the Heppner office this week on routine business. Freitag's headquarters are in Pendleton.

Mrs. C. C. Dunham, who spent a month here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford, left Saturday afternoon for her home in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saling of lower Sand Hollow were Heppner business visitors Tuesday.

Glenn Hayes has gone to Lone Rock where he is building a barn on the Joe Hayes ranch.

Erik Bergstrom was a business visitor in Heppner Wednesday from his ranch on Eight Mile.

Phil Griffin, Ione farmer, was transacting business in Heppner Tuesday.

Lost—Mink neck piece some place on streets of Heppner or between Heppner and Pendleton. Reward for return to Mrs. J. O. Rasmus. 9p.

FORMER SPEAKER VISITS

Harry D. Boivin of Klamath Falls, former speaker of the lower house of the Oregon legislature, was a Heppner visitor Monday. Boivin is a candidate for delegate to the national democratic convention and is making a tour of eastern Oregon interviewing members of his party. He is running unpledged, stating that he will follow the wishes of the people. He was accompanied on his tour by Lyle McCroskey, attorney of Portland.

TO OPEN BEAUTY SHOP

Mrs. Myrtle Aiken went to Portland the first of the week to purchase equipment for a beauty shop which she will open in the quarters formerly used by Gordelen Beauty shop. The place will be known as Myrtle's Beauty Salon and will be opened as soon as equipment can be installed. Miss Helen Van Schoiack, formerly of the Gordelen shop, has been retained as operator by Mrs. Aiken.

CARS COLLIDE

Cars driven by J. G. Thomson and Bernie Allstott collided Tuesday afternoon when Allstott backed away from the curb opposite the Thomson Bros. store and was struck by the Thomson car. Thomson was driving north when Allstott's car suddenly loomed in front of him. Both cars suffered minor damages.

WOOL BRINGS 25 CENTS

First wool sale of the season in Morrow county was reported Tuesday from Portland where it was stated that the Barney Doherty clip had been purchased by J. B. Stanfield at a price of about 25 cents a pound.

SHIP SHEEP TO IDAHO

George Slover of Weiser, Idaho, shipped 2100 head of sheep from the local yards last night to his ranch in Idaho. Ewes and lambs made up the lot purchased here from Frank Wilkinson and C. W. McNamer. Several car loads were added to the shipment at Echo.

For Sale—Washing machine driven radio battery charger. George Medlock, Rhea creek.

Carnival is Offering of Lexington School

The Lexington schools are entertaining the county Saturday night (May 4) in the form of a funfule and frolicsome carnival and dance. The gym doors will open upon the gala annual occasion at 7 p. m. and from then on it's every funster for himself.

Sport and excitement will be the bill of fare for the evening and such devices of skill, fill and thrill are so arranged that there will not be a dull moment for anyone. Baseball throw, fishponds, darto and movies; a baby show, shooting gallery, spinning wheels and "Ge-Dunkem" will be there to tempt the festive spirit of everyone.

As an added feature, the Lex lettermen are presenting their tennis court dance by sponsoring Jack Merrill's 8-piece orchestra for the occasion. The proceeds of this dance will go toward financing the school's tennis court.

Good dancing, a miniature theater, skill and thrill devices galore and even a baby show are but a few of the frivolity provokers to be had. Saturday night is the big time in Lexington and everyone from old to young are invited to have their fun in the school gym.

Calkins Leads the Field in Weeder Again in The New REC-LA-MATOR Weeder

With approximately a foot more clearance and 20 percent more strength. . . . The Standard weeder is also available at dealers. . . . Ask your dealer about the change over of V-Belts and Pulleys replacing sprockets and chains for your combine.

OMAR RIETMANN, Ione, Ore.

Heppner Gazette Times, Only $2.00 Per Year

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday
 ZANE GREY'S
LIGHT OF THE WESTERN STARS
 with Victor Jory, Russell Hayden, Noah Beery, Jr., Jo Ann Sayers plus
BLONDIE ON A BUDGET
 with The Bumsteads
MERCHANTS' FREE MATINEE
 SATURDAY—Shows at 1 and 2:40 p. m.
 Sponsored by the Merchants of Heppner in appreciation of your patronage.

Sunday-Monday
 MAURICE MAETERLINCK'S
THE BLUEBIRD
 in technicolor
 Shirley Temple, Spring Byington, Nigel Bruce, Gale Sondergaard, Eddie Collins, Sybil Jason, Jessie Ralph, Helen Ericson, Johnny Russell, Laura Hope Crews
 For many years to come you will remember "The Bluebird" as the most beautiful picture ever made and the most human story ever told!
 Movietone News Fashions Lew Lehr

Tuesday
 PAL NIGHT: 2 adults 35c; 2 children 10c
Double Alibi
 Wayne Morris, Margaret Lindsay, William Gargan, Roscoe Karns
 Not in a month of Tuesdays will you guess the identity of the murderer in this fast-moving action film.
 plus
A Chump At Oxford
 STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY
 Stan and Ollie graduate from the gutter to Oxford but have a time catching up with the education.

Wednesday-Thursday, May 8-9

Never in our lifetime have eyes beheld its equal

GONE WITH THE WIND

STAR THEATER
 Heppner, Oregon

TWO SHOWS EACH DAY
 2:15 p. m.—75c inc. tax
 8:00 p. m.—$1.00 plus tax 10c, total $1.10
 Reserved seats now on sale for all shows. Mail and telephone orders invited.
 Telephone 1472 or 535.
 Picture will be shown exactly as in Atlanta. It will be shown only at increased prices until 1941.

A GIFT MOTHER WILL ENJOY

Mother's Day CAKE

"Roses in Snow"

60c

Place orders now

HEPPNER BAKERY

Remember . .

TELEPHONE

882

for

Rapid Service

on

Good Printing

Heppner Blacksmith & Machinery Co.
 UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
 D. H. JONES, Mgr.
 Expert Acetylene and Electric Welding, Blacksmithing