Lexington School Has Full Calendar

Closing week events in the Lexington school reveal a full calendar for teachers and pupils. Starting Sunday with baccalaureate services in the Christian church, events follow closely one on the other until the final curtain is lowered over the high school commencement exercises Thursday evening, and just for good measure the entire school will go on a picnic Friday. Rev. Moffat Dennis will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Monday, the junior-senior banquet will be held at the Lucas Place. Tuesday will see the class of 11 eighth graders receiving their diplomas Wednesday and Thursday, final examinations; Thursday evening, high school commencement, Roy L. Skeen of Eastern Oregon College of Education delivering the address, and Friday, the picnic.

At a meeting of the Lexington school board Monday evening, Ned Gleason from Union was elected to head the school. Mr. Gleason comes with good recommendations. He has had six years experience as principal and coach. He is taking the place of Ladd Sherman, who resigned to accept the principalship at Irrigon.

In the grades, Mrs. Edna Turner was retained to teach the first and second grades; Mrs. Juanita Carmichael the third and fourth, and Mrs. Lillian Turner, with 14 years to her credit with the school, will again teach the seventh and eighth. The fifth and sixth grades position remains to be filled.

At the P. T. A. meeting last night, Mrs. Adolph Maejske was elected president; Ned Gleason, vice president, and Mrs. Mary Edwards, secretary-treasurer. The association presented Ladd Sherman with a book. Junaita Carmichael's room put on two clever dances. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth.

PARITY CHECKS HERE

Two groups of parity checks have been received at the Morrow County Agricultural Conservation committee office during the week, announces Henry Baker, chairman. Application blanks are being made up and will be mailed out as soon as possible. It is expected the checks will all be in during the next few weeks.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Anna Bayless.

Mothers, Daughters Fraternize at Dinner

Mothers and daughters to the number of 100 fraternized at dinner Monday evening, the occasion being the annual Mother-Daughter banquet at the Christian church, sponsored by Business and Professional Women's club.

A feature of the program, which followed the dinner served by the ladies of the church, was a talk by Mrs. Henry Roe Cloud, wife of the agent on the Umatilla reservation. Mrs. Cloud did not follow a regular subject but entertained her audience with experiences taken from her own life.

Other numbers on the program included Collect, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers; prayer response by daughters; group singing led by Rachel Forsythe, Marjorie Parker accompanist; piano solo, Marjorie Parker; girls' sextet, Rachel Forsythe director; solo, Mrs. O. G. Crawford, Mrs. J. O. Turner accompanist; piano duet, Jean Turner, Marylou Ferguson, and group singing.

Music Study Club Presents Program

Heppner's cultural life was on exhibition Tuesday evening when the Music Study club presented a program of instrumental and vocal music and aesthetic dancing in observance of National Music week. The program, music and dances alike, was made up almost entirely from the works of European composers and some of the numbers were done in costume. Also, most of the numbers had been used on programs throughout the year and the club wished the public to enjoy them.

Piano numbers were presented by Mrs. Alden Blankenship and Miss Marjorie Parker in duet, Mrs. Eula Barnhouse, and Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. J. O. Turner in duet; violin numbers by Rose Leibbrand and Racel Forsythe; vocal numbers by Mrs. Russell McNeill, Miss Jean McElhinny, Mrs. O. G. Crawford and Mrs. Ture Peterson, and German folk songs by Leta Humphreys, Louise Thoen, Josephine Mahoney and Mary White, and dance numbers by Mrs. Robert Knox and Martha Blair.

Following the program the club served tea, coffee and cookies.

A business meeting was held for the purpose of election of officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. J. O. Turner was elected president, Mrs. Erling Thoen, vice president; Marjorie Parker, secretary, and Miss Jean McElhinny was named program chairman.

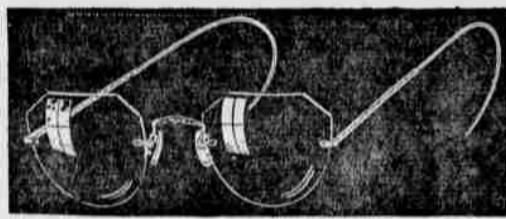

Mr and Mrs. Ladd Sherman of Lexington are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter in their home. Date of the young lady's arrival was about noon Tuesday, May 7, according to information reaching this office. Mr. Sherman is superintendent of schools in Lexington.

JOHN DEERE COMBINE

THESE birds are right!

There's not much left in the way of bird food when you have a clean-working John Deere Combine doing your harvesting. The John Deere does a fast, clean job of cutting, separating, and threshing all small grains, soy beans, grasses, and other combineable crops.

In down or tangled beans, in low-growing crops, a John Deere will do the work better, cleaner, and at lower cost. Quality-built throughout with many money-saving advantages; outstanding for ease of operation, light draft, simplicity of adjustment for varying conditions, and convenience in handling.

There's a John Deere Combine to fit your requirements. Come in and let's talk it over.
