

Local News

Mrs. J. F. Lucas returned home Sunday evening from a visit of several days in Portland and Newberg. She rode home with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rayburg who were returning to their home in Walla Walla after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton in Newberg. Mr. Morton is reported to be recovering slowly from an operation undergone recently in Portland, still being confined to his home at Newberg. Mr. Rayburg is manager of the Veterans hospital in Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bukenbine left left Sunday evening for Yreka, Cal., called there by the serious illness of Dr. A. B. Gray. Dr. and Mrs. Gray were attending a ball game at Yreka Sunday afternoon and he became suddenly ill. The Grays, former residents of Heppner, now reside at Dorris, Cal.

A business visitor in Heppner the first of the week was Alex McNabb of Pasco, who represents a livestock firm in Spokane. McNabb is a former Morrow county resident and has the distinction of holding the first life membership card issued by Heppner lodge 358, B. P. O. Elks.

Mrs. C. M. Lutkins was in Heppner Monday from her home in Hardman. She said that Mr. Lutkins is running a tractor for Oscar and Carl Peterson, having the night shift. Moisture apparently is less in the Hardman section than in the lower country, according to Mrs. Lutkins.

Gilbert Dickson, proprietor of Dickson's Variety store, spent Friday here assisting in the store due to the rush resulting from the school festival. Mr. Dickson operates a variety store at Pomeroy, Wash. He was accompanied on the trip to Heppner by Mrs. Dickson.

Leonard Kraft of the Bridal Veil Lumber and Box company is in town today checking up on progress at the Heppner Lumber company plant. Mr. Kraft is an official of the new company which is reconstructing the mill destroyed by fire last fall.

Mrs. W. C. McCarty, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. J. G. Barratt and Mrs. L. E. Dick left this morning for the Willamette valley to spend Mother's Day. The first three have Corvallis as their destination and Mrs. Dick is going to Eugene.

Heppner market, operated by A. E. Burkenbine, is undergoing some changes. New masonite floor covering has been laid and it is planned to put in a new entrance to the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Isom had as week end guests Mr. Isom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Layton (Jack) Isom of Portland. The visitors enjoyed a fishing trip while here.

Read the Wincharger ad.

Norbert Peavy was called to San Francisco on business. Leaving last night, he was accompanied by Norton King who went along to assist with the driving. They expected to be back tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Slocum of Monument were transacting business and visiting friends in Heppner yesterday. That section is having a fine spring, according to Mr. Slocum.

E. J. Fitzgerald, in charge of post-office leases for the Seattle district, is in the city today completing arrangements for leasing the Babb building for the local postoffice.

Lee Beckner was in from the ranch south of Ione Tuesday to attend the joint meeting of directors of the Heppner Rodeo association and the chamber of commerce.

Postmaster Cas. B. Cox lost out in a bout with pleurisy the last of the week and spent several days recuperating at home. He was able to be out again Tuesday.

Mrs. D. K. West of Chicago, in charge of building construction for an eastern company, was in the city Monday evening consulting with T. Babb, local contractor.

Clarence Hesseltyne enjoyed a visit Thursday night from his sister, Mrs. Pearl Wallace of Palouse, Wash., and his aunt, Mrs. C. W. McCoy of Spokane.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet in the basement of the church at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday, May 14.

Mrs. Harold L. Stiles, who spent the past week in Heppner with her mother, Mrs. Josie Jones, left Sunday for her home in Portland.

Walter Depuy, manager of Dickson's variety store, was laid off work for several days this week by an attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy left this morning for Forest Grove to spend the week end with their children, Harlan, Jr., and Maxine, students at Pacific university.

Harry Chinn of Portland visited Friday with his cousin, Edward Chinn. Harry worked in the Elkhorn restaurant here for several years.

A. E. Victor, regional director of the Soil Conservation Service, with headquarters at Spokane, was a business caller in Heppner Wednesday.

A 7½ pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buhman at their home in this city Tuesday morning.

Herman Neilson was transacting business in Heppner Wednesday from his ranch in the Hardman section.

W. T. Doherty was a business visitor in Heppner Wednesday from his ranch in the Wells Springs vicinity.

A GIFT MOTHER WILL ENJOY

Mother's Day CAKE

"Roses in Snow"

60c

Place orders now

HEPPNER BAKERY

RHEA CREEK NEWS

On May 10 at 6:30 p. m. there will be a birthday dinner honoring grangers whose birthdays fall in the months of April, May and June. Mrs. Helen Baker, Mrs. Leonard Carlso and Mrs. John Bergstrom have charge of the decorations. Regular grange meeting will follow the dinner.

Mesdames Carolyn Bergstrom, Hannah Anderson, Ruth Bergstrom, Misses Katherine Burns and Carolyn Bergstrom attended the mothers and daughters banquet in Heppner on Monday evening.

Nancy Hanna is spending a few days with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Becket, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna, Jr., are moving to the new home on the Reaney place below Lexington.

M. and Mrs. Charley Becket and daughter visited at the home of Mrs. Becket's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn in Fossil the latter part of last week.

On the evening of May 3 an officers meeting of the Rhea Creek grange was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rugg.

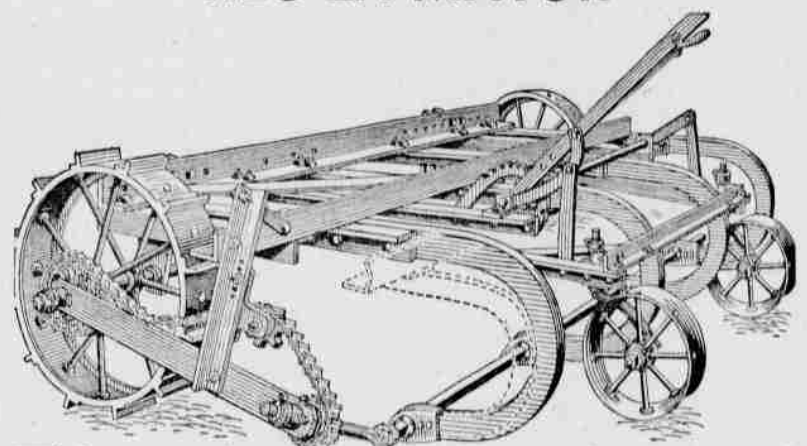

This week will see the end of plowing for another season in this section of the country. Several are already through.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Clive Huston spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carolyn Bergstrom.

A Mother's Day program will be given during the lecture hour at the grange meeting on May 10.

Heppner Blacksmith & Machinery Co.
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
 D. H. JONES, Mgr.
 Expert Acetylene and Electric Welding, Blacksmithing

Calkins Leads the Field in Weeder Again in The New REC-LA-MATOR Weeder

With approximately a foot more clearance and 20 percent more strength. . . . The Standard weeder is also available at dealers. . . . Ask your dealer about the change over of V-Belts and Pulleys replacing sprockets and chains for your combine.

OMAR RIETMANN, Ione, Ore.

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday

Free, Blonde and 21

Elastic-jointed Joan Davis adds the highlights to this "Hotel-for-Women" story.

plus

The House Across The Bay

with George Raft, Joan Bennett, Lloyd Nolan, Gladys George, Walter Pidgeon, June Knight

The drama of a woman who had her husband sent to Alcatraz to protect him.

Cartoon

Sunday-Monday

STRANGE CARGO

with Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Ian Hunter, Peter Lorre, Paul Lukas, Albert Dekker, J. Edward Bromberg, Eduardo Cianelli Based on Richard Sale's "Not Too Narrow, Not Too Deep," a story of desperate people, fleeing nameless terror through the tropics' dangers. . . . but who is the mysterious stranger who leads them?

Blue Danube

Movietone News

Tuesday

PAL NIGHT: 2 adults 35c; 2 children 10c

SIDEWALKS OF LONDON

Two brilliant stars, Charles (The Hunchback) Laughton and Vivien (Scarlett O'Hara) Leigh, in a story of London's sidewalk entertainers.

Wednesday-Thursday, May 15-16

STARDUST

with Linda Darnell, John Payne, Roland Young, Charlotte Greenwood, William Gargan, Mary Healy, Mary Beth Hughes, Donald Meek

From Arkansas to Hollywood, a thousand miles paved with laughs, tears and triumphs.

Crime Doesn't Pay

News of the Day

EARPHONES FOR THE HARD OF HEARING

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon

Elect RALPH H. CAKE
 Republican National Committeeman

FOR REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN Vote for One
 12 X Cake, Ralph H.

Paid adv. by Hugh Rosson, Yeon Bldg., Portland, Oregon

LONG DISTANCE "Puts you there" so quickly. The aim of the Bell System is a telephone service for the nation, free so far as humanly possible from imperfections, errors or delays. . . . enabling anyone anywhere to pick up a telephone and talk to anyone else anywhere else, clearly, quickly and at reasonable cost.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
 BUSINESS OFFICE, 4 WEST WILLOW STREET, HEPPNER, OREGON

BUY YOUR SLAB WOOD NOW

Special Summer Rate

$4.00 DELIVERED

$3 at Mill

HEPPNER LUMBER CO.

Phone 20F2