Cake Finds State Swinging to G. O. P.

Constantly increasing interest in republican success this fall is reported by Ralph H. Cake, candidate for republican national committeeman after a "highly satisfactory" trip through Marion, Linn, Lane, Douglas, Josephine, Jackson, Coos and Curry counties
"After visiting every county in the state, I am much impressed with the growing demand for republican success this fall," Cake said. "This condition coincided," he continued, "with the situation in Pennsylvania, New York and the midwest as I found it on business trips there in the last two months."

Fred Ely of Morgan, George N. Ely of Ione, and W. H. French and Neal Knighten of Hardman were out-of-town citizens attending the republican meeting in Heppner Monday evening.
