A. E. Heliker Dies at Michigan Home

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Word has been received here that A. E. Heliker passed away at his home in Montgomery, Mich., last Thursday. His bother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker, whom he had visited here for a considerable time last summer, had arrived a few days previous for an extended visit. Mr. Heliker suffered a stroke, and died the same day.

A conference for pre-school children was held Tuesday morning at the Congregational church parlors by Miss Lucille Vale, county nurse, and Dr. Davis. They were assisted by Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Harry Yarnell. Mothers whose children benefitted were Mrs. Dorr Mason, Mrs. Garland Swanson, Mrs. Walter Jepson, Mrs. Vernice Crawford, Mrs. Dean Ekleberry, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Ted Blake.

Mrs. Garland Swanson is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Regina Miller of Salem.

Norman Swanson of Portland spent Mother's day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson. Miss Abigail Spaulding of Portland accompanied him.

Mrs. Hilma Nelson is a visitor at the home of her brother, C. W. Swanson, who is ill at his home here. Mrs. Nelson's home is in Idaho.

Miss Gladys Breshears, physical education director for the girls of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, entertained her pupils with a weiner roast at the Sparks home above town Monday evening.

Mrs. Jean Dekers has rented an apartment at the Apartment hotel which she will occupy as soon as school is out. She came from Belgium about a year ago, and has relatives in the war zone.

Mrs. Minnie Forbes entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hummel at dinner Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, and Norma Lou Lundell were Mother's day guests at the E. R. Lundell home.

The P. N. G. club of the Rebekahs will serve a 35-cent dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall on election day.

French Burroughs, pioneer of Rhea creek is a patient in a hospital in Eugene. Mrs. Burroughs plans to go to that city soon.

Rev. W. W. Head of Cathlamet, Wash., former pastor of the Congregational church here, spent the week end here visiting friends. He departed Monday evening.

Rev. Mr. Head delivered the baccalaureate sermon Sunday afternoon to the class of 1940, in accordance with the pleasant tradition of the Ione school. This is the fifteenth time he has acted in this capacity. The church was beautifully decorated by the lower classmen. Rev. W. Moffat Dennis assisted Mr. Head, and the high school quartet sang, accompanied by Miss Lorna Barham, who played the processional.

The P. J. Linn home was the scene of a happy family reunion Mother's day. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffith and sons, Robert and Dale of Portland, and Clarence Linn and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn of Vernonia spent the week end with their mother, and were joined on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk and family of Condon, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith and family.

The Women's Topic club met Friday at the Hugh Smith home. Mrs. Smith was assisted by Mrs. Carl F. Feldman and Mrs. Elmer Griffith. They reported on Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln, The War Years," volume 17. Three members, Mrs. C. W. McNamer, Mrs. Bert Mason and Miss Emmer Maynard, resigned, and three others, Mrs. J. E. Swanson, Mrs. Frank Lundell and Mrs. Erling Thompson, were admitted as members. The social meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Feldman. Members present were Mesdames C. W. McNamer, Agnes Wilcox, M. E. Cotter, Omar Rietmann, Henry Gorgier, Clel Ray, Clyde Denney, Milton Morgan, Jr., Victor Rietmann, E. R. Lundell, C.

W. Swanson, and Miss Emmer Maynard. Guests present were Mrs. Ella Davidson, Mrs. Albert Lindstrom, Mrs. Frank Ross and Mrs. Erling Thompson.

Mrs. A. F. Palmateer of Morgan is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Henry Beers and the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heiple, and baby. They live at Estacada and are here to attend Ted Palmateer's graduation.

George N. Ely has as his guests his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ely of Salem. They are on a vacation, and will be here about a week.

Mrs. M. E. Cotter and her guests, Mrs. Laxton McMurray, Mrs. Henry Clark, and Mrs. Harry Yarnell thot they were "Gone With the Wind" Thursday afternoon when their car was struck by one driven by Donald Campbell when they were returning from the matinee in Heppner. They had just passed the Frank S. Parker place when the Campbell boy attempted to pass on a curve. Discovering an approaching car, he attempted to drop behind, but was driving too fast, so turned against the bank on the right side of the Cotter car, which he struck on the rear fender. Little damage was done, as Mrs. Cotter retained control of her car and got it back into her side of the road. The Campbell car sustained more serious damage, but no one was injured.

The Morgan school will present a program Thursday morning, and there will be a neighborhood picnic. June Griffith, the only eighth grader will receive her diploma then.

OPENS BEAUTY PARLOR

Mrs. Evelyn McDowell of Portland has opened a beauty parlor in the Roberts building next door to the Gazette Times. The building has been renovated and made into a nice workroom. Equipment was put in place Tuesday evening and Mrs. McDowell was ready for customers Wednesday morning. The new place will be known as the Heppner Beauty shop. Mrs. McDowell's family will come to Heppner to live as soon as school is out in Portland.

HEPPNER GIRL WINS

Miss Frances McCarty, freshman at Oregon State college, recently won the intramural tennis championship at the college, defeating last year's woman's champion, a junior. Frances was a member of the class of 1939, Heppner high school, and entered the state college last fall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCarty.
