Eighth Grade Exercises Close School Year

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL

The eighth grade graduating exercises in the high school auditorium on Wednesday night of last week were very well given and well attended. At the close of an interesting program, Miss Lurline Sparks presented the diplomas. The graduates were Ollie Hastings, Alene Inskip and Maxine McDaniel. Afterwards everybody danced for a couple of hours.

A very pleasant happening was left unreported last week. The J. B. Adams family gathered on Mother's day for a dinner at the Adams home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogers of Kinzua, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children, Mrs. Harlan Adams and children, Mrs. Duff McKittrick and son, Forest and Vonnice Adams, and of course Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. Neal Knighten was a business visitor in Heppner on Saturday.

The grade school picnic on Thursday afternoon was well attended and enjoyed by all. The Neal Knighten truck, driven by G. I. Clary, took most of the crowd, and there were a number of cars. The picnic was held near the highway, south of Hardman, and the mosquitoes were very considerate. Parents, teachers and children took part in two ball games which was the main attraction.

The Odd Fellows opened the hall on Saturday night for a dinner which was given as a "good-bye" for Miss Oleta Raimey. There was a good crowd, and at a late hour an impromptu program added to the enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson and daughters of Heppner visited at the Sam McDaniel home on Sunday. Mrs. McDaniel, who has been ill for weeks, is much improved, and is able to visit with her many friends.

On Sunday, Mr. Sparks of Pendleton came over for his daughter, Miss Lurline Sparks, the upper grade teacher. Miss Sparks plans to visit the San Francisco fair and also her brother in San Diego. She will return to Hardman in September.

Miss Lois Stevens, who has been working in a Portland hospital for some months, visited here for several days before going on to the home of her parents in Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burnside, who have been living near Heppner for some time, returned to their ranch west of town.

At the close of school Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lee moved out to their place in the mountains on the French ranch where Mr. Lee is employed.

Mrs. Neal Knighten, Mrs. G. I. Clary and Mildred and Irl Clary attended the picnic for 4-H club leaders and their families, on the courthouse lawn on Monday. Mrs. Knighten was chosen as chaperone to accompany the 25 Morrow county club members when they go to Corvallis in June.

On Saturday, Mrs. Tom Billy and her daughter, Mrs. Cecilia Williams, came to town for help when Tom Billy became critically ill. The Billy's with a number of other Indians had been camping near the Glen Farrens mountain home. Just as Owen Leathers was making arrangements for the sick man, a relative, Gus George, arrived and took Tom to their home at Toppenish, Wash. Those with the horses who had to travel slower, camped at the Leathers place on Saturday night.

There was a short lay-off at the Hayden mill at the beginning of the week, caused by trouble with the engine. Marion went to Heppner for repairs.

Miss Vera McDaniel visited over the week end at the Kinard McDaniel home in Lonerock.

Mrs. Duff McKittrick is home after a two weeks' visit at the Victor Lovgren ranch at Eightmile.

Mrs. Darrel Harris visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Craber, on Friday. She came up to vote in the primaries and on Saturday returned to the Jones ranch where Darrel is employed in spring plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lovgren and son Stacey came in from their mountain home on Sunday for a visit with friends.

Business visitors in Heppner on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon, Mrs. Dick Steers, Gus Steers and Glen Farrens.

Miss Pat Bleakman, who is employed at the Krebs place at Cecil, visited Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bleakman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Inskip, Basil and Nona left on Monday morning for Salem where they will visit at the Wacken home. Mrs. Wacken formerly was Mary Ellen Inskip. Nona will remain there for an indefinite visit, but the others plan to return in about a week.

The weather during the past week with the possible exception of Thursday night, was warm and pleasant. The flowers, wild and cultivated, are blooming abundantly, and the wheat and barley crops show evidence of a good harvest.

Local Girl Evokes Bay Paper's Praise

Recently Eileen Kelly of Heppner submitted a poem to the San Francisco Call Bulletin. The verse was not published but a columnist on the paper gave her a paragraph in which it is stated that Eileen has a promising future as a writer.

The columnist is Elenore Meherin and she comments as follows:

"Is youth the happiest time of life? Or is it too filled with tumult and uncertainty? I have half a dozen poems sent in by youngsters. I wish I had space to print them. They're so sweet, yet so intensely sad.

"Eileen Kelly (daughter of E. A. Kelly of Heppner) who is only 16 but a promising young writer from Oregon, titles her stanza, "Youth." When Eileen is 60 she won't be more poignantly aware of the briefness of our little moment here, nor more gently regretful of chances lost."

Indian School to Present Pageant

Heppner Lions and any other local people who may be interested have received an invitation from the Salem Lions club to attend the Chemawa Indian celebration being held at the school this week end. Some of the local club remember the fine Indian breakfast served at the school last June at the time of the Lions state convention held in Salem and know something of the ability of the Indians to entertain.

Over 500 Indians from all parts of the northwest are expected at Chemawa to take part in the three-day celebration starting today. Some of the attractive features will be the tepee village on the campus, the Indian baby show, Indian tribal dances, school pageant and large displays of Indian handicraft.

Some 200 students will take part in the pageant, "Thunder Mountain," to be presented Thursday and Friday nights, May 23 and 24. The piece was written entirely by a former student of Chemawa and the dances, songs and ceremonials used are unique and of Indian origin. It will be given in an outdoor setting.

Rock Creek Yields Big Trout to Boy

Fishing was good on Rock creek Sunday, according to Robert Hoskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins of Rhea creek. Robert caught a nice mess of trout, one of them measuring 18 inches and weighing two pounds. He fished in the vicinity of the Wyland place and had caught some average size trout. When he got a strike that almost jerked the pole out of his hand he was one surprised youth.

Although only 14 years of age, Robert is the fisherman of the family, according to his father, who was exhibiting the catch in Heppner Monday morning.

Poppy Day Date Slated for May 25

Poppy Day will be observed in Heppner and throughout the nation on May 25, the Saturday before Memorial Day, Mrs. Lena Cox, president of Heppner unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, announced today. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear memorial poppies in tribute to the World War dead and to aid the living victims of the war.

The little red memorial flowers will be distributed here by women and girls of the Heppner unit, under the direction of Mrs. May Gilliam, chairman of the Poppy Day committee. All contributions received for the poppies will go to Legion and Auxiliary welfare work for the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

"We feel that Poppy Day will have increased meaning to America this year," said Mrs. Lena Cox, "because renewed warfare in Europe has renewed the memory of those boys of ours who gave their lives 'over there' twenty-two years ago. It is for them that we put on the poppy each year, to show that we still remember and honor their sacrifices. It is the flower which grew where they fell and which now blooms on the coats of Americans who appreciate their service.

"Events of the past year have shown us clearly that to be secure the United States must have men ready and able to defend the country, willing to give their lives in its defense, if necessary. We can be thankful today that we had such men twenty-two years ago. From them we can draw inspiration for the patriotic service necessary to maintain our freedom and democracy against today's dangers. Wearing their flower over our hearts means that within our hearts their love of America still lives."

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark of Monument were Heppner visitors the past week. Mr. Clark is principal of the Monument school.
