Hardman Clubbers Leave for Corvallis

On Monday morning the Hardman delegation to the 4-H club summer school at Corvallis left for a happy two weeks. Molly McIntyre had earned her scholarship in the style revue last August, at which time Vern McDaniel and Mildred Clary were winners in a demonstration. The Hardman clubs raised money and sent Vera McDaniel and Irl Clary. In addition to the five young people, the community was represented by Mrs. Neal Knighten, who, at a recent county club leaders' meetings, had been selected as chaperone.

On Sunday, Miss Ann McIntyre left for Condon where she will teach in the Catholic summer school which will be held there for two weeks. On Monday morning Miss Rita McIntyre went to Heppner where she will likewise teach for the fortnight.

Friends of Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman will be glad to know that she returned to her home in Heppner on Wednesday of last week, from Pendleton where she had undergone a major operation. Mrs. Bleakman is getting along very well, and her mother, Mrs. John McDonald, is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell and son Clifford of Top were in town on Tuesday of last week, visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Alene Inskip, who has been suffering from a throat ailment for the last two weeks, is much better, but missed her trip to the 4-H summer school because of her illness.

One day last week Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carmichael of Lexington passed through town on their way to Monument to get Mrs. Carmichael's father, Nick Leathers, who visited a short time in Lexington before going on to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten and Mrs. Lewis Knighten returned on Wednesday from their trip to Portland. Juanita Byer came back with them and will stay indefinitely at the Neal Knighten home. Donald Morton, the small brother of Mrs. Marvin Brannon, also came with them from Portland. Donald will visit for some time at the Brannon home.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and Cecil left on Monday for Enterprise where they will visit her sister, Mrs. Harlan Weeks. Then they will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens in Union. They expect to be gone two weeks.

The dance at Lonerock Saturday night attracted a number of Hardmanites. Among those going over were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams, Forest and Lavonne Adams, Ed McDaniel, Leon Chapin, and Dallas McDaniel.

The Christian Endeavor held their regular monthly party on Saturday night at the Neal Knighten home. After an evening spent in games, Mrs. Knighten served waffles and chocolate.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James Brannon and children and L. E. Brannon of Prineville visited in town at the Marvin Brannon home, and then went on to Heppner. The men returned to Prineville on Monday but Mrs. Brannon and the children remained for a couple of weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnside and Herbert McDaniel were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Knighten.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Saling and children of Heppner visited Sunday at the John McDonald home.

Miss Isabel McFerrin is visiting at the Fred Reed home in Spokane, where she went to attend the graduation of Miss Jean Reed. Mr. Reed and Ted also went up for the occasion.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. Elza Ules and Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Wright, all of Portland, visited at the O. H. Leathers home. They had all come to eastern Oregon on the previous Wednesday and had been camping at Ditch creek and fishing. They left Hardman late on Tuesday and drove home in the night.

Eddie Russell of Condon passed through here on Monday on the way to his allotment at Two Springs. When he returned on Tuesday he visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Leathers.

Because of the cold weather a couple of weeks ago, some of the grain is badly white-capped. The middle of last week was still cold but at this writing the farmers are having the warmest weather of the year. A good rain would be very acceptable as most of the fields are much too dry.
