District 25 Holds Annual Election

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL

The voters of school district No. 40 met at the school on Monday, with 25 in attendance. Mrs. Stanley Robinson was elected as chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Marvin Brannon, secretary. The budget was accepted unanimously. Mrs. Neal Knighten, the present clerk, was re-elected unanimously. Walter Wright is the new director, elected for the regular three-year term.

Mrs. Raymond McDonald, who had been ill for several days, was taken to Heppner on Monday to consult a doctor.

Our sick and injured citizens are all getting better. Mrs. Sam McDaniel, who has had a long illness, is enjoying the warm weather. Mrs. Max Buschke, who lost part of a finger and injured another in a wood-cutting accident at their Long prairie camp, was in Hardman over the week end and reports that both fingers are healing nicely. Lee McRoberts, who suffered a leg injury, had the stitches removed. Miss Alene Inskeep is gaining back those pounds she lost during a recent sickness. But Jim Stevens injured one of his eyes and is under a doctor's care.

Miss Ilo Merrill left on Sunday for Eugene where she is attending summer school. Miss Merrill, who teaches English in the high school at Molalla, had spent two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Merrill, before leaving for the valley.

Ivan Leathers of Monument visited at the Owen Leathers home on Tuesday of last week. He was on his way from Heppner where he had gone with a load of hogs, raised on his ranch near Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Jean who are located for the summer in a place near Pilot Rock were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clemmer and daughter Sylvia of The Dalles visited here on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Clemmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Hastings.

John McDonald, Jim Stevens, Charlie McDaniel and Everett Hadley were called out to fight fire which was burning near Grouse springs. After it had been put out, Mr. McDonald was left there to see that there was no further trouble.

One day last week S. T. Robison moved his cattle from their winter range to his place in the mountains.

The latter part of last week William Greener went to Pendleton to attend the Elks convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside and children of Rood canyon are moving into the Leon Chapin house here in town.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camichael of Lexington and Miss Donna Leathers of Vancouver visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Leathers. Miss Leathers is the daughter of Otto Leathers, a brother of Owen's, and she is spending two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Carmichael in Lexington.

Jim Brannon came over from Prineville on Saturday, visited here, and went on to Heppner to get Mrs. Brannon and the children who have been visiting at the William Cunningham home.

Most of the sheep and cattle which pass through Hardman in the early summer have reached their mountain range. On Thursday the Cason sheep were taken from the lower ranch to the mountain place.

The voters of Union High district No. 1 will meet on Monday June 24, for the purpose of electing one director for a period of five years. He will be from the Rood canyon district.

Work on the road still continues, causing a very dusty condition west of town. It seems to be no temporary affair, and will be better appreciated when the wet weather season arrives.

Slight, and at times violent, breezes tempered what might have been uncomfortably hot weather during the week. Wednesday of last week was the worst, some thermometers registering 96 on that day. Except on that one morning fires were welcomed for comfort during the first hours after sunrise. There is need of a good rain.

Town Originally Standsbury Flat

To some of the older citizens of Heppner it will not be news that the town has not always been known by that name, but it may be news to many later comers that the original name was Standsbury Flat. That was the name given the spot where Heppner now stands when the settlement consisted of a log cabin and a store, according to the state's first complete guide book, "Oregon: End of the Trail," written by the WPA Oregon Writers' Project under the sponsorship of the Oregon State Board of Control.

Rye grass grew in abundance in the Heppner section in 1858 when the cattlemen drove their herds into the region to graze. George W. Standsbury's log cabin was the first around which settlements grew from the cattle camps. Henry Heppner and Jack Morrow established the store in 1872. Later, at Standsbury's suggestion, the name of the settlement was changed. Thus, in selecting names for the town and the county, these two pioneer merchants were honored.

Car Registrations Increase Over 1939

There were enough motor vehicles registered in Oregon as of May 31, to supply one to every man, woman and child residing in Portland, Salem and Eugene, figures compiled at the secretary of state's office disclosed today.

Registrations totaled 332,160 vehicles, an increase of 5.91 percent over the registration for the same period last year. Registration fees amounted to $2,453,495.93.

Private cars numbered 298,139, an increase of 5.39 percent over the same period last year, the figures showed.
