

Local News

House guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Morgan at Ione were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Whitlow and son Leonard of Falls City and the Misses Jelphna and Audred Daniels of Yamhill, sisters of Mrs. Whitlow. Mr. Whitlow worked in eastern Oregon during harvest for several years and is now a logger at Falls City. Mrs. Whitlow lived with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan two years ago and helped them in harvest. It was the first trip to this section for the Daniels sisters and they saw many interesting sights. They also saw a lot of friends and went to the mountains for a picnic with the P. C. Peterson family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford and Miss Kathryn Parker attended the 4th of July celebration and pageant at Ashland, returning home Sunday night. The pageant, Cavalcade of the Siskiyou, was an original production using home talent exclusively. It was a portrayal of southern Oregon history from the arrival of the first white settler to the present, embracing such memorable events as discovery of gold at Jacksonville, Indian outbreaks, hanging of Captain Jack and discovery of Crater lake, which the discoverers named Deep Blue lake.

County Clerk C. W. Barlow and daughter Marie drove to Portland Wednesday evening of last week where they spent the balance of the week. They were accompanied to the city by Mary Emma Curran, who went to visit relatives and friends. The other members of the family, Mrs. Barlow and Lucille, in Portland since the Rose festival, returned home with Mr. Barlow and Marie Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ernest Frederickson of Salem was in Heppner on business Wednesday afternoon. With her husband, Mrs. Frederickson has been at Lexington several weeks where they have been renovating residence property they have owned several years. They left for Salem today and Mr. Frederickson expected to return to Lexington a little later.

Harold Kester, exalted ruler of the Pendleton lodge of Elks, spent Sunday in Heppner. In company with Kenneth Akers, exalted ruler of Heppner lodge No. 358, and Mrs. Akers, Kester is leaving today for Houston, Texas, to attend the national grand lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles L. French of Moro were business callers in Heppner Saturday. French, member of the legislature from this district and a candidate to succeed himself, expressed a deep interest in the matter of redistricting the state for selection of legislators.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Zinter have purchased the residence property occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bibby and known as the Penland house. They are not giving up the farm on Eight Mile but expect to occupy the town residence this fall.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tetz and daughter Jacqueline. The Tetz family, former residents of Heppner, now reside at Grants Pass, where Mr. Tetz is principal of the high school.

Lt. Marius P. Hanford, commander of Camp Heppner CCC, left Monday afternoon for Vancouver, Wash., for a period of training with the unit of the regular army established there. He will be away from Camp Heppner until July 17.

Dan Chinn returned to Heppner last Wednesday evening from San Francisco where he visited his mother and attended the exposition. He accompanied Mrs. Lera Crawford and sons Hugh and Calvin to the bay district some three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney drove to Arlington Sunday to meet Mrs. Pinckney's mother, Mrs. W. S. Bell, who will visit here for some time. Mrs. Bell's home is in Spokane.

Mrs. Daisy Shively returned the first of the week from a visit with her son, Merle Becket, and family at Wallowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Peavy and family drove up from Corvallis Monday night and will remain for the rest of the summer while Mr. Peavy directs the Men About Town orchestra.

Kenneth Depew of Long Creek was a Heppner business visitor Wednesday, coming to close a deal with the Rodeo association for some of his stock to be used in the forthcoming show.

Henry Happold and Ralph Moore, who have been with a sheep shearing crew in Montana, returned to Heppner Saturday evening following close of the season.

Louis Bergevin, in town Saturday from the ranch south of Ione, said that he was just getting ready for harvest, expecting to get in full swing this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilson and Dorothea returned home Saturday after a few weeks visit in Portland and at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket returned the first of the week from a trip to coast points.

CHARLES LEON CASE

Charles Leon Case, aged 27 years, one month and 10 days, passed away at the family residence Thursday, July 24, following a lingering illness. Funeral services were held from the chapel of the Case mortuary at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, July 6, Rev. James Wilkins of the Methodist church officiating. Musical numbers included "The City Four Square" by a quartet and a solo by J. A. Anglin, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Leon was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case, May 24, 1913. He is survived by the parents, two brothers, Harold of Baker and Allen of Medford, and two sisters, Mrs. Gus Nikander of Heppner and Mrs. Robert Evans of Weiser, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Case and daughter and Mrs. Evans were present for the funeral. Allen Case and wife, here for a few days last week, left for home two days before Leon died.

CHARLES BOOKMAN

Funeral services for Charles Bookman, 67, who died at the Morrow General hospital Thursday, July 4, were held from the chapel of the Case mortuary at 2 o'clock p. m., Saturday, Rev. S. D. Spiesz officiating. Deceased had been a resident of Heppner for many years.

4-H Club Fair Plans to be Laid Saturday

Plans for the 1940 4-H club fair to be held in Heppner in conjunction with the Rodeo will be made by the local 4-H club leaders of the county at a meeting in the county agent's office Saturday evening, July 13, at 7:30.

Revamping of the 1939 premium list to fit the 1940 projects, arranging for a show ring and seats, planning for the parade, arranging and accommodations for the girl's exhibits and appointing of department

Heppner Blacksmith & Machinery Co.
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
D. H. JONES, Mgr.
Expert Acetylene and Electric Welding, Blacksmithing

J. C. TAYLOR
Foot Correctionist

Return date at
Heppner Hotel
JULY 15 & 16

Call or phone for appointments

superintendents will be some of the items in the order of business.

V. R. RUNNION

AUCTIONEER and REAL ESTATE

Phone 452 Heppner, Oregon

REFRESHING DRINKS AT OUR FOUNTAIN

SPECIAL DISHES

Chow Mein, Noodles, etc. always on order.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables In Season

Contributions Taken for CHINESE RELIEF SOCIETY and Official Receipt Given

MEALS AT ALL HOURS

Elkhorn Restaurant

ED CHINN, Prop.

OPTOMETRY

Come in and consult me personally about your EYE TROUBLES

No Charge for Examination
Satisfaction Guaranteed
PRICES REASONABLE

DR. STRAM
Over 20 years optical experience

STRAM OPTICAL CO.

225 South Main St.

Pendleton

FLIES don't like our Screen Doors and Window Screens

--they can't get through 'em

If there are any unscreened doors or windows in your house, make them secure against flies and insects by installing a set of our screens.

(Matching paints by Fuller in any color desired.)

MORE ROOF TALK--

We dislike repetition, but this is ideal roofing weather... Others have heeded our advice—you will thank us for urging you to make repairs now.

TUM-A-LUM LUMBER COMPANY
Phone 912

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday

RANCHO GRANDE

with Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette plus

Anne of Windy Poplars

Based on L. M. Montgomery's famous story, with Anne Shirley, James Ellison, Henry Travers, Patric Knowles, Louise Campbell, Slim Summerville.

Sunday-Monday

EDISON, THE MAN

with SPENCER TRACY, Rita Johnson, Lynne Overman, Charles Coburn, Gene Lockhart

Tracy gives you his best performance as Edison, the man who dared to dream of the impossible and made his dreams come true! One of the most important pictures of the year.

DISNEY CARTOON

Tuesday

THE WAY OF ALL FLESH

with Akim Tamiroff, Gladys George, Burton Churchill, Muriel Angelus, William Henry

The story of a man who meant no harm, and paid off his life for one mistake.

Wednesday-Thursday, July 17-18

TYPHOON

(in technicolor)

with Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston, Lynne Overman, J. Carroll Naish, Chief Thunder Cloud
A South Sea adventure story.

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon