Mrs. Opal Cason of Portland underwent a major operation on Wednesday morning. Her mother, Mrs. Lana Padberg, is in the city with her. At this writing she is getting along as well as is expected.

Applications for Special Tags Due

Sportsmen wishing cow elk tags should make applications at once at the office of the Oregon State Game commission, in Portland.

A total of 2000 cow elk tags will be issued and 1500 antelope tags. Should less than the quota be applied for by August 1, the tags will be issued in the order in which applications are received. Otherwise, a drawing will be held.

No formal application blanks are being issued. Those desiring the tags should send in their names and addresses and the kind and number of the hunting license they hold, together with a check or money order for $5.00 for each tag.

The elk season this year will be from November 1 to 16, inclusive; the deer season from September 20 to October 25; the bull elk season in Clatsop county alone, from August 24 to September 2, inclusive; and the antelope season from September 29 to October 6, inclusive.

ENLIST FOR "TOTAL WAR"

Because of unprecedented drought and incendiary activities, Oregon faces the most serious forest fire menace of many years. Thoughtful citizens are rebelling against the carelessness, the apathy and criminal activity that permits this destruction of beauty and wealth and living things. If you wish to join in the "total war" against forest fires in your home state, sign the "enlistment" blank below:

State Forester, Salem, Oregon

I pledge myself to report to you any acts of carelessness or incendiaryism that I may see along the highways or in the forests of Oregon and to observe scrupulously myself these six rules for preventing fires—(1) Be sure your match is out, break it in two before throwing it away; (2) Extinguish cigarette, cigar and pipe sparks in ash tray provided in my car; (3) Build all camp fires in hole dug in ground. Clear all inflammable material from around campfire site; (4) Never leave camp before campfire is out—dead out; (5) Pour water or pack earth over campfire, stirring coals to make sure that every spark is absolutely extinguished; (6) Never burn brush or slash in windy weather. Get burning permit from fire warden or ranger.

HARDMAN NEWS

Hardman Mourns Loss of Neighbor

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL

The death of Lewis Knighten on Tuesday of last week brought much sorrow to our community, and, although he had been in poor health for about three years, the suddenness of it was a shock to his many friends, and relatives.

Lewis Knighten was born on October 23, 1880, near Dayton, Wash., the son of Isaac and Rebecca Knighten. Five years later they came to Oregon and to this county.

On July 5, 1903 he and Retta Ashbaugh were married, and in 1917 they moved to the ranch south of Hardman where they lived until October, 1937, when Mr. Knighten's health caused them to move to Hardman, as he had suffered a stroke some time before.

Surviving relatives are his widow, Retta Knighten, their only son, Neal, and two grandchildren, Fred and LaDelle, all of whom live in Hardman. There are also two brothers, Fred Knighten of Vale and Edgar of Monument; and a sister, Mrs. Alice Warren of Benton City, Wash., as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins.

The funeral was held on Friday at the Hardman church which was unable to accommodate the large number of friends and relatives who came. The Rev. Martin Clark of Heppner assisted by the Rev. E. L. Ely of Hardman, conducted the services. Two songs, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Going Down the Valley" were sung by J. O. and F. W. Turner, O. G. Crawford and F. C. Alfred, accompanied at piano by Mrs. J. O. Turner. Pallbearers were Floyd Adams, Sabin Hastings, Kenneth Batty, J. E. Craber, John Hastings and Jim Burnside. Out-of-town friends and relatives who attended the funeral were Fred Knighten and daughter Viola Pruitt and granddaughter Glenna, all of Vale; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knighten and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cason of Condon; Mrs. Herbert Imil and son, Herbert, Jr., of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ashbaugh and Tom Miles of Bly; Mrs. Golda Leathers of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glasscock of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ashbaugh and Garnet Ashbaugh, and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Redding of Heppner.

Mr. Knighten was the quiet, highly respected type of citizen, liked by the children as well as adults. His death emphasized how well he was esteemed by all. The whole community extends its sympathy to Mrs. Knighten, to Neal, and to the other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris McKitrick, their two children, and Mrs. McKitrick's mother, Mrs. King of Dickerson, N. D., arrived last week from Bellview, Idaho, where the McKitricks live. After a visit at the Duff McKitrick home, they left the children here, and went on to Yakima, Wash. They returned here early in the week and after a few days returned to Idaho. Morris and Duff McKitrick are brothers.

On the sick list this week is little

Joan Adams. Mrs. Sam McDaniel is feeling much better. Mrs. Marvin Brannon, however, who went to Portland about a month ago for medical attention, is still ill and under the doctor's care. She is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morton, but was taken to the hospital for intravenous injection. We all hope she will be better soon.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children of Eight Mile passed through on their way to the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Alderman at Thomas Springs near Peters butte, where they spent the day.

Guy Hastings reached here Friday afternoon late with the Bergstrom cattle, which he was taking to a place seven miles beyond Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams and sons Forest and Lavonne spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogers of Eight Mile. Mr. Rogers took over the Eight Mile postoffice at the beginning of July and has already made many improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and daughters spent Saturday night at the Tamarack lookout as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke, who are stationed there.

Several short but rather heavy falls of rain have lowered the temperature during the week. Harvesting and haying had to cease in several places and the Hardman men, who are in the fields, had a longer than usual week end at home. The threat of fires is somewhat less, although everything is still very dry and care must be observed. The crops in the immediate neighborhood do not promise to be very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Babb and J. V. Crawford made a brief business trip to Portland the past week end, leaving Friday evening and returning Saturday night.

'Oregon on Parade' Proves Popular

Oregon State Colls.—The summer radio hour over KOAC entitled "Oregon on Parade," sponsored by the state highway commission, is not only attracting wide attention but is receiving the hearty support of many cities, communities, and organizations through the state, according to staff members of the state-owned radio station.

Oregon's resources and scenic attractions are featured on this hour, broadcast daily except Sunday from 9 to 10 o'clock at night. Many of the communities featured put on their own programs, while others supply the script. Following is the program for the week starting Monday, July 29:

Monday, July 29: Medford program—traffic safety division, office of Earl Snell, secretary of state; Klamath Falls program—opening of Willamette highway.

Tuesday, July 30: Timberline lodge program—"Summer Skiing."

Wednesday, July 31: Douglas county program—Travelogue, "The Martins with the Basques in Jordan Valley;" Bend program.

Thursday, Aug. 1: Ashland program—Shakespearean festival; Oregon Caves program.

Friday, Aug. 2: Oregon state game commission—angling reports; federal forest service—reports on roads and eceation; Grants Pass program—the Cavemen.

Saturday, Aug. 3: Tillamook caravan to Corvallis program.

Mrs. Anna Bayless spent Sunday at the home of her son Howard on the Swick ranch above Monument. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Blakely.
