Hardman Clubbers Plan Fair Exhibit

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL
The Bible school as sponsored by the church in Hardman, will continue for another week as plans are now. On August 2nd, a program will be given by the school to which all parents and friends have been invited. This will be given at 10:30 a. m., the object of which is to afford opportunity for all interested to see some of the results of the work done during the three weeks which is represented largely by memory work. Loyalty, devotion and application have eminently characterized the attitude and work of all the pupils.

The members of the former Birthday club held a meeting on Monday at the church, the object of which was to decide what to do about church repairs for which money was raised about 18 months ago. A committee consisting of Mrs. N. Knighten, Mrs. Charles McDaniel, and Mrs. Carl Leathers were elected and they will investigate ways and means. Mrs. Leathers is to call a general meeting of all members not later than September 6.

At the church on Monday afternoon Mrs. Neal Knighten and Mrs. G. I. Clary met with all 4-H club members, relative to exhibits and demonstrations to be given at the county fair on August 16 and 17. Almost all the entries for local clubs will be on Friday, but on Saturday the health examinations are held, and also there will be a downtown style revue.

Those from Hardman who attended the queen's dance at Lexington on Saturday night were Mrs. Catherine McIntyre, Mrs. Clatha Ramsey, the Misses Mary, Ann, and Rita McIntyre, Mildred Clary, Clara Adams, Charlotte Cannon, Maxine McDaniel, and Dallas McDaniel.

Mrs. B. H. Bleakman and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reid spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald. They are living during the summer in the George McDonald place.

A charivari was held at the hall on Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Farrens who were married several weeks ago. The guests were treated to cigars and candy. There was dancing, with Jim Stevens and Dallas McDaniel furnishing the music.

On Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Melvin Harrington of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Con Adkins of Newport, Creed Owens of Heppner and his two granddaughters, Owen Stark and her little sister of Hay, Wash., visited here.

On Sunday Dick, Hugh, and Orville Johnson stopped here for a short visit. They had come over from Hamilton to attend the funeral of Hiram Johnson. They are the uncles of Mrs. Hiram Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ashbaugh, who left here several weeks ago, are now located in Pocatello, Idaho, where Lester's father, Roy Ashbaugh, works in the railroad car shops.

Mrs. Bertha Thompson left on Monday of last week for the Bob Thompson ranch, where she is taking care of Mrs. Thompson's father.

Mrs. Mary Coats, her son Jess, her grandson Leon Chapin, and Lewis McDonald went to Boardman on Sunday where they had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats in honor of Grandma Coats' 85th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson and small daughter, Carolyn, came out from Heppner on Sunday. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and daughters, and the party went to Long prairie where they ate a picnic dinner in the shelter. They went out to the rock crusher on the new Kinzua road.

At their mountain place, known as the Beymer place, Mrs. C. Wright gave a birthday dinner on Friday. Her guests were Mrs. Mary Coats, Mrs. Lewis Knighten, Mrs. Gola Leathers, Mrs. J. B. Adams, and Mrs. Charles McDaniel.

On Saturday Master Perry Adams,

the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Adams, fell from a horse. He was taken to Heppner and although pretty badly shaken up, Dr. McMurdo assured him that no bones were broken. On the same day little Miss Clarice Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings was taken in to Dr. Tibbles. Both of the children are well and happy now.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reid moved in from Reid's mill on Sunday. Mrs. Reid will remain here in town, but Raymond has gone to work at the Scritsmier mill on the Hamilton ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and sons Gus and Elmer had dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins in the mountains. There were also present a number of Dick's relatives from Winlock.

At the end of the week the long expected rain arrived. The heaviest downpour came on Friday, and Hardman fared the same as most parts of the county—got a good wetting. And still the weatherman threatens more. Over the week-end and up to this writing the skies were continually dark and cloudy.

"OREGON ON PARADE"

Daily except Sunday, 9 to 10 o'clock—Monday, August 5, Medford program; traffic safety; Eugene travelogue. Tuesday, Timberline lodge "Summer Skiing;" Eugene travelogue. Wednesday, Astoria, "Clatsop Beaches and Salmon Derby;" Eugene travelogue. Thursday, Asland and Oregon Caves program, and Eugene travelogue. Friday, angling reports, state and federal forest departments, Eugene travelogue, and Grants Pass program. OSC LIBRARY WING STARTED

Oregon State College.—Construction work on the $110,000 library wing here has started, with L. L. Quigley of Portland as general contractor. The new wing is being built on the west end of the present structure and will provide room for much needed expansion of both storage and reading facilities. The present library was built in 1918, and has long since been crowded beyond reasonable capacity, because of the steadily increasing enrollment.
