

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hanlon announce the marriage of their daughter, Nelma, to Mr. Richard Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes. The ceremony took place last Thursday in Pendleton, with the Rev. Earle Cochran of the Presbyterian church officiating. Both parents attended the wedding, which was solemnized in the minister's home. After a short honeymoon, the couple returned to Heppner where they will make their home.

Miss Nelma Hanlon, who is now Mrs. Hayes, was the honor guest at a surprise linen shower held at the home of Mrs. Cliff Jenison the day preceding the marriage. Twenty of her friends were present and the afternoon was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney and Bob returned Tuesday evening from a week's vacation, during which they covered quite a few miles. After visiting Mrs. Pinckney's brother, Lester Bell and family at Kelso, they drove to Seaside, and then on to San Francisco, where they spent two days in seeing the city and the Fair. After a stop at Sacramento, they returned by way of Reno and Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Macomber and family returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks vacation. They visited the Valley points and spent some time at Newport.

Mrs. Earl Gordon spent several days last week in Salem, where she visited her sister, Mrs. George Stephens, and attended the centennial. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiken were also visitors of this spectacle.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney are the proud parents of a baby son, born Monday afternoon at The Dalles hospital.

Mrs. D. M. Ward is spending a week in Portland.

Harold Cohn will leave Saturday by plane for Salt Lake City, where he will attend a conference of district deputies of the Elks, of which he is one for this district.

Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Tibbles and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson left Monday evening for a week's vacation, which will be spent at Yellowstone National park.

Gene Ferguson, accompanied by J. O. Turner and son Don, left Wednesday for Portland on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick left Tuesday to drive to Portland on business. From there they will go on to San Francisco where they will attend the Fair, and plan to be gone for a week.

Miss Leta Humphreys and Miss Rose Leibbrand are spending several weeks in San Francisco, where they will attend the Fair and Miss Leibbrand will take some lessons in photography.

A group of Camp Fire Girls, accompanied by Miss Forsythe and Mrs. Floyd Jones left Friday morning for a camp on Willow creek, where they stayed for the week end.

There was a good attendance at the luncheon and meeting of the Woolgrowers auxiliary held last Friday at Lucas' Place. Discussions centered on plans for the Rodeo parade and float, with Mrs. Phil Mahoney presiding. It was decided by the organization that it should assist the American Legion in Red Cross sewing and knitting, and Mrs. Mary Thomson was put in charge of this work.

Mrs. Alice Thompkins and granddaughter, Miss Maude King, of Shreveport, La., are house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox. Miss King is a former Heppner teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. William Benett spent

Protective Society Makes Annual Call

Pacific Protective Society, recognized by state government and the public as one of the outstanding humanitarian institutions in the state, is making its annual call in Morrow county through Mrs. Harriet Smith, official representative.

The society, which supervises a number of welfare institutions including the Louise Home, juvenile hospital and Albertina Kerr Baby home in Portland, has operated in Oregon for 35 years and is partly supported by state appropriation. Successful conduct of its work depends largely, however, upon free will support of the public.

In 1939 the society cared for more than 200 girls and 181 babies. A total of 3000 girls have been under its charge since the society first started. The juvenile hospital is the only venereal hospital of its kind in the state. Many babies have been saved from blindness and deformity before birth. Records show that venereal disease takes 25,000 babies yearly in the United States.

Believing this work to be worthy of everyone's support, Mrs. Smith said special emphasis is being placed upon solicitation of funds this year to repair the present maternity cottage or to build a new one, which is sorely needed. Any contributions in cash or produce from the farms will be gratefully received, she said.

Canned fruit, meat, poultry, grain or other produce can be readily used and may be left at Kane's garage where it will be picked up by the freight line.

HAS PLANE ACCIDENT

Donald Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer of John Day, former residents here, recently had an accident with a plane he was flying. He flew a little too low while leaving the air field at Hood River and failed to clear a fence. The plane is the property of a club recently formed at John Day. Word of the accident was brought home yesterday by the Heppner Rodeo junketeers who had been at John Day the night before.

Nelma Hanlon Weds Richard Hayes

Nuptials uniting two popular Heppner young people were solemnized at the home of Rev. Earle Cochran, Presbyterian minister in Pendleton at 5:30 o'clock last Thursday evening. Taking the vows were Miss Nelma Hanlon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hanlon and Richard Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes, with Rev. Mr. Cochran reading the single ring ceremony.

Frock of dusty rose with navy blue trimmings and corsage of roses and snapdragons were worn by the charming young bride. Wedding supper was eaten at La Fontaine's cafe, with parents of the newlyweds participating.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in this city.

Mrs. Hayes transferred to Heppner high school two years ago as a sophomore from Pendleton high, and Mr. Hayes was graduated from the local high school this spring. He was especially prominent in athletics.
