

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

With the Rodeo uppermost in everyone's minds this week, a number of Heppner residents are entertaining visitors who will be here for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Howard have Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Stout and Mr. and Mrs. O. White of Portland as their houseguests. Their visitors have brought their private riding horses with them to enjoy while here, as well as their private airplane and pilot.

Mrs. C. C. Patterson is enjoying a visit from her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Guild and baby son, of Snohomish, who arrived here Wednesday evening. Her grandson, Baird Patterson of Longview, is also visiting her.

Mrs. Hubert Gaily of Pendleton and Mrs. Oscar Rippee of Pilot Rock are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiatt, during Rodeo week.

Mrs. Crockett Sprouls, who spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will McFerrin, returned to her home in Bend last Saturday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Loy McFerrin, who spent the week end there.

Mrs. Garnet Barratt left Wednesday for Portland where she will visit for several days, before going to Orcas Island, Washington, with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Hoyt of Portland for a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Barratt left Thursday morning for his ranch in Montana.

Mrs. Lester Wheelhouse of Fossil, sister of Mrs. Garnet Barratt and former resident of Heppner, gave birth to a 7 pound baby girl Friday morning at The Dalles hospital. The child was named Vicki Lester.

In honor of her house guests, Mrs. Alice Thompkins and granddaughter, Miss Maude King, of Shreveport, La., Mrs. Charles Cox was hostess at a lawn party and tea at her home last Friday afternoon.

A baby girl was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright. The baby weighed 7 pounds and will be called Nancy.

Lt. and Mrs. M. P. Hanford had as house guests last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. C. Chadwick and child of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Mrs. O. Rockow of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ed Clark is visiting in Hood River with her father, A. Bickford, and at Hillsboro with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morgan.

Mrs. Richard Lawrence left Tuesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ross Draper, at Susanville, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nickerson drove their son, Francis, to Portland Tuesday evening.

W. C. Rosewall flew to Portland Wednesday to drive back a new car.

Mrs. Charles Cox left Tuesday for Payette, Idaho. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Estes Morton of Newberg, and Mrs. Morton's brother, Virgil Brannock, who were called to Payette by the death of Mrs. Morton's mother, Mrs. Abner Brannock.

Mrs. Phil Mahoney was expected to return home today from The Dalles hospital.

Miss Frances Wilkinson and Miss Lucille Vale left Saturday for a two weeks' vacation trip, during which they will visit the San Francisco fair.

Mrs. W. C. Rosewall returned Tuesday from Weston where she spent several days visiting with her mother, Mrs. Joe Key.

A business meeting of the Oregon Woolgrowers auxiliary is scheduled for 10:30, August 23, the day of the ram sale, according to Mrs. Ralph Thompson. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mac Hoke in Pendleton, and will be followed by a luncheon there at 12:30, when the

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick returned Tuesday night from a trip which took them to San Francisco, where they enjoyed the Fair, and upon their return, via Red Bluffs, they spent a night at the hotel there managed by Mrs. Ernest Clark a former Heppner resident. Mrs. Dick reports that they enjoyed the Fair, felt it well worth the trip, and particularly liked the Aquacade and horse show.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox gave a dinner Monday evening at the Lucas Place for their house guests of Monday and Tuesday, who were Misses Nina and Augusta Taylor of Fremont, Neb., nieces of Mrs. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson of Wichita, Kans., and Dr. O. Stromberg of Fremont. The dinner guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cox and son David. The visitors were making a tour of the northwest.

Saturday and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Cox entertained Miss Norene Gardner of Galax, Va., cousin of Mr. Cox, her fiance, Mr. Joe Cox of N. Carolina, and Mr. A. Alexandre, of Colorado.

Miss Nancy Jane Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox, who lives in Portland, is spending a two week vacation in company with Miss Elrod. They are driving to the Fair in San Francisco then visiting Hollywood and Long Beach, where they will stay with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiken gave a dinner Monday evening at Lucas Place honoring Queen Marjorie and attendants Doris Scott, Phyllis Pollock, Betty Lou Lindsey and Patricia Daly. An honored guest was Miss Adirene Fisk of Athena, attendant to Queen Marian of the Pendleton Round-Up.

Mrs. W. S. Bennett and son Billy visited at the Lazy F ranch near Ellensburg Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Bennett's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton and family visited Heppner friends over Monday night on their way from Newberg to Ontario to attend funeral rites for Mrs. Morton's mother who died from injuries received when struck by a railroad switch engine recently.

Former Residents Feted at Hughes Farm

Honoring Mrs. Hughes' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Warren from Pomona, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hughes entertained with a picnic at their beautiful country home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Warren, who is a pastor in Pomona, preached at All Saints Episcopal church at 11 o'clock after which many of the local parish accompanied them to the Hughes farm where about forty friends assembled to participate in the festivities. Other members of the Hughes-Ayers clan present were Mrs. Lawrence Lucher and children and Mrs. Cockburn from Milton; Mrs. Elsie Lassiter and Paul Webb, Jr., from Walla Walla, and Mrs. Ida Fell from Pendleton. After lunch the afternoon was given over to group singing and relating experiences of days gone by. Each guest present declared the Hughes family ideal hosts.

Mrs. Warren will be remembered as Ella Ayers, Mrs. Lucher as Anita Hughes and Mrs. Lassiter as Elsie Ayers.

DICK TOPS BOWLERS

As bombardment of the pins continued at Heppner's bowling alley this week, Ed Dick, Jr., stepped into the lead of men rollers at 223, crowding out Alex Thompson who led last week with 210. Men runners-up included Lt. Marius P. Hanford, 207;

Dit Warner, 189; Ray Houser, 186. Frances McCarty who led the women at 159 was tied this week by Rachel Forsythe for ladies' high score, while Colleen Miller stepped into second place at 149, and Sybil Howell trailed at 147. H. J. Strecker, manager, is planning tournament play to start about September 1.

LEAVES FOR TRAINING

Francis Nickerson departed Tuesday for Portland, from where he left with other coast naval reserves for New York City and a months' training cruise on the Atlantic.
