

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Vacations and visitors still have the headlines in Heppner society, with the last weeks before school begins filled with traveling and travelers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hanlon and son Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hayes left Monday for a two weeks' vacation at Cannon beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barlow and daughter Lucille left Monday for a short vacation in Portland.

Mr. L. W. Briggs and daughter Opal left Tuesday for Cannon beach where they will enjoy a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox entertained Mr. Jack Rayburg and Mr. O. Busick of Walla Walla last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shank from Marshfield, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn, left Sunday for their summer camp at Camp Sherman, taking with them the Cohn's son, Phillip. Mrs. Shank is the former Miss Eleanor Cohn.

Mr. Bobby Swick, Mr. Reuben Patz and Mr. Ray Bowman of Grant county visited with Mrs. W. O. Bayless during the Rodeo.

Mrs. A. Kuhn of Portland, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, left for her home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinne and son returned Thursday from Portland, where they spent a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Morton of Newberg and Mr. Virgil Brannock were guests at the Charles Cox home last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinne entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Sherman, II, of Pontiac, Mich., who are making a tour of the northwest and southwest, at their home last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beale and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keenan of Pendleton were visitors at the Ray Kinne home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElligott of Lone were seen at the Rodeo.

Miss Norene Gardner of Galax, Va., Mr. Joe Cox of North Carolina, and Mr. A. Alenandre of Colorado, who were visitors at the Claude Cox home last week, were accompanied by Mrs. F. Ward of Galax and her small daughter and son. Mrs. Ward is Mr. Joe Cox's aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Belanger of Moro visited in Heppner for several hours Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Babb spent the week end in Portland.

Miss Bobby Fortner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortner of Grass Valley, and Mr. James Driscoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Driscoll, plan to be married in The Dalles Friday. The couple will be accompanied by both parents for the ceremony, after which the newlyweds will take a short trip. They will be at home in Heppner after September first.

Also of interest to their many Heppner friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Emma Ellen Fortner last Friday to Mr. John Kline of Lewiston, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Kline will make their home in Washington.

The Eastern Star Officer's club met last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Nys to plan for the fall meeting. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Guild and son of Snohomish, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Guild's mother, Mrs. C. C. Patterson, left Monday, taking with them Mrs. Patterson's grandson, Baird Patterson, who lives in Longview. Mrs. Patterson left Wednesday to visit with the Guilds.

In honor of Mrs. LeGrand Guild, a former resident who has been visiting here, Mrs. Claude Graham entertained with a dessert bridge at her home Friday afternoon. Three tables of bridge were in play with high score going to Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, and a guest prize presented to Mrs. Guild.

The guests included Mrs. William Bennett, Mrs. Harold Buhman, Mrs. Guild, Mrs. Orville Smith, Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., Mrs. Leonard Schwarz, Mrs. M. P. Hanford, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Marvin Wightman, Mrs. Will Harmon, Mrs. Blaine Isom, and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., entertained with a dinner party at their home Thursday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Parker, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Guild and Mr. and Mrs. William Harmon. Following the dinner, the group attended the dance held at the pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney entertained a group of Pendleton visitors at their home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. M. L. Shepard of Salem, who is the new educational advisor for the local CCC camp, arrived in Heppner Monday. His wife is expected here in several days.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick was the scene of a luncheon honoring a number of participants in the Rodeo last Saturday. Hostesses who assisted Mrs. Dick were Mrs. Jesse Turner, Mrs. Glen Jones, Mrs. Frank Parker, Mrs. Harold Cohn, Mrs. James Daly, Mrs. Jim Lindsay and Miss Maxine McCurdy. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers furnished by the CCC camp.

Out of town guests at the affair were Mrs. Milton Loney of Walla Walla, Mrs. Frank Hughes of Milton-Freewater, Mrs. C. E. Fisk of Milton-Freewater, and Mrs. E. Smith and daughter of St. Paul Ore, Queen Marion Hughes of the Pendleton Round-Up and the John Day queen, Miss Jessie Lee Moore, were among the honored guests. Queen Marion's attendants, Miss Adrienne Fisk, Miss Wanda Piped, Miss Shirley Ann Brady and Miss Betty Troxel, were present.

Our own Queen Marjorie Parker and her court, Misses Doris Scott, Phyllis Pollock, Betty Lou Lindsey and Patricia Daly were honored at the party, as well as the flag bearers, the Misses Jean Turner, Mary Ellen Florence, Colleen Kilkenny, Reta Robinson, Marilyn Kirk, Patricia Kenny, Helen Healy and Marcella Jackson.

Miss Marjorie Parker, who was our lovely queen during Rodeo, is enjoying a vacation in Portland.

Mr. Charles Cox and Mr. Don Jones left Monday morning for Diamond and Crater lakes on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson entertained two friends of Alec Thompson and Jean Hayes during the Rodeo. They were Misses Mary Moore and Jean Walters of Pendleton. At the close of the festivities in Heppner the Thompsons took their young guests to the sheep camp where they stayed until Wednesday. Miss Patricia Dooley also accompanied them there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore of Pendleton were guests of the Thompsons Saturday and attended the Rodeo with them.

the judging contest was presented to Claudine Drake.

A leather show halter was presented to Gene Cutsforth for having shown the champion steer. A leather show halter was also presented to Bernard Doherty for having shown the champion dairy animal. Buddy Peck was given a wool card for having had the champion market lamb. Buddy was also high scoring individual in the livestock judging contest and received a leather belt for this honor. A pair of sheep shears were awarded to Tad Miller for having shown the champion ewe. Bobby Wright of Rhea creek received a grooming brush for having the champion fat hog while Freddy Rugg also of Rhea creek, received a pair of pig tooth nippers for having the champion sow pig.

Awards in the scholarship contests were 1941 summer school scholarships provided by the Heppner Safeway Store, Auxiliary of the Morrow County Woolgrowers, Elks Lodge and Braden-Bell Tractor Co. These contests attracted much attention and were won by the following boys: Swine, Clayton Wright; sheep, Don Peck; dairy, Bernard Doherty; beef, Don Campbell. The show cane awarded in this contest went to Bernard Doherty.

A special record keeping contest for livestock club members is sponsored by the Heppner Branch of the First National Bank of Portland and Saturday evening Russell McNeill presented Gene Majeske, the winner, with a 1941 summer school scholarship certificate. A similar contest for home economics club members was sponsored by the Heppner J. C. Penney Store and the scholarship in this contest was awarded to Claudine Drake.

In the livestock judging contest Buddy Peck, Bernard Doherty and Jack Edmondson of the Wheatland Sheep club were the highest scoring team and will represent the county at the state fair next month. Gene Majeske, Irvin Rauch and Don Campbell, of the Lexington Beef club, were the second highest scoring team and will represent the county at the Pacific International.

The annual Lion's rotating trophy, which is a large silver cup awarded each year to the championship sheep club, was presented this year to the Wheatland Sheep club.

Sweepstake honors in the grain show was won by Lawrence Redding on his bushel of Rex wheat and for this honor Redding received a silver trophy cup.

In the wool show, Robert Hoskins, of Rhea Creek, was presented with a silver trophy cup for having exhibited the sweepstakes fleece.

All of those connected with the 4-H Club fair this year feel that it was very successful and take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation to all the people in the county who helped to make it a success.

Complete list of fair awards will appear in these columns next week.
