

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Word has been received of the election of Mrs. Charles Cox as district president of the American Legion auxiliary. This district comprises eight units, including Heppner, Pendleton, Hermiston, Milton-Freewater, Arlington, Condon and Fossil. The election was held at the state convention of the organization held Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Seaside.

A meeting of the local Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. W. O. Bayless, with nine members present. Plans were made for the coming installation of officers.

The Eastern Star social club entertained its members last Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall with four tables of bridge in play. Mrs. W. O. Bayless and Mrs. W. O. Dix were hostesses, and Mrs. D. M. Ward won high score for the afternoon's play, with Mrs. P. W. Mahoney receiving consolation.

The Episcopalian auxiliary met this afternoon at the Parish hall with Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and Mrs. W. O. Bayless as hostesses. The president, Mrs. L. E. Dick conducted the business meeting, in which plans for the coming bazaar and business for the year were discussed.

An interesting meeting of the Woolgrower's auxiliary was held last Friday, beginning with a luncheon at Lucas Place. Following the business meet, cards were played, with Mrs. Phil Mahoney winning high score. A door prize was won by Mrs. Lucy Rodgers. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Mrs. Gene Ferguson and Mrs. G. A. Howard.

Union Missionary society will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at the Methodist church. Mrs. Blaine Isom is program chairman, and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee president of the organization.

Fifteen members of the Bookworms met Tuesday evening at Lucas Place for dinner. After dinner they assembled at the home of the president, Miss Leta Humphreys, for a business meeting and election of officers. New officers for this year are Mrs. Vawter Parker, president; Mrs. L. E. Dick, vice-president; Mrs. Floyd Jones, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Russell McNeill, assistant secretary.

Mrs. F. B. Nickerson entertained members of her duplicate club last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Nys. Two tables of bridge were in play.

Mrs. Harvey Miller, who has been very ill at the Heppner hospital for some time, is showing improvement and hopes to be at home soon.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy accompanied her two children, Maxine and Harlan, Jr., when they left Wednesday for Pacific university at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Glen Dennis and son, Dick O'Shea, and daughter Sally, of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn last week end leaving Tuesday for Ellensburg where they will visit relatives. Dick is well known in Heppner, having attended school here and is now preparing to enter Oregon State college, after being a student at Seattle Prep.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Davidson of Port Angeles were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett. Mr. Davidson is Mrs. Bennett's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alfred spent last week end in Salem, going down Saturday and returning Tuesday. They visited with Mr. Alfred's brother, Lee Alfred, in Silvertown also, and are planning to return to the capitol city this week end, with a stop-over in Bend.

Mrs. M. P. Hanford, assisted by Mrs. H. Tamblin, entertained about 25 of the neighborhood youngsters at her home Tuesday afternoon, in
