Moyer-Owens Vows Exchanged at Church

Miss Lucille E. Moyer and Robert C. Owens exchanged their marriage vows at 7 o'clock last Sunday evening, Sept. 15, at the Methodist church in Heppner, Rev. James Wilkins officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moyer and Mr. Owens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Owens of Wenatchee, Wash.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white brocaded chiffon with finger-tip veil of tulle falling from a band of blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and rose buds.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Thomas Wells and Russell Owens, brother of the bridegroom, sang "O Promise Me" and "Beloved, It Is Morn." The altar was decorated with baskets of flowers and candles which were lighted by Miss Florence Moyer, cousin of the bride.

The bride was attended by her three sisters. Miss Louise Moyer, as maid of honor, wore a dress of pale green taffeta. Misses Caroline and Miriam Moyer wore dresses of pale pink taffeta. They all carried bouquets of white gladioli and rose buds.

Russell Owens acted as best man and ushers were James Moyer, brother of the bride, and Jack O'Hara.

After the ceremony there were introductions and congratulations, and pieces of the wedding cake were given to relatives and friends.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Thomas Owens, mother of the bridegroom, Russell Owens and wife of Bremerton, Wash., and Mrs. J. D. Moyer and daughters of Hermiston. After a wedding trip in western Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Owens will make their home at Waterville, Wash.
